RESINOL WILL STOP THAT ITCH

Brings Instant Relief and Quickly Clears Away Skin Eruptions.

No matter how long you have been tortured and disfigured by itching, burning, raw or scaly skin humors, just put a little of that soothing, antiseptic Resinol Ointment on the sores and the suffering stops right there! Healing begins that very minute, and your skin gets well so quickly you feel ashamed of the money you threw away on useless, tedious treatments.

Wherever drugs are sold, you can be just as sure of finding Resinol Ointment as you can of finding a toothbrush. This is because doctors have prescribed it so regularly for the last eighteen years that every druggist knows he must keep it constantly in stock. It comes in opal jars, for fifty cents and one dollar, or you can try it at our expense. Resinol Ointment is most effective for healing sores, boils, wounds and piles. Write today to Dept. 5-M, Resinol, Baltimore, Md., for a sample of Resinol Ointment and a miniature cake of Resinol Soap.

WOES OF A BOY.

A sad story is told by a Pennsylvania man of a lad in his town who, like many another boy, has been obliged to wear the cast-off clothing of his father.

One afternoon this lad was discovered in tears. "What's the trouble my boy?" asked the man who tells the story.

"Why," explained the youngster, between sobs, "pop has gone and shaved his face clean and now I s'pose I'll have to wear all them red whiskers."

START YOUR LIVER, DON'T STOP WORK

Dodson's Liver Tonic Acts Mildly, but Surely. Liven's Up Your Liver and You Stay On Your Feet.

It is the experience of colic users that if they take enough of the drug to have the desired effect, it seriously interferes with their work the day after. But this is the least important item, for calomel is often a dangerous drug and acts on the system violently. Don't take chances with calomel. Get a bottle of the pleasant, safe and perfectly harmless Dodson's Liver Tonic, guaranteed to take the place of calomel. Instead of making you feel worse the next day it makes you feel better—and you actually are better, for no remedy in the whole world liven's up the liver, regulates the bowels and really rejuvenates the system any better than this does.

You are the sole judge of its merits. Allison's Drug Store is fully authorized to hand you back your money without question if it fails to please you—and relieve you.

Remember, if you feel constipated and bilious, what you need is Dodson's Liver Tonic. A large bottle and a good guarantee for 50 cents from Allison's Drug Store.

CHATTANOOGA IS READY TO GREET G. A. B. VETERANS

Tennessee City Prepares to Show "Yanks" the Real South.

CAN ENTERTAIN 200,000 VISITORS

Annual Parade Is One of the Impressive Features of Encampment.

CHATTANOOGA, Sept. 8.—I am coming to the national encampment. I may never attend another. I want to see old Lookout Mountain again and Snodgrass Hill and the battlefields of Nashville and Franklin. And I want to meet my old comrades, probably for the last time, in the shadow of Missionary Ridge where we fought side by side in "the battle above the clouds" just fifty years ago.

The above is but one of thousands of similar letters that have been received by the local committees from veterans all over the country and which indicate that the national encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic soon to assemble in this city will be one of the best attended in the history of that organization.

The encampment will be far broader in its scope than a mere reunion of the soldiers who wore the blue. The indications are that thousands of gray-clad veterans who followed the fortunes of the Confederacy will be present to greet their former foes and to join with them in saluting the stately banner that waves over north and south alike. As a demonstration of patriotism the encampment promises to be scarcely less notable than the great reunion held on the battlefield of Gettysburg in the early summer.

The activities of the encampment will begin one week from today, when Alfred B. Beers of Bridgeport, Conn., commander-in-chief of the G. A. R., will arrive with his staff and open headquarters at the Hotel Patten. For the seven days following there will be a constant succession of interesting events. The end of the encampment will come on the fiftieth anniversary of the closing day of the great battle of Chickamauga, where American met American on one of the most hotly contested fields of the war, where many thousands on both sides gave their lives or suffered from wounds fighting for that which they believed was right.

