

EVERYTHING FOR THE OFFICE.
 Look in our big east window—does that sten. note book, broad cover, 5 cts., catch your eye? And "Rogers' Special" is the smoothest pencil you ever put in your fingers. The window is full of these and labor savers.
ROGERS BOOK STORE
 29 Patton Ave.—Rogers Press—39 Patton Ave.—Phone 254

BATTERY PARK BANK
 ASHEVILLE, N. C.
 Capital $100,000
 Surplus and Profits $140,000

OFFICERS:
 James P. Sawyer, Chairman of the Board.
 T. C. Coxe, President. J. E. Rankin, Cashier.
 Erwin Sluder, Vice-President. C. Rankin, Asst. Cashier.

GROVE PARK INN
 Grove Park Inn serves luncheon 1:00 to 2:30 p. m. Dinner, 6:30 to 8:30 p. m. Visitors to Asheville, although not guests of Grove Park Inn, are invited to dine and inspect the building. Special attention given to luncheon and dinner parties, if notified in advance. Orchestra concerts 3:00 to 4:00 p. m., 8:00 to 10:00 p. m. Rates $5.00 per day and up. Phone. 3000

OTTARI
 An Institution for the Osteopathic Care of Non-Communicable Diseases

Located at end of Grace St. line. Combines advantages of city with quiet of country. Has all modern conveniences and equipment—city water, electric lights, telephones, steam heat, open fire, private bath, rooms single or en suite.
 Also based on chemical analysis, showing physiological needs of case.

W. BANKS MEACHAM, D. O.
LOULA A. ROCKWELL, D. O.

LEGAL BUILDING, ASHEVILLE, N. C.

WARLOWE MINERAL WATER

A remedy compounded in Nature's own pharmacy for kidney, bladder, bowel and stomach troubles. Will be placed on sale March 20th, 1914, at Hare & Erwins, 24 N. Main St.
 Warlowe Water has proved its merits. You cannot go wrong to give it a trial.

WARLOWE WATER CO.
 JAMES H. HARE, MGR., 24 N. MAIN.

Gasoline Tank Suspended In Rear

By putting the tank in the rear Chalmers designers have given the new six perfect balance which tends to prevent skidding. This 22 gallon tank carries a third more gasoline than the tank under the seat. Nobody in the car is disturbed when filling the tank. The filler cap is easily reached and the gauge at a glance shows the amount of gasoline in tank. This tank is pressed steel without a rivet in it.

Asheville Automobile Co.
 PHONES 313-314 No. 15-17 S. LEXINGTON AVE.

Kitchen Work LIGHTENED

Time And Money Saved WHEN YOU COOK WITH GAS

You save the time in building fires, spitting kindling, carrying coal and ashes, etc. All you have to do is to strike a match the fire is ready at any hour. You do not have to wait for the fire to catch and burn freely, you do not have to contend with a red hot sooty range.

The kitchen is one of the coolest rooms in the house when you use gas as a fuel for cooking and this alone should induce you to have a gas range installed for it is only a short time till hot weather sets in.

Asheville Power and Light Co.
 Phone 69

EAGLES HOLD THEIR MEMORIAL SERVICE

LARGE AUDIENCE ATTENDS IMPRESSIVE CEREMONIES.
 Judge Thomas A. Jones Delivers Memorial Address—Eulogy by J. Scroop Styles—Good Music.

An audience which taxed the capacity of the Majestic theatre yesterday afternoon gave undivided attention to the impressive ceremonies of the Asheville aerie, No. 1377, Fraternal Order of Eagles, which honored its dead at the annual memorial service. Each year the Eagles of this city arrange an excellent program for the annual service but the committee on arrangements for this year's event was unusually fortunate in the selection of those who participated in the meetings.

Following the custom of the order, officers of the aerie were seated on the stage, which was decorated in cut flowers and potted plants. Elevated at the rear of the stage was an immense eagle's head surrounded by twenty-five glowing electric bulbs. Each bulb represented the life of one of the deceased members of the order and the house was thrown in darkness as the secretary called the roll of the twenty-five members who have died since the establishment of the Asheville aerie. Each name was called thrice to be answered only by muffled tones and the echo of the secretary's voice. As the roll was called the lights were extinguished.

