THE ASHEVILLE CITIZEN, TUESDAY, DECEMBER 5, 1911

of New York and Washington, youngest son of the late Walter Howe, of New York. Mrs. Carlisie, The Bingham dance formerly Miss Thomas, of Richmond, at the Manor was quite up to the Va., is a sister of Mrs. Conally and precedent established at that school Mrs. Richmond Pearson, and for many years ago, and assuredly the many years has been a figure in Washington society. Mr. the numbers of pretty girls for which was attorney for the British and dets in their smart uniforms, never date of the wedding is not announced commissioned officers were also in but will be an event of considerable full dress, their crimson sashes and importance in Was when it takes place. 38 38

The following article is taken from and the lights were becomingly shad-the Middletown, N. Y., Times-Press ed with pink. The music was noticeand will be of interest to the friends ably excellent and the program inof Mrs. Horton. In Asheville, where cluded a number of new and tuneful with her daughter, the late Miss Car-rie Herroon and her husband the late per of several courses was served. Webb Horton, Mrs. Horton has been Punch was served in the hall during frequently to Asheville during their the evening. The chaperones were life time. Mrs. Horton is a sister-in- Mrs. Zebulon Vance, Mrs. Thendorlaw of Mrs. C. W. R. Radeker, of F. Davidson, Mrs. E. E. Greenwood Victoria, with whom she spent last and Mrs. R. T. Grinnan. The gues s winter, and will return with her wore Miss Margaret Penginuan, Miss nicce, Miss Carrie<sup>1</sup> Radeker, from Sarah West, Miss Helen and Miss Middletown, where the latter has Therese Chapman, Miss Elizabeth been for some weeks, to again spend Williamson, Miss Lillian Adams, Miss vinter at the Radeker home.

of Westminster Presbyterian church, and Miss Margaret Millender, Miss held Tuesday evening last, it was decided to accept the mift of $100,000, for a new edifice tendered as a me-morial of the husband and father, janta, Ga.; Miss McKinnin, of Deca-Webb Horton, by Mrs. Horton and her only son, Eugene. "The name of the church will be changed from Westminster church. as it was once changed from Second subvierian church, to "Webb Horton Memorial Prosbyterian Church." Five memorial windows for each member of Mr. Horton's family will be set in the new edifice. "It is the intention to clear the present site of the church and parwhich will include a new church, parish house and parsonage. The present parsonage will probably be ed to East evenue, in the rear of the church property. "Mr. Horton also purchased recently for $11,300, the Silk property, adjoining the parsonage which will e included in the new site of the "Application will be made to Hudon Presbytery, and the necessary gal steps will be taken too change the name as desired.

in connection with the acceptance of this gift the church organization agrees to raise the sum of $40,000. as an endowment fund toward the expenses of the shurch, and to raise $500 each year for forty years, one-balf of which is for the church and the other half for the Sunday school of the church.

Suggestion from the donors that are shall be nothing held in the urch, for which admission shall charged, and that there be es conducted by traveling slists have been concurred in.

"Westminster church and Middle-town are to be congratulated upon this magnificent gift, and the thanks of the community will go to Mrs Horton and ker son for thus genersusly perpetuating their honorable name in connection with a sucred ed-Hice."

38 38 The Ladies of the Maccabees will

course today at 3 o'clock. The McGarey today at 3 o'clock. committees in charge of the bazaar are urged to attend.

Mrs. Calderon Carlisle, of Wash- ing this afternoon at 4 o'clock at Cen Inston, D. C., has announced the en-trai Methodist church. It is desired gagement of her daughter, Miss Mary that all members be present as the Carlisle, to Mr. Walter Bruce Howe, annual election of officers will take

The Bingham dance last evening prominent ball room last evening, filled with who died some years ago, Asheville is noted, and with the ca-Washington society sabres which clanked impressively, giving a martial air to the scene. The ball room was beautifully decorated

Margaret Porter, Miss Emily Camp-'At a meeting of the congregation bell, Miss Frances Carter, Miss Mary to use. Marguerite Canaday, Miss Tate, of New York; Miss Elizabeth Murphy, tur, Ala., Miss Doris Devenport, Miss Florence Martin, From Genevieve's convent, were the following young Indies: Miss Lytle, Miss Genevieve Theobold, Miss Ruth Gray, Miss Mc Clung, Mr. Balley, Dr. W. P. Her-bert, Mr. Allen Morrison, Mr. Brazelton and Mr. Walles were also present.

PERSONAL MENTION

Miss Bonnie Davis has returned to her home at Candler after a visit to Miss Fonella Davis, at Weaverville, and Mrs. P. Wert, at Democrat.

