WESTERN NORTH CAROLINA FAIR OPENS THIS MORNING

Gates Will be Thrown Open at 9 O'clock—Hon. J. J. Britt is Principal Speaker of the Day—Spendid Program Arranged.

The last tag has been tied in place, the last careful preparation in every department made, and at nine o'clock this morning the gates of Riverside Park will be thrown open to the public for the opening day of the Western North Carolina fair, which bids fair to be the greatest fair ever held in Western North Carolina. Today is Educational Day, and the principal events of the day will deal with educational contests and programs.

All the schools of the county will be closed today, in order that the children may all have a chance to be present for the many educational events and the big free acts at the fair this afternoon. Things will start with a rush, the first big event on the program being one of the funny free acts furnished by the management. Singing contests for rural schools start at eleven o'clock and at 12:30 o'clock, the recitation and declamation contest will be started. There will be "something doing every minute" and the whole day is filled with surprises for those fortunate enough to be on the grounds.

The fair will be formally opened at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon, with prayer by Rev. J. D. Arnold. Prof. R. D. McDowell will preside. At 2:50 o'clock, Rev. W. A. Newell, president of Weaver college, will make a short introductory address, introducing Hon. J. J. Britt, who will deliver the principal address of the day, speaking on "Education and Popular Government". Mr. Britt's well known ability as an orator, together with his knowledge of his subject, is expected to draw a large crowd to hear him.

Every day is a special day at the fair. Opening with Brotherhood Day, Military Day, and Western North Carolina Day, the final day of the fair. Special features are provided for every day. Secretary of State Bryan and Dr. John S. Rutledge, the famous Irish orator, being the speakers for Brotherhood Day. General Bennett H. Young, commander-in-chief of the Confederate veterans, being the chief speaker for military day, and Governor Locke Craig, the "Little Giant of the Blue Ridge," being the chief speaker for Western North Carolina Day. In addition to these noted speakers, men of prominence from all parts of Western North Carolina will be present during the fair, and a number of them will speak.

Interest also centers around the "Better Babies" contest, in which 247 babies were originally entered. This number has been considerably reduced by the preliminary examinations, which have eliminated all below a certain percentage, but a goodly showing of the future sons and daughters of the Old North State still remains in the contest and everything points to a most careful test before the final winners are picked.

The exhibits this year are the largest, the best and of the greatest variety ever shown at a fair in Western North Carolina, and in almost every class, it will take an expert to distinguish the winner of the blue.

Departing from the custom of past years, the management of the fair installed a splendid line of free acts, all of which are "thrillers" and in addition to these, there is a midway where an unusually fine line of shows

MOTHER MIGHT NOT BE LIVING

Lady Tells of Mother's Troubles, Which Almost Resulted in Death, and How They Were Overcome.

Cumberland Gap, Tenn.—"I don't believe my mother would be living today," writes Mrs. Sarah I. Owens, of this place, "if it had not been for Cardui, the woman's tonic."

She suffered dreadfully for years, with womanly troubles; smothering spells, chills, fluttering of the heart, and weakness.

Finally, she was advised by a friend to try Cardui, the woman's tonic. She bought a bottle, and could not notice its good effects from the first. She has now taken 8 bottles, and is enjoying very good health. It has done her more good than all the other medicines she ever took.

We think Cardui is worth its weight in gold."

The best endorsement any preparation can have, is that of people who have tried it. They know what it will do. Judging from the thousands of letters we receive each year, similar to the above, it is easily possible to believe in the good that Cardui has done for suffering women in its past half century of wonderful success.

Cardui is composed of purely vegetable ingredients, which act in a gentle, natural manner, on the weakened womanly organs, thereby building them back to new strength and health.

You cannot go wrong trying Cardui for your troubles.

Girlish, Wrinkle-Free Skin Easy to Have

(From Pilgrim Magazine.)

Since its remarkable astringent and tonic properties became known, clever women all over the world have been using the axolite face bath to "tone up" their faces, remove wrinkles and draw flabby cheeks and neck back to normal. After using the solution, the face immediately feels much firmer. The skin tightens evenly all over the face, thus reducing lines and sagging. The formula is: Powdered axolite, 1 oz., dissolved in witch hazel, 1-2 pint.

Another wonderful facial beautifier and rejuvenator that has become quite a rage in the United States, as in Europe, is mercurozed wax. Druggists report a great demand. The wax literally absorbs a sallow, blotchy or withered complexion, giving the fresh vigorous, healthy-hued young skin underneath a chance to "breathe" and to show itself. Applying the wax at night, like cold cream, washing it off mornings, will completely renovate a poor complexion in a week or ten days. One ounce usually is sufficient. Adv.
