HAWKINS INQUEST CLOSES WITHOUT DEFINITE RESULT

Jury's Verdict Today Will Practically be the Same as That Rendered At the First Inquest—Verdict to Be Announced Today.

HENDERSONVILLE, N. C., Sept. 19.—The hearing of evidence in the inquest into the death of Myrtle Hawkins, the 17-year-old girl whose body was found floating in Lake Ocoosa near here Sept. 10, was completed tonight but the jury reserved its decision until tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock.

It is practically certain that the verdict will not differ materially from that rendered at the first inquest twelve days ago when the jury found that Myrtle Hawkins came to her death from causes unknown.

The feature of the inquest today was the evidence of the dead girl's father, W. H. Hawkins, who declares that he suspected no particular person of the crime which robbed him of his daughter.

For a time it appeared that Ab McCall's testimony would be discredited after he had sworn that he was not away from his home on Saturday night.

TRIBUTE IN PORTUGAL. LISBON, Sept. 19.—Notwithstanding the recognition of the republic by the powers and the apparent tranquillity of the country, the general situation is far from settled.

The Spanish government had long been aware that some such movement was contemplated for the end of September, but was unwilling to take radical measures until its true character was apparent.

THE UNITED STATES SENATE NOW HELD BY SENATOR T. M. SIMMONS.

The officials burst in the doors of the church only to find the edifice empty, not even a chair remaining. Rich painting, statuary, the altar furnishings and tapestries had been removed and hidden.

The same thing happened in the churches of the neighboring villages and the officials were forced to abandon the district. Complete tranquillity will return only after the separation law has been modified and the royalists on the frontier have been forced to submit to the new regime or dispersed.

INDICTMENTS FOR SIX MEN AT HEAD OF SHOE COMPANY

Alleged Violations of Sherman Anti-Trust Law Gets Them Into Trouble

GRAND JURY SAT FOR MORE THAN A MONTH

Penalty Under Statutes is Fine of $1,000 or Year's Imprisonment or Both

BOSTON, Mass., Sept. 19.—Six prominent business men connected with the United Shoe Machinery company were indicted today by the federal grand jury for alleged violations of the Sherman anti-trust act. Two indictments were returned alleging the maintenance of an unlawful combination and conspiracy in restraint of trade on the part of the president, Sidney W. Winslow, Vice President Edward P. Hurd, George W. Brown and Wm. Harbour, Counsel Elmer F. Howe and James J. Storrow. Messrs. Winslow, Hurd, Brown, Howe and Storrow are Bostonians, while Mr. Harbour is a resident of New York. All except Mr. Storrow are directors of the company. Mr. Storrow resigned from the directorate just before the municipal election two years ago when he was a candidate for mayor, but is the largest stockholder.

The grand jury sat for nearly a month considering the evidence produced by 75 witnesses who were brought here by special agents of the department of justice at Washington from all parts of the country but especially from New England. The investigation was in charge of U. S. District Attorney Asa P. French, assisted by Special Assistant Attorney General Wm. S. Greag and Oliver E. Pagan, of Washington. The indicted officials were summoned into court within the next ten days to plead to the indictments and furnish bail. The penalty provided under the statutes involved is a fine of $5,000 or imprisonment for one year, or both. The trial will not take place until well along in the winter owing to the crowded condition of the circuit court calendar. According to Mr. Greag the indictments charge that the six defendants have been working through the instrumentality of the United Shoe Machinery company in a way to make them criminally liable under the Sherman act. The second indictment also alleges that the carrying on of the business under the merger of three old shoe machinery manufacturing companies which was effected February, 1909, was engaging in a combination in restraint of trade, that it was a conspiracy in restraint of the trade of shoe manufacturers and that the whole transaction was a monopolization of interstate trade, all of which, it is further alleged, has had "a pernicious effect upon the public."

DOUGHTY FAILED TO ARRIVE. WILMINGTON, N. C., Sept. 19.—Contrary to expectations, E. M.
