TRUE SYMPATHY

A small, thin man ran across the station platform. quickly "Hold the train a moment for my wife, conductor," he gnaped. "She is just crossing the street."

"Can't do it," yelled the conductor as he was preparing to make the signal to go shead.

"But-but, please, conductor, she's going away to spend the summer, oried the little man. "If she doesn' go now, she might change her mind. "I'll hold it." replied the conductor Norman E. Mack's National Month
