

WOMANHOOD SUBJECT OF ADDRESS AT ECUMENICAL CONFERENCE

Sir Robert Perkes, of London, Says Only the Church Can Control Things

MUST SEEK TO UNITE

TORONTO, Ont., Oct. 15.—The feature of the Sunday services of the ecumenical Methodist conference was the address tonight by Sir Robert Perkes, of London, England, on "Methodist Brotherhood." Referring to the appointment of an international Methodist committee...

"The Methodist brotherhood," he continued, "must seek to unite in one vast, religious free masonry, for mutual help, the people of Methodism in every city, town and hamlet of the world."

As to the urgent need of the brotherhood's work, Sir Robert felt that there should be no doubt. "There must be mobilization of the churches to solve the new social and economic problems. Throughout the world there is industrial discontent. Social revolution is boldly preached. In some lands the guardians of the law appear panic-stricken. There is an increasing worship of brute force. Only the church can control things. It must preach the simple, unadorned gospel of Christ."

"But also it must recognize that man is the unit of society. It must study and aid the individual, change oftentimes his outlook and ideals, better his surroundings. Live what is preached and overthrow the tyranny of materialism and force by the honest, fearless living of the gospel."

A growing materialism, a demand for recreation and an unmetting of faith were ascribed at a large mass meeting of the conference this afternoon as some of the causes of deplorable desecration of the Sabbath. The speakers were Rev. W. J. Young, of Danville, Va., and Rev. A. J. Coulter, of Fall River, Mass., the theme being, "Observance of the Lord's Day, Past and Present."

OH! SUCH A HARD LIFE

CINCINNATI, Oct. 15.—Eugene Zimmerman, father of the Duchess of Manchester, and a millionaire, discussed at the Business Men's club the hard life of a millionaire. "Nobody loves a millionaire any more," he said. "Once millionaires were the popular heroes of the nation—the brilliant exemplars set up for youth to follow. But now everybody is throwing bricks or making laws to hurl at the rich. The millionaire, following the instinct of self-protection, has taken a back seat. It's awful. The millionaire doesn't show his head in government affairs any more, for somebody is around ready to throw something. All we can do these days is vote. Is a millionaire sent to the senate? Well, right off somebody accuses him of buying his seat."

"Is he given a cabinet position? Well, no president dare do such a thing if he values his political life. A millionaire has no chances any more. Instead of sending successful men of affairs to Washington and to our state legislatures to make our laws we are sending men who could not run a peanut stand—political incompetents who can get the votes. The corporations are being hampered by too much legislation."

In Austria, where the production of kerosene is a great industry, a large government refinery is under contemplation.

OTIS JONES AGAIN OUT ON WARPATH

Will Tell Magistrate This Morning All About It—Claimed He Whipped Woman

According to reports, Otis Jones, a young white man well known in public circles, was on the warpath early yesterday morning and several of those who happened to cross his path seemed to have received the effects of his fighting mood. Jones, who seems to have a mania for whipping women of the underworld, is charged with assaulting Ida Pool and Mount Brown, two residents of Mountain street, and according to the stories they related to officers, Jones was in good scrapping trim. It is said that he loomed up largely as the white man's hero in one of the places on that street and a young man, who declared that he was a visitor in the city, is said to have come in for a share of Jones' well-aimed blows, having been knocked across a stove, according to the story he told to an officer, and received a message with a pan of grease which was on the stove. Jones, it is said, after directing his alleged plan of battle, went to one of the magistrates of the city and put up bond for his appearance today, when his case will be called for trial. The woman, it is said, will appear against him, although one of them declared that Jones had warned her not to testify against him.

ATTEMPT AT BURGLARY CHARGE AGAINST NEGRO

Charged That He Tried to Open Window of House on Eagle Terrace Yesterday

Wickorham Sanders, colored, was arrested early yesterday morning charged with an attempt to commit burglary. It is said that he was seen trying to pry open one of the windows on the ground floor of one of the houses on Eagle terrace. The occupants of the house, hearing the noise, called a policeman and as the patrolman approached the window, it is reported, this negro took to his heels. However, the bluecoat was more fleet of foot and landed his man, taking him to the city jail. The window was barred, it is reported, and it is charged that Sanders was trying to remove the bars. The case will be called in city police court this morning.

TWO MESSENGER BOYS ARRESTED LAST NIGHT

Hobart Dayton and Gus Eller, two young Western Union messenger boys, were arrested last night, charged with "scrapping" in front of the telegraph office on Patton avenue, although neither of the youngsters, it is said, was hurt seriously in the alleged fight. A bicycle lantern, which was across the alleged warpath, was shattered and the encounter attracted some attention from passers-by. The cases of the youngsters will be called in city police court this morning.

WARM TRIBUTE TO JUSTICE HARLAN

(Continued from Page One) ing tobacco for many weeks. His favorite exercise was golf. One hole or the Chevy Chase links is known as the Harlan hole because the justice made the hole one day in one stroke. He often played with Dr. J. McBride Sterritt, a retired clergyman. One day Sterritt proposed to play off but missed the ball entirely. He looked at the sphere for a moment in disgust without a word. "Doctor, that is the most profane science I ever heard," remarked Justice Harlan.

