NEW YORK COTTON CLOSED STEADY

NEW YORK, Oct. 6.-Lower cables tppearances of clearing weather in the southwest over Sunday and bearish sentiment crop etimates appeared to shoourage learish or reactionary senti ment in the cotton market at the opening today. But after an early break of 22 to 28 points there was a partial raily on covering or buil support, with the close steady at a net loss of 15 to 20 points. Selling was very active and more or less general at the start owing to the bearish foreign trade and crop advices and predictions of increased receipts and freer southern offerings as a result of better weather in the belt. The crop estimate of 15,750,000 bales by a prominent authority who bases his view of the yield on a study of weath-er conditions, was considered too far er conditions, was considered too far out of line with popular expectations to have been fully accopted but foubtless added to the unsettled feeling in the market. There were quite a good many over-Sunday buying orders around the ring, and after starting easy at a decline of 13 to 15 mis there was a slight rally, but bes soon eased off again with December contracts seeling at 13.52 durcomber contracts selling at 13.52 dur-ing the middle of the morning, or points under the high rec-

Chic & North West Colo Fuel & Iron Consol Gas Corn Products A quick recovery followed the initial slump. By the middle of the morning the decline was widened to 10 to 21 points. Toward noon there was a partial recovery but in the afternoon the decline widened 20 to 25 points. The close was easy at a net loss for the day of 19 to 23 points.

While the weather map was more favorable the forecast again promised unsettled weather for the western half of the belt. This gave the mar-like a fairly steady underlone durable.