Chattanooga expects to entertain 200,000 visitors during the week of the encampment. The first two days will be given over entirely to reunions of army corps, brigades and regiments that participated in the many battles that were fought in this vicinity. Two of the most notable of these reunions will be held by the Society of the Army of the Cumberland and the survivors of Wilder's brigade.

CAPUDINE CURES HEADACHE COLDS AND GRIP

SOLD AT WELL-STOCKED DRUG STORES

The annual parade, always one of the most impressive features of the place Wednesday morning. Many of the old soldiers will be too feeble to march in the ranks with their comrades. Realizing this, arrangements have been made to furnish carriages and automobiles for those who wish to participate in the parade, despite their inability to stand the severe strain of marching. Others will occupy seats in the reviewing stands, where they can witness the parade and cheer their comrades as they pass.

The first business session of the national encampment will open Thursday morning. The principal item of business will be the selection of a new commander-in-chief. The contest for the honor already bids fair to be one of the most spirited in many years. Five states, South Dakota, Michigan, New Jersey, Indiana and Nebraska, have entered favorite sons in the race. South Dakota has endorsed H. H. Kingman, who served through the war with the 13th Wisconsin regiment and has been one of the prominent figures in the G. A. R. since its organization. The choice of Michigan is ex-Congressman Washington Gardner, who enlisted in the Union army when only sixteen and followed Sherman from Chattanooga to Atlanta. New Jersey's candidate is Col. Ralph D. Cole, who is expected to lead the support of many veterans of the east and New England states. Indiana is campaigning for Comrade A. O. Somers, who counts upon the support of all "who believe that the time has come when a private soldier should be honored." Nebraska has entered the lists with Col. E. Adams, a banker and farmer of Superior, Neb., who has distinguished war record linked with the history of the 14th Army corps.

But after all, the business of the encampment will be of secondary consideration. The informal reunions, the renewing of old friendships, visits to the old battlefields and numerous features of entertainment will take up the most of the time of the visitors. Guides will be furnished to pilot the old soldiers and their friends through the Chickamauga Military park, to point out Snodgrass Hill, where General Thomas, Steedman and others checked the advance of the Confederate forces and saved the Union army. All are expected to visit again the scenes of the great battles of Lookout Mountain, Orchard Knob and Missionary Ridge, while many parties from the north will extend their sightseeing tours as far as Kenesaw Mountain, Atlanta and other places where history was made in the '60s.

Christopher's Complaint. Lula McStubbins had been a bride but a short time when the startling truth was forced upon her that her young husband was not exactly a totipotaller. One evening, a few weeks after the wedding, the strict old cold-water crank Papa McStubbins, dropped in to call. He found his daughter all alone. After a while he asked: "Where is Christopher?" "Well, the fact is, Christopher isn't feeling very well this evening."

"Is that so? What seems to be the matter?" "Well—the fact is—er—Christopher is suffering from a bad attack of—of—propinquity."

"Propinquity, propinquity," repeated the puzzled old gentleman. "That's a disease I never heard of. You must be mistaken."

"Oh, no, father! Let me explain. Propinquity means nearness, doesn't it?"

"I think so."

"And to be near is to be close, isn't it?"

"Em—yes—yes."

"And when we speak of a man as being close we mean that he is stingy, don't we?"

"Certainly."

"And when a man is stingy we call him tight, don't we?"

"I believe so."

"Well," she concluded, with a sigh, "that's what's the matter with Christopher."—Tit-Bits.

NEWS AND GOSSIP FROM CAPITAL OF OLD NORTH STATE

Chairman Travis Returns from Meeting Held at Washington.

MANUFACTURERS OF AUTOS WITHDRAW

Refuses to Pay $500 State License Levied by Last Legislature.

RALEIGH, Sept. 8.—Chairman Travis of the North Carolina corporation commission has returned from Washington where he attended a conference of members of the corporation commissions of the states of the union, the interstate commerce commissioners and the special engineering board chosen by the interstate commerce commission or carrying out the provisions by congress for the fixing of physical valuation of all the railroad property in the United States. The conference, Chairman Travis says, resulted in the outlining of a mode of procedure in undertaking this gigantic task which will require years of labor and an immense outlay of money. As soon as the physical valuations are established it is the purpose of the interstate commerce commission and the state commissions to use these physical calculations in making freight rates instead of considering the outstanding stocks and bonds in making up the basis for rate making.

