Only One Who Was Practically Certain to be Acceptable Not Physically Able

THERE ARE YET THREE OTHER POSSIBILITIES

But There Are Reasons Why Two of These May be Challenged by Either Side

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 4 .- The only talesman who had been assured of acceptance by both sides in the Mc-Namara trial, virtually was removed from consideration today, and at the end of four weeks it could not be learned that any juror was even Jury certain to remain in the box

Seaborn Manning, fifty-six years old, a farmer and the talesmun who had seemed agreeable to both sides, is physically unsuited for jury service in a long trial, according to four or Manning's fellow talesmen, who waited upon Judge Bordwell and told him Manning's condition.

Judge Bordwell took the matter under advisement, 'Attorney Clarence S. Darrow, chief counsel for the unfense, said he feared it would be impossible to retain Manning.

Other possibilities as permanent jurors are Talesmen Bain, Green and Sam Mendenhall. Of these Green appears to stand the best chance, al-Loough he admitted having an ac-quaintance with District Atorney John D. Fredericks.