> Mrs. Bingham, who has been spending some weeks with friends in FINES South Carolina, has returned to Bingham Heights, Mrs. George Lowndes and daughter of Augusta, Ga., are spending Amault. several weeks in the city.

Mr. S. A. Lynch has gone to Florida for a several days' business trip.

Mins Luis Davis has returned from visit of two weeks to relatives in ashville, Tenn.

Dr. Thomas Nichola and Mr. Arthur Nichols, returned yesterday to Muskogee, Okla., after attending the funeral of their father, Nichols, on Saturday at Weaverville,

Mr. William Marion Edwards and his sister, Miss Mary Edwards, of Mars Hill were in the city yesterday.

Miss Jonnie Casseday, of San Antoulo. Texas, is spending the winter in Asheville.

Senator and Mrs. Joseph M. Gazsam are expected on the 10th from Philadelphia and during the week's stay they will be in Biltmore. Senator Gaszam is coming here on bustness.

Mr. Robert Parker, who has spent

HOME CURE FOR RHEUMATISM Do not waste time nor take chances of becoming a cripple or helpless sufferer from Rheumatism by trying to cure the disease with external applications alone. Such treatment sometimes gives relief from the severe pain, or may reduce the inflammation of a swollen joint or muscle, but the effect cannot be more than temporary. Each day the cause is allowed to remain in the system Rheumatism gets a firmer hold on its victim. Purify your blood of the inflammatory uric acid and then you will cure the disease permanently. The system will respond more quickly and surely to S. S. S. than any other treatment. This great blood purifier possesses the penetrating qualities necessary to drive out every trace of urate matter from the circulation and build the blood up to a nourishing and healthful condition. Only pure blood can overcome Rheumatism. Thousands have cured themselves of Rheumatism by using S. S. S., a Miss Elizabeth medicine made entirely of roots, herbs and barks; no harmful mineral cuters into its composition, and S. S. S. is therefore safe for any one Book on Rheumatiam and

medical advice free. S. S. S. is sold at drug stores. THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., Atlanta, Ga

sellville, Tenn., returning home with her mother, Mrs. Patterson, to Philadelphia.

Mr. W. A. James, Jr., is spending a few days at the home of his son. at Savannah, Ga.

USUAL NUMBER OF

MONDAY CASES UP ASSESSED YESTERDAY

FOR VARIOUS OFFENSES.

Retailing Drunkenne Gambling and Other Charges in ## the Police Court.

A variety of interesting cases that usually make up the Monday docket for police court were disposed of yesterday, among them being offenses for fighting, drunkenness, disorderly conduct, retailing, gambling and the unusual charge of impersonating an officer. C. E. Massiger, P. H. Miller, Will White, Buck Killin and Jim Patton were found guilty of participating in a same of chance with dice early Sunday morning. Each was fined + and the costs. A. R. Mitchell, charged with gambling, did not put in his appearance at court no a capins was issued for him. Thomas McElreath and McElrath, both colored, were also caught playing with dice and were fined $5 and the costs.

$10 and costs for an assault upon Harry Franks Saturday on Haywood street. It was in evidence that Dr street, alighted and approached Mr.

The days are hurrying on to Christmas. Only sixteen more are left before that day. Wise shoppers have been at work for several weeks selecting their gift things. The people who shop during this week will enjoy the careful assistance of fresh salespeople. Those who wait longer cannot expect the service we now offer.

The large and diversified showing of Christmas Novelties is at present unbroken, selecting is easier and more agreeable.

This store is at present at its best, having bedecked itself with Christmas trimmings. In every department novel and useful gift things are displayed. Each section has endeavored to outdo the other, until the entire assemblage has reached a stage unprecedented in the annals of our Christmas business.

Come today-if only to look through the "Christmas Store."

The New in Holiday Neckwear

Possibly in no other line has the improvement over the stock carried in the old store been so noticeable as in the Neckwear. We have gone into it big. The showing we now have is nearly "three times as great as before.

Choosing is made easy by such large assortments, and as we are constantly turning the stock, the display is fresh and new. It includes the very latest innovations in the Neckwear line: the Side Frill, Cascade Jabot, Large Princess Lace Collars, Fichus, etc., are all included, Prices of our Neckwear range from 25c, 50c, 75c, $1.00 slowly up to $10.

[] . An and the second proceeding of the second procession of the secon

Christmas Hosiery Daintily Boxed

Early shoppers can buy Gordon Hose in Christmas boxes without any increase in price. We say early shoppers for it is doubtful if the later ones will get a chance at them, for they are going rapidly.