Only twenty-six of the two hundred automobile manufacturers that were doing business in this state in 1912 have paid the $500 state license tax imposed by the 1913 legislature on manufacturers and about all of the others have left the state or will do so very soon as the treasury department is pressing the matter of agents ceasing activities unless the license is paid. Of the twenty-six license taxes paid only eight have actually been paid by the manufacturers, the state agents putting up the money on their own account in the other cases. Many of the higher priced machine manufacturers refuse to pay the tax because in most cases there are actually less than a half dozen of a specific high-priced machine sold in the state within a year. For instance, the Pierce-Arrow sold only three machines in North Carolina during 1912 and has withdrawn from the state. This illustrates the condition with reference to a number of the other high-class machines.

It develops that an effect of the new law that is operating to deter manufacturers from coming into the state under the new $500 license tax law is that to pay this license tax also makes the manufacturer liable for the revenue act tax of one-fifth of one per cent on capital stock, which in the case of corporations with six to twenty-five million dollars rounds up a very considerable amount and is paying tax on the capital used in the manufacture of the machines for the whole country.

There have been about four hundred duplicates of the 26 manufacturers' licenses issued to local agents in the state for the sale of machines. Very considerable protest is coming up over the operation of the law and state officers are beginning to express convictions that there should be some readjustment. In the meantime, it is being pointed out that the cutting out of the large number of manufacturers is keeping out of the state large numbers of special agents and others who co-operated with local agents in selling machines and injuring business to the extent of depriving hotels and others of the big amount of money they would spend.

Counsel for Rev. R. L. Davis, superintendent of the North Carolina anti-saloon league, are publishing notice of purpose to apply to Governor Craig for a pardon in the case in which Mr. Davis was sentenced in the Raleigh police court to pay a fine of $10 for striking Wiley Straghan over the head with a whiskey bottle as a sentimental sequel to the political prosecution of Straghan on the charge of selling whiskey in which Straghan was acquitted. Governor Craig is to hear the case as of pardon September 19. He has an appeal to the Supreme court pending, the jury in the Superior court having convicted him on appeal.

T. B. CURRY KILLED BY DEPUTY SHERIFF

HAD FATALLY WOUNDED MAN WITH A RAZOR.

Advanced on Deputy Barnes With Razor and Latter Shot Him—Officer Makes Bond.

MARSHALL, N. C., Sept. 8.—After cutting and fatally wounding a man named Kuykendoll, at Sandy Bottom last night, T. B. Curry, a white man, was shot and instantly killed by H. Ben Barnes, of Marshall. It is stated that Curry was advancing on Mr. Barnes with the same bloody razor with which he had cut Kuykendoll, when the officer fired. Mr. Eberner at the time, was acting as a deputy sheriff of this county.

Sheriff Buckner placed Mr. Barnes under arrest, the latter surrendering to the sheriff at once, and brought him to Marshall, where, after a preliminary hearing, he was held to court under bond of $2,500. This bond was immediately made.

Curry and Kuykendoll had quarreled and during the fight Curry drew a razor from his pocket and slashed Kuykendoll about the throat and shoulders, inflicting wounds from which the injured man will probably die. Mr. Barnes, who was on a special mission for the Laurel Lumber company at the time, and who was acting as a deputy sheriff for Madison county, was notified of Curry's deed, and went over to arrest him.

When Curry advanced on the officer the bloody razor in his hand, he was ordered to halt, and when he refused the officer shot four times, killing Curry instantly.

Dr. Sprinkle, county physician, has been appointed special coroner in the case, and has gone to the scene of the killing.

Ben Barnes is a native of Madison county, and has lived here the greater portion of his life. He was at one time connected with the secret service department of the government, and is well-known in Western North Carolina.