The musical program was unusually good, solos by Miss Nella Brown and selections by the Eagle's orchestra contributing to the excellence of the music. A cello solo by Richard F. Yarnley was thoroughly enjoyed. The meeting was opened with prayer by Rev. C. B. Waller, D. D., pastor of the First Baptist church, and closed with the benediction pronounced by B. M. Marlow, worthy chaplain.

The memorial address, delivered by Judge Thomas A. Jones, was a short but masterful effort. Judge Jones spoke with earnestness and his hearers listened to his remarks with close attention. Dealing with the principles of the order, liberty, truth, justice and equality, Judge Jones declared that he is glad to address a body of men which stands for liberty. He dealt at length with the subject of liberty, its privileges and its demands. Liberty-loving Americans, Judge Jones declared, believe in liberty in the true sense of the word and he declared that no such American can truly believe in liberty for himself and be unwilling for the honest immigrant to enjoy the same principle. Dealing with political liberty, Judge Jones declared that he does not like to hear one say that he belongs to a political party. "It's all right for you to be affiliated with a party, but don't belong to it," the speaker advised. He declared that religious liberty demands that the church and the state be kept separate and declared that he is a church member and is a believer in churches. However, he declared that the action of some ministers in trying to control the affairs of the state and nation is unbecoming. He expressed regret that there should be ministers who so on record as opposing a harmless, free band concert on the Sabbath.

Judge Jones declared that the Eagle who lives up to any one of the four principles of his order will be a better man. The brotherhood of man has been the dream of seers, prophets, poets and singers for ages, the speaker remarked, and it is beginning now to be a reality. The secret orders can be of great aid to the churches in making the world better and while they can not hope to take the place of the churches, they can co-operate with the religious organizations in carrying out their great work. The grouping of men of many beliefs and ideas under one banner can mean much for the betterment of conditions. It was stated, and the speaker pleaded with his hearers to remember and observe the principles of their order.

J. Scroop Styles delivered the eulogy and he made an excellent address. In opening his remarks he stated that one of the cardinal principles of the order is equality and he declared that it would be inappropriate and contrary to the principles of the order for him to single out one man and tell of his virtues. The men who have died since the establishment of the local aerie and in whose memory the service was arranged, Mr. Styles stated, were good Eagles. That is a tribute, it was declared, and no speaker regardless of his eloquence or his intimate knowledge of the characteristics of the members who have died could pay them a higher tribute than to say that they were true and loyal Eagles. The Fraternal Order of Eagles, Mr. Styles stated, is an organization which means much not only to its members, but to all mankind. Its members take no oath to bind them to do anything contrary to good citizenship and its influence over those who belong within its ranks is silent and unseen but powerful. The principles of the order, Mr. Styles declared, are leading men to live better lives, to have higher ideals and to be better citizens. Truth is the imperial virtue of the organization, it was stated, and in the Eagles' lodge room, the poor and the rich meet on the same ground and with the same surroundings. All Eagles are equal and are working for a common cause, the speaker said, and the field is unlimited while the power of the organization is unknown.

The earth is a vast burying ground, Mr. Styles remarked, and it is appropriate that the Eagles should meet annually to pay their respects to the members of the order who have died. The meetings, he remarked, impress upon the living members of the order the certainty of death and the futility of life. The memorial services remind all Eagles that they are fast approaching that goal where all must stay on the same level, the speaker said, and it is well that the yearly gatherings should be held.

Mr. Styles dealt with the character of the men who have died and expressed the hope that the holding of the annual memorial exercises would inspire the living members of the order to conduct themselves in such a manner that when they have passed away they may be remembered as

REV. C. B. ROACH TO MEN AT Y.M.C.A.

MAKES STRONG ADDRESS ON "ANOTHER CHANCE."
 Takes Place of Rev. E. M. Hoyle, Who is Called From City—Good Musical Program Rendered.

Rev. C. B. Roach, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church, delivered an address to the men's meeting at the Young Men's Christian association yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock in the place of Rev. E. M. Hoyle, pastor of the Haywood street Methodist church who was called to Rutherford county on account of the illness of his uncle. The meeting was well attended and general appreciation was expressed for the fine address of the speaker. An excellent musical program was rendered. Solos were sung by Frank Hill and Rev. G. D. Spafford and selections were rendered by the Y. M. C. A. orchestra. Miss Dinkins accompanied the soloist on the piano.

