PLEMMONS BOUND OVER UNDER BOND OF $1,000

TRIED IN POLICE COURT ON CHARGE OF MANSLAUGHTER Several Witnesses Testified but None Was Able to Estimate Machine's Speed

W. Crawford Plemmons was bound over to Superior court under $1,000 bond yesterday in police court on the charge of feloniously killing and slaying Linwood Bell last Tuesday, when Albert Smith was also seriously injured by the collision of a coaster wagon in which the boys were riding and the automobile driven by Plemmons on Woodfin street.

Mr. B. L. Ledbetter, an aged witness to the tragedy, was the first to testify in police court. She failed to tell anything more than that she saw the accident, after which she ran into the street where the children were lying. She said that she did not know anything about the speed of the automobile and could not give details as to the collision.

Mrs. B. F. Blackwell saw the children lying in the street before the automobile stopped. She stated that when the machine stopped, someone jumped out and jerked the wagon from the automobile before running to the boys, who were about thirty steps behind.

Other witnesses testified to conditions after the accident, but none was able to estimate how fast the automobile was running. The coaster wagon was going at a rapid rate of speed down Vance street and ran direct into Woodfin street. It was shown that in an effort to avoid an accident the automobile "skidded" about twenty feet and bore towards the right side of Woodfin street. The machine passed over the two boys.

Police Captain M. Sprouse measured the distance, saying that the automobile went eighty-four feet after striking the boys before it stopped. He also gave figures showing how far up Woodfin street the automobile driver could have been and about his view for several feet up Vance street.

Herman Owenby, who was in the automobile at the time of the accident, said that it was moving at the rate of about eight or ten miles an hour.

The defendant, who was represented by Charles A. Webb and Locke Craig, did not testify.

DAILY GRIND OF THE POLICE COURT

The following cases were disposed of in police court yesterday. W. Crawford Plemmons, feloniously killing and slaying Linwood Bell, found probable cause and defendant bound over to Superior court under $1,000 bond. Hannibal Stade, colored, disorderly conduct; not guilty. C. C. Seawell, selling liquor without a prescription; not guilty. Will Whittenberg, colored, larceny, guilty; bound over to Superior court under $200 bond.

A CERTAIN CURE FOR CATARRH

The mucous membranes of the nose and throat are exposed to the irritating influence of dust, impure air, etc., and for this reason are the places Catarrh usually first manifests itself. But these are simply exciting causes, the inflammation and discharge being really produced by an impure and vitiated condition of the blood. It is well enough to use some local treatment to cleanse these membranes, but any one can readily see that if the inflammatory matter is left in the blood, such treatment cannot possibly have any permanent effect. S. S. S. cures Catarrh by purifying the blood of all impure catarrhal matter and irritating germs and at the same time builds up the system by its fine tonic effects. When S. S. S. has purified the blood, the mucous surfaces are all nourished and made healthy. There can be no inflammation of the membranes then, because the blood is pure, and every tissue receives nourishment instead of irritating matter. Our book on Catarrh will give proper advice as to what is best to use as a local aid while S. S. S. is purifying the blood. This book is free, also any special advice you may feel you need. S. S. S. is sold at drug stores. THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., Atlanta, Ga.

REV. CALVIN B. WALLER HAS DONE GREAT WORK

NEW PASTOR OF FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH REPLACES BURNED EDIFICE WITH MODERN STRUCTURE

The following from The Knoxville Sentinel will be of interest to the members and friends of the First Baptist church of this city: Rev. Calvin B. Waller, pastor of the Deaderick Avenue Baptist church, announced last night at the weekly prayer meeting, held in the church edifice, that he had decided to accept the call to become pastor of the First Baptist church at Asheville, after having received three calls from the members of that church. Two of these invitations Rev. Mr. Waller turned down, but the third, coming as an expression of their unanimous confidence in his leadership, made him yield to their pleadings and accept the call.

