

Society and Personals

Miss Laura and Miss Emma Meares have issued invitations to a five hundred party, which they will give Wednesday afternoon at their residence on Adams street in honor of Miss Karle and Miss Frances Bailey, of Wilmington, N. C.

The Anna Aetion Mimosidary society of Central Methodist church will hold a social meeting at the home of Mrs. J. T. Biedson on Morrison avenue this afternoon at 4 o'clock. All visitors in the congregation are invited to be present.

The Young Woman's auxiliary of the First Baptist church have arranged an interesting program on state missions, which will be given this evening in the lecture room of the church at 8 o'clock.

An interesting rumor is afloat concerning a marriage which is expected to take place very quietly during the present week. The principals are well known, and for some time the friends of each have anticipated a matrimonial conclusion to the courtship. To even hint at the identity of the lady concerned would be to give the secret away, but the man is a prominent lawyer of the city.

Mrs. Richard Lee Groome and her mother, Mrs. J. P. Howatt, have come to New York, where they will spend the winter. Mrs. Groome is stopping in Greensboro, N. C., for a few days to be matron of honor at the wedding of Miss Elizabeth Grissom, which will be a church affair. The arrangements are on rather a lavish scale, and the wedding will be an event of the week, as Miss Grissom is quite prominent socially.

Mrs. Jennie C. Dreeseon, of Savannah, is in the city for the purpose of organizing a Pythian lodge on the order of the Eastern Star of the Masons. Mrs. Dreeseon is the official organizer of the state and has had much experience in the work since organizing the first temple in Savannah, Ga., six years ago. Mrs. C. C. Meyers, of this city, is assisting Mrs. Dreeseon and the charter has been signed by a number of ladies. A called meeting will be held in the Piegah lodge this afternoon at 5 o'clock, to which all ladies interested in the work are invited. Members of the Pythian lodge may become honorary members of the new lodge, and have signified their intention of doing so.

The two upper classes of the Sunday school of the Jewish temple gave Mr. Morris Lazaron a surprise party Saturday evening at the residence of his cousin, the Misses Emanuel. There were about sixteen children who had the evening before taken part in the flower service at the temple, and who, armed with supper and a little gift, appeared at the home of the Misses Emanuel, and proceeded to give a party. Each child gave a toast while gathered around the table to which Mr. Lazaron responded, after which their gift, a handsome fountain pen, was presented. The remainder of the evening was spent in playing games, and Mr. Lazaron sang for the children. Mr. Lazaron returns to Cincinnati Thursday much to the regret of the congregation and of his many friends in Asheville.

Prof. George T. Caldwell, of the high school faculty, and six of the students have returned from Dr. Ambler's "Rattle Snake lodge," where they spent the week-end, those in the party being Messrs. Carl Messler, Herbert Jarvis, Milton Brown, David Baird, Wallace Wright and Leroy Owens.

Mr. and Mrs. Williams will return to their future home in Lynchburg, Va., after Nov. 15.

The Asheville chapter, Daughters of the Confederacy, will meet Thursday at 4 p. m. at the residence of Mrs. Thomas W. Patton, 95 Charlotte street.

The wedding of Miss Eleanor Lamberton and Mr. Glenn Crowell takes place this evening in Greenville, Tenn. Quite a number of invitations have been issued and many parties were to have been given in honor of Miss Lamberton, but owing to the recent death of her two sisters, the wedding will be very quiet, and witnessed only by the immediate family and most intimate friends.

"The Chocolate Soldier."

"The Chocolate Soldier," Mr. F. C. Whitney's presentation of the opera by Oscar Straus, the book of which is based on George Bernard Shaw's brilliant satire, "Arms and the Man," and which is booked to appear at the Auditorium Wednesday evening, Oct. 4, has achieved a greater measure of success than anything since Gilbert and Sullivan were on the top wave of their popularity.

Everywhere in "The Chocolate Soldier" Straus has written music that clothes the periance or that is a part of the particular moment in the opera. It is music that is rich melodiously, rich as many an elderly Italian opera that strikes nowadays as a classic. It is full of rhythmic variety and distinction. To hear "The Chocolate Soldier" is to know it again, light, bright, warm, charming, half of artifice and fancy, half of humor and feeling, of comedietta and of music. It is a most perfect device, always and spirited to the end. Tickets are selling at Whitlock's clothing store.

"The Gamblers." Every city in the land knows that there are bankers who do tamper with the funds entrusted to them. Charles Klein's play, "The Gamblers," is true to this life. The gamblers control a chain of banks. They have obtained much power, but in their desire to expand they resort to violations—"technical violations"—of the banking laws. They are first citizens to whom this sort of thing is business. The bank borrows beyond its capital and these officers are about to be prosecuted.

SUFFERED ALL NIGHT LONG

Painful Experience of Mrs. Stephens. Husband Tries in Vain to Obtain Relief

Pentoc, Miss.—"All night long," says Mrs. F. G. Stephens, of this place, "I would suffer with my back, and I had such dragging down pains I could not stand it to walk or ride, for it would put me in bed."

My health had been bad for two years. My husband got the best doctors that he knew, but their medicine did me no good.

I used Cardul, the woman's tonic, feeling as well as I did when I was 16 years old.

I used about 7 bottles in all, and Cardul has helped me more than anything that I used.

I took lots of other medicines, but they did me no good.

As long as I live, I won't be without Cardul in the house."

As a remedy for weak, tired, worn-out women, who suffer from any of the aches and pains caused by womanly troubles, Cardul has been proven safe and reliable.

Composed of gentle-acting, herb ingredients, its action is mild and natural, and it has no bad after-effects. It is therefore harmless for young or old.

It has helped others, and should certainly help you, too.

Try it.