The subject of the address was "Another Chance" which was in part as follows: "John Mark came from a highly developed household. He came from people who were active in the religious work of his time and who were not afraid to throw open their doors to a prayer meeting, even when they knew that they were likely to be interrupted and cast into prison before they finished the service. But he didn't look with much favor on Bible teaching, and even now, after 2,000 years there are many people of our time who do not believe in it.

"When Paul went on one of his first missionary tours he took John Mark with him, but John Mark failed and left Paul before they had completed the first tour. Paul at first decided to leave him on his next trip, but finally decided to give him another chance and John Mark succeeded after that as a teacher of the word of God, becoming of great assistance to Paul.

"I wish to suggest three things: First, that every one of us owes a second chance to himself; second, we owe it to other folks to give them another chance; third, we should give God another chance when we are giving ourselves another chance, too. If there is one thing that takes the heart out of a man it is accepting his first failure. In doing this a man cheats himself out of the blessings that are rightly his.

"John failed Paul once but Paul gave him another chance and he made good. We owe it to all of our fellow men to give them another chance. Jesus was once asked, 'How often should a man be given another chance?' and he answered, 'Give him so many chances that it will amount to more than 400 times a day and then some more.' Among the many things that Jesus brought to this world the fact that we can all have another chance. An opportunity lost is forever gone just as the ships that pass in the night. We can never have that identical opportunity again, but thank God we are permitted to have another."

SPRING WEATHER PROMISED.

WASHINGTON, March 22.—A gradual return this week to normal spring temperatures, with generally fair skies, was predicted by the weather bureau tonight for all parts of the country east of the Rocky mountains.

"There will be frosts the first part of the week, however," said the bulletin, "in the east and South Atlantic states except southern Florida.

"There is nothing to indicate marked storm activity over the country. A disturbance of moderate intensity will appear in the southwest Wednesday or Thursday and will cross the middle west about Friday and the eastern states near the end of the week. This disturbance will be attended by local areas of precipitation and be followed by a change to cooler weather in the northern states."

FIRE CAPTAIN DIES.

TROY, Ala., March 22.—J. G. Page, 24 years old, captain of the Troy fire department, died early today as the result of burns received last night when he entered a burning dwelling to rescue a child whom he erroneously believed to be there.

JOHN W. EDWARDS IS SHOT BY HIS WIFE

SHOT IN BACK WHILE SEATED IN HIS CHAIR.
 Taken to the Mission Hospital in a Serious Condition—Mrs. Hattie Edwards at Police Station.

Seated in a chair reading a letter at his boarding house, 250 Patton avenue, John W. Edwards, aged 25, was shot in the back and shoulder by his wife, Hattie Edwards, about 7 o'clock last night. The police were called to the scene and the wounded man was sent to the Mission hospital while the woman was taken in charge by the police and lodged at the police station on a charge of assault with a deadly weapon with intent to commit murder. Dr. O. F. Eckel and Dr. H. M. Fletcher were called to attend the wounded man and performed an operation to remove the bullet. At last reports the patient was in a serious condition and his recovery is doubtful.

According to statements made by several people in the house at the time the shooting occurred the wounded man and his wife had been quarreling several days although it was not thought that the matter was serious enough to cause the shooting. It was stated that Edwards had insisted on opening his wife's trunk and reading some of her letters and that she objected to this stating that she did not care if he read the letters but that she did not want him to soil her freshly laundered clothing.

One of the women residing in the house stated to a representative of The Citizen that Mrs. Edwards stated several days ago that her husband had threatened to kill her and that she was afraid he might try to carry out his threat.

When taken to the police station, Mrs. Edwards was accompanied by her two children, a little girl five years old and a baby boy ten months old. Since the police could not look the baby in the cell with the woman some difficulty was encountered in finding a place for him during the night but he was finally taken to the Mission hospital while the little girl was sent to the home of the grandmother, Mrs. Violet Warlick, 2 Holt street.