The resignation of Rev. Mr. Waller as pastor of the Deaderick Avenue Baptist church will take effect Nov. 1. His last sermon in this city will be preached Oct. 29. No steps have been taken to secure a successor to Rev. Mr. Waller.

Rev. Calvin B. Waller was born in Washington county thirty-seven years ago. He was born at Jearoldstown of Scotch-Irish descent and is a son of Wm. A. and Sarah C. (Wilcox) Waller. He received his education at the Jonesboro high school and Carson-Newman college, from which institution he graduated with the degree of bachelor of arts May 29, 1901. He taught school for six years on leaving college as a member of the faculty of Jonesboro high school and as principal of the Fall Branch high school.

Rev. Mr. Waller left the school room for the ministry. His first charge was at Elizabethton, where he was pastor of the Elizabethton Baptist church for two and one-half years. He was pastor of the Tabernacle Baptist church at Chattanooga for six and one-half years, and has been pastor of the Deaderick Avenue Baptist church for two and one-half years. All of these pastorates have been very successful.

During his pastorate in this city 450 members have been added to the church membership. More than $30,000 has been raised for all purposes. A handsome new building has been erected to take the place of the one destroyed by fire, and it has been sufficiently completed to be opened for all branches of work in the church.

Rev. Mr. Waller is one of the strongest and most forceful preachers in this city.

When the disastrous fire in the Deaderick Avenue Baptist church broke out in November, 1909, Rev. Mr. Waller was absent from the city. Although his entire library was destroyed by the flames and his wife was in poor health, Rev. Mr. Waller quickly gathered the members of the church around him and started an aggressive campaign which resulted in the erection of the splendid edifice that now stands on Deaderick avenue Baptist church.

The First Baptist church of Asheville to which Rev. Mr. Waller has been called is one of the strongest and most influential churches in the South. Many of Asheville's leading business and professional men are numbered among its members.

Former pastors of the church in Asheville are Dr. A. C. Dixon, of London; Dr. J. L. White of Memphis; Dr. Wm. Vines of St. Joseph, Mo.

Formal Resignation. The formal resignation of Rev. Dr. Waller, read at the prayer meeting last night follows:

"To the members of the Deaderick Avenue Baptist church: 'Dear Brethren and Sisters—Since April 1, 1909, we have been associated as pastor and people. These years have been filled with much joy and some sorrow. There have come tests that tried some. The fire of Nov. 17, 1909, which completely destroyed our house of worship, carrying with it the pastor's entire library, was a great blow to all. But heroically did all hands turn to the task of rebuilding, and the present splendid structure shows the fruits of that heroic effort.

"But these years have brought much joy and success as well. More than 450 have been added to the membership; hundreds have been saved; more than $30,000 has been actually raised for all purposes, and the church has been strengthened along all lines. My contributions have not been a thing of nothing. The spirit of loyalty has been a joy.

"As is well known to all of you, for practically the third time the First Baptist church of Asheville, N. C., has extended me a call to its pastorate. These invitations have come wholly as a continued expression of the unanimous conviction on the part of this church that God was leading in the choice. No pastor has ever been more prayerful, anxious, and cautious in the determination not to make a mistake. I have been so extremely anxious to give the benefit of all doubt to my work here, that I have been exceedingly slow to yield to expressions and appeals from other directions.

"I feel led to admit, however, that the renewal of the call last Sunday, by the church at Asheville, in the manner and with the enthusiasm that characterized it, leads me to feel thoroughly convinced that God is leading in this matter.

"With the consideration of the fact of the severe nervous strain through which I have passed in the last two years caused by the fire, thirteen months worshipping in Market hall, with the strain of building, etc., at the same time, and the effect it has had on me, and that a new man might put additional vigor into it; this, with the positive conviction that the continued expression and actions of the Asheville church are the direct leadings of the Lord, I feel forced to tender my resignation to take effect Nov. 1, 1911.

"Praying God's richest blessings upon you, I am, 'Your devoted pastor, 'CALVIN B. WALLER.'"