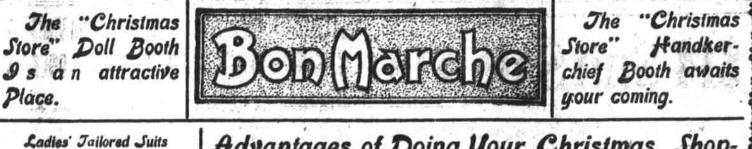

Gordon Hose hardly need introducing here. Women who know good hose buy this make. It is one of the most famous high grade hose in the country.

Children's Hose are priced at $1 box; four pairs in box.

Ladies' Cotton Hose are priced at $1 box; four pairs in box.

Ladies' Silk Hose are priced at $1 box; one pair in box.

Ladies' Jailored Suits Reduced It is a well known fact that we do not carry over merchandise from season to season. This fact is demonstrated more positively in Ladies' Apparel than in any other line. Here style changes radically in comparison to the other departments.

Place.

We do not take chances; we give bona fide reductions now while the suits are most in demand.

$22.50 Suits for $12. $30 Suits for $19.50. $40 Suits for $29.

Lindley Training school will meet father, Mr. J. J. Parker, at Inanda. this morning at 10:30 o'clock, at the N. C. home of Mrs. M. E. Hilliard, on bome of are. South Main street. The little Christmas scals of the which will cheerily decorate many a southern Christmas gift, were de-signed and copyrighted by Mrs. Edar James, of Florence, Ala., who lived in Asheville most of her life and who died here last September. The scal is In red and green on a gold back. ground; and is unlique and artistic in design, consisting of a cotton boll in a holly wreath, on a five pointed star. Arranged around the star on the gold background are the different Confederate flags in miniature.

R. R. The Anna Aston Missionary society will hold its regular monthly meet-

Coats and Fur Sets in white and colors. Dainty little Fur Sets in white, brown, etc., ages 2 to 14 years, at $2.00 to $12.00. M. V. MOORE & CO.

$69.00.

Specialists in Women's Ready-to-Wene Garments. Careful Attention Given to Mail Orders. Ask for a Fall Catalogue.

the summer in Cornwall, N. Y., has The board of managers of the returned and is at the home of his few words were exchanged and blows were exchanged. Franks was found not guilty.

Mrs. A. Whitlock returned Sunday from Statesville and New York after The little Christmas scals of the a several weeks' absence. Miss Carrie United Daughters of the Confederacy Whitlock will remain in the east for an indefinite visit to her sister and other relatives.

Mr. J. D. Nash has gone to Richmond, Va., where he will undergo an operation.

Mrs. Edward Penniwell, new Muss Percy Patterson, is expected shortly from Philadelphia for a brie visit to her sister at Forest Hill. Mrs. Penniwell will afterward go to Rus-

Furs and Fur Coats

for Women.

Misses and Children

Fur Sets and separate pieces in Lynx, Fisher,

Wolf, Seal, Australian Op-

Beautiful lustrous · black

Fur Coats in a number of good styles and skins-especially low priced, $35.60 to

Children's Fur and Plush

posum, and Fox.

and rich dark colors.

Elmar Penland was found guilty of retailing to Zeb Jones and was sentenced to the roads for three months. Penland appealed under a $200 bond. It was in evidence that > ly words exchanged between Penland and Jones over the amount of charge that was due Jones out of a $1 bill for which he had been given only a pint of whiskey. Penland said that he could find the person who let him have the liquor but that he did not know his name. Penland was also fined $4 and costs for being drunk. The witnesses for and against Alf

Snyder, charged with retailing to John Brown, failed to attend court so this case was continued until tomorrow

Harrison Gibson was found not guilty of impersonating a policeman. It was in evidence that he was at-tired in a discarded helmet and carried his stick in grand style, but some of the witnesses were not in court and he could not be connected with any arrests, which he was alleged to have made, or attempted to make. Bertha Reed, colored, was fined $3 and the costs for threatening to cut out the heart of Sarah Aber-nathy, colored, with a knife that the former carried in her band. No carv ing was done, however. Henry Roberts, a seventeen-year old negro, was found guility of an assault upon Ralph Penland, and was taxed with the costs. It was in ev! dence that some one pushed Pepland against Roberts and that Penland later threw an apple at Roberts, who slapped Penland. The latter, who re-ported the trouble, was summoned to appear in court this morning and answer to the charge of assault upon Roberts.

Rev. Dr. Abnei W. Hopkins, for more than forty-five years, pastor of the Presbyterian church and one of the best known cyergymen connected with the Lutheran general ascembly died tonight. Dr. Hopkins was a long time chaplain of the Stonewall Jackson britade. Ho was seventy-six years old. Paris capitalists plan to build at underground freight raifrond they will connect with all the surface road terminala.