Mrs. Edwards refused to make any statement regarding the affair other than that she shot in self defense. Seated in the office of the chief of police with her baby held tightly to her she cried: "I have nothing to say other than that I did it in self defense because he was going to kill me." A pathetic scene was enacted when the time came to separate her from her baby, but at all other times she was calm although obviously under a nervous strain.

It was stated by one of the policemen who first arrived at the house that Edwards was seated in a chair when the officer walked into the room and seemed to be entirely in possession of his senses. The officer stated that just before the wounded man was placed in the patrol wagon he said: "My wife shot me. I was sitting in the chair reading a letter."

Edwards is said to have been employed at one of the lumber camps near Black Mountain, and has been away from home several weeks. It is stated that a misunderstanding had existed between him and his wife since his return to Asheville several days ago and that he has made several accusations against her. The couple had been married about seven years.

Following the examination at the hospital it was stated by the attending physician that Edwards has a fighting chance to recover. One of the bullets struck him in the back between the sixth and seventh ribs and it was found impossible to locate it but no evidence was apparent that it had fatally injured the victim. The other bullet struck the victim in the top of the left shoulder and ranged downward in front of the middle of the breast bone. This one was removed.

It is not thought that the wife of Edwards will be given a hearing until some definite knowledge can be secured concerning his recovery but it is thought that some attempt will be made to make bond for her appearance for preliminary trial.

Dress Colonial Pumps

Its hard to name the pretty style shoe we can't show you. Where the eye is the jury the foot is important evidence. Our cash prices save you money on every pair. Just name the price, we have a summer shoe for it.

NICHOLS SHOE CO.
 AND BARGAIN ANNEX ON THE SQUARE.

PLENTY OF GIRLS AT THE MAJESTIC TODAY

Boyle Woolfolk's Petticoat Minstrels the Attraction First Three Days of Week.

Boyle Woolfolk's "Petticoat Minstrels," an aggregation of fair, feminine entertainers, blackface and natural, will be the attraction at the Majestic for the first three days of the week, opening at the matinee performance today. The advance notices credit this show with being the peer of any minstrel performance in tabloid today, and the girls come recommended as screamingly funny, with gorgeous costumes and stage settings, and an array of wit that will make the first rows "sit up and take notice." Myrtle Bliss, interlocutor, is admirably suited to the position, and the rest of the girls are proficient in their parts, consisting mostly of providing fun for the audience. Catchy song numbers, splendid comedy and dancing par excellence are claimed for this show, and newspaper notices from cities where they have appeared bear out their claims. The show plays today, tomorrow and Wednesday.

HEADACHES SUCCUMB TO ANTI-KAMMIA TABLETS.

OAK HALL GUESTS.

Among the guests at Oak Hall, Tryon, are—Olmer R. Williamson, and Mrs. Olmer R. Williamson, Chicago, Ill.; Mrs. W. B. Brinton, Dixon, Ill.; Mr. Bradford Brinton, Dixon, Ill.; Mrs. E. T. Lise and two children, Chicago, Ill.; Miss J. T. Brooks, Salem, Ohio; Mr. C. T. Brooks, Cleveland, Ohio; Mr. E. L. Lyon, Chicago, Ill.; Mr. and Mrs. J. J. White, New Lisbon, N. J.; Miss E. C. White, and Miss B. S. White, New Lisbon, N. J.; Mrs. Daniel Andrews, Duluth, Minn.; Miss Amelia Roe Andrews, Duluth, Minn.; Miss Margaret G. Peter, Bethesda, Md.; Miss M. H. Severance, Cleveland, Ohio; Miss Elizabeth Bowman, Cleveland, Ohio; Judge and Mrs. O. H. Horton, Chicago, Ill.; Mr. and Mrs. W. C. White, Cleveland, Ohio; Miss F. E. Durand, Cleveland, Ohio; Miss Margaret Rhines, Detroit, Mich.; Mr. and Mrs. Edward F. Perkins, Grand Rapids, Mich.; Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Bassett, Cleveland, Ohio; Louise Hitchcock Bassett, Cleveland, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Kent, Miss Looney, Detroit, Mich.; Dr. R. B. King, Detroit, Mich.; Mr. M