THIS IS THE DAY THEY GO

The Citizen Today Continues Distribution of Those Fine Dictionaries

Today will be the big Dictionary Day. Come early and avoid the rush of the wise ones who will seek to take advantage of The Citizen's offer of a Webster's New Standard Dictionary illustrated for six coupons clipped from consecutive issues of the paper and a small expense bonus. Early today the dictionary distribution will start, and judging from the crowds that have been examining the volumes during the past few days, they are going to go like the proverbial hot cakes. So far, the flexible black leather binding of No. 1 style has made that type of book the favorite. "It looks like a Bible," is what they all say. The comment is justified, as the book is made up of the best print on the best Bible paper. In fact, the work is almost as indisputable, the Dictionary should be placed beside the Bible on every book shelf, no matter whether it be five feet or fifty feet in length. In appearance it is a fit companion volume of the best Bible ever printed. A dictionary of such common-sense also and compiled in such a comprehensive manner is just as indispensable to the business man as the telephone book or the city directory. KNOWLEDGE YOU USE IS WHAT COUNTS

It is not how much knowledge you have but how much knowledge you use that counts in your work, and it is the same with books. You might have the largest dictionary or encyclopedia in the world, but it would not do you as much good as the dictionary which The Citizen offers its readers. The volume is small enough to keep constantly at your elbow and you will use it ten times to the once you will cross the room to consult the big Webster's on the stand or table; and that you will use it a hundred times more than you will use a library or encyclopedia. A well-known business man explained yesterday why he was clipping the dictionary coupons. A visitor noticed that he was preparing to secure a dictionary from The Citizen and expressed his surprise, as he had a big volume of Webster's in his office. "I want that flexible leather dictionary," he said. "It's the handiest book of the kind I've ever seen and the most complete. Do you realize how many new words are placed in our language every year. This book is up to date and I need it in my business. It's dollars to doughnuts that I'll use it ten times as much as I ever use that cumbersome one. This Citizen book is a Carnegie library at your elbow."

If you have not started clipping already, start now. You can get any one of the three styles of books by mail by sending the six consecutive coupons, the expense bonus and 22 cents postage. On Saturday a great many dictionaries were distributed and a large number of people stated their intention of clipping the coupons and securing a copy. We look for a big sale today and in a short time the first shipment will be exhausted.

CAMPAIGN WILL START AT ONCE FOR SENATOR

ROBERT M. L'FOLLETTE

Aggressive Movement on Foot to Make Him the Nominee for President

WISCONSIN MEETING

CHICAGO, Oct. 15.—Friends of Senator LaFollette became active today with the arrival in this city of delegates from many states to attend the conference of the National Republican Progressive League, which opens tomorrow. They asserted that they would begin an aggressive movement at the opening of the conference to bring about his nomination for president. No antagonism, they said had developed as yet to his nomination and if any of the delegates have come to Chicago intending to oppose LaFollette's friends, they have not announced their intentions. The conference will be opened with a set program. Senator Moses E. Clapp, who heads the Minnesota delegation which tonight started for Chicago is to be the chief speaker at this session. Senator Clapp is known to be in favor of the announcement of LaFollette's candidacy without any delay and is expected to open the campaign in his first address. He is to be followed by Representative I. L. Lenroot, of Wisconsin. Congressman John M. Nelson and A. H. Dahl, both of the Wisconsin delegation arrived here during the day. Senator Crawford of South Dakota arrived here this morning with other delegates from the western states. During the day numerous informal conferences took place. Plans were discussed by some of the delegates, to introduce a resolution into the conference calling on the states where presidential primaries are not held to arrange voluntary primaries. The theory of the originators of the resolution is that the majority of the people favor LaFollette and that such primaries will strengthen his chance. Twenty-five states are to be represented in the conference. It was stated late tonight that Senator LaFollette does not expect to attend.

ARRESTED ON CHARGE OF RECKLESS DRIVING

Alleged That Young Man Was Intoxicated and Going at Breakneck Speed

L. S. Pugh was arrested yesterday afternoon charged with being drunk and disorderly and driving one of the horses of Britt & Perry's stable recklessly. It is alleged that the man was thoroughly intoxicated and drove the animal through Sunset drive and on a number of the city streets in a very cruel manner. According to the reports of some of those who saw the vehicle pass their homes, the driver was going at a breakneck speed and was urging the horse forward. The police department was notified of the alleged reckless driving of Pugh and two policemen drove after him. However, they did not catch him until he had reached the stable although they followed within ten minutes of him, it is said, and on several occasions were a very short distance behind him. The horse showed the effects of hard driving, according to reports, although there were no wounds on it to indicate that it had been beaten.

THEATRE MANAGER AND BAND LEADER ARRESTED

CHARGED WITH VIOLATING SABBATH ORDINANCE

Arrests Result of Sacred Concert Given at the Auditorium Last Night

George W. Bailey and Creator were served with warrants this morning charging them with violating the state law which prohibits the following of a trade on the Sabbath, and the penalty for which is $1. The warrants were issued shortly after midnight by Judge Julius G. Adams upon the complaint of Rev. W. A. Newell, pastor of the Haywood St. Methodist church. Rev. Mr. Newell based his complaint on the sacred concert which was given at the Auditorium last night to which an admission fee was charged and the program of which included such selections as Meyerbeere's "Prophet," Handel's "Hallelujah" and Gounod's "Benedictus."

Manager Bailey consulted City Attorney J. Frazer Giffin Saturday night in regard to giving the concert and was informed that there was no city ordinance prohibiting a sacred concert on Sunday which necessitates that the preacher resort to the state law to carry out his intention. Rev. Mr. Newell applied for warrants for each member of the band, but the local policemen were unable to learn their names or identify the request that the entire body of musicians be arrested was not urged. The fact that the action which caused the issuance of warrants was taken will be learned with interest. Mr. Bailey was summoned to appear in police court this morning and Creator posted a bond of $5 for his appearance.
