"BIG GUNS" OF POSTAL DEPARTMENT TO COME

POSTMASTERS OF STATE MEET HERE SEPT, 19-21.

While There Will Be Much Business Transacted Social Features Not Overlooked.

Sept. 19-21 will be three great days for the postmasters of North Carolina, many of whom will spend their time in Asheville as guests at the annual convention of the Ameriation of North Carolina Postmasters, which will be held at the Battery Park hotel. An excellent program is being arranged for the entertainment of Asheville's visitors at that time and although the program has not been definitely decided upon, a trip to Toxaway is a certainty. Many of the big men of the postal department will attend the convention, including Third Assistant Postmaster General James J. Britt, formerly of this city, and Mr. Elisworth Lyman and his cous-Mr. Elisworth Lyman and his course, make speeches. Mr. Britt's subject Mai, Mr. Julian Niles, of New York, make speeches. As there are about 1,800 postoffices in this state the membership of the association is almost 2,000, and it is expected that the convention of 1911 will be attended by at least 600 postmasters, many of whom will be accompanied by their wives and families. The Battery Park hotel, the headquarters of the conassociation will be transacted,

This association meets annually and Asheville was chosen at last year's convention at Winston-Salem over many cities which were anxious to secure it. Realizing the good of such an organization the men of importance in the postal department encourage attendance at the conventions, and as a rule many of them attend.

A MOTHER'S

It is the duty of every expectant mother to prepare her system for the coming of her little one; to avoid as far as possible the suffering of such occasions, and endeavor to pass through the crisis with her health and strength unimpaired. This she may do through the use of Mother's Friend, a remedy that has been so long in use, and accomplished so much good, that it is in no sense an experiment, but a preparation which always produces the best results.
