AMUSEMENTS

"The Rosary"

Can an evil mind breeding evil thoughts exert an adverse influence upon an entire family, bring that family to ruin, and the members of the household remain in ignorance of the reason of their unhappiness? This is the question that "The Rosary," a beautiful new play from the pen of Edward E. Rose and produced by Messrs. Rowland and Clifford, answers in the affirmative.

It will be seen at the Auditorium next Wednesday evening, November 1. To prove the situation, a typical American family is shown, a young wife, her devoted husband, their friends and the material surroundings which wealth can procure.

Conditions such as are shown in "The Rosary" exist in many American homes today. In some the cause has only just begun; in others misery and sorrow are always at the door. But "The Rosary" in any case points the way to happiness and peace.

Its production has been made not so much with an idea of profit as for the higher purpose of bringing happiness to the American home.

The Metropolitan Concert Co.

The following comment is from the Lynchburg (Va.) News, of Feb. 7, 1911. "The concert given last evening under the management of the Metropolitan Concert Company at the Academy was a genuine delight to all who heard it. The program was well balanced and each of the voices seemed to find pleasure in responding to the appreciation of the audience. The solo work throughout the entire program was distinctly artistic and the ensemble numbers were most enjoyable."

The Metropolitan Concert company comes to the Auditorium next Thursday evening under the auspices of the Barack-Philtheta union of Asheville. Tickets purchased from any member of the union can be exchanged for coupon tickets at Whitlock's.

WOODMEN MEETING IS WELL ATTENDED

The district meeting of the Woodmen of the World for the Camp West of the Blue Ridge began last night, the opening session having been held in the college rooms of the Balsam camp in this city. The attendance is large and a great deal of interest was shown in last night's meeting.

The opening session of today will be held this morning at 10 o'clock, when a number of matters pertaining to the order will be discussed and the business of the camp will be attended to. The district meeting closes tonight at 8 o'clock with an open meeting, to which the general public is invited and which promises to be a most interesting gathering. Speeches will be made by State Manager E. B. Lewis, of Kinston, Judge Charles A. Moore, Rev. W. A. Nowell and Dr. Paul Papin.

Tonight's meeting will be followed by a smoker, at which refreshments will be served. All Woodmen of the city are invited to be present at today's meeting.

'RIP VAN WINKLE' SEEN AT THE AUDITORIUM

Delightful and quaint as ever, "Rip Van Winkle," as played by Thomas Jefferson, was seen yesterday afternoon and evening at the Auditorium by two good audiences. Of course the star attraction was Jefferson, a worthy son of his illustrious father, Joseph Jefferson, who made "Rip" known the world over. With two or three exceptions, however, Mr. Jefferson's support yesterday was not beyond the ordinary. Still this was forgotten in the excellent portrayal by Mr. Jefferson.

Grace Sterling's presentation of "Gretchen" in the first and second acts appeared to be marred somewhat by a certain "throatiness" in her enunciation, but she improved in the closing acts of the production. W. C. Rayner made a good "Derrick." Both audiences were well pleased and continually applauded Mr. Jefferson's work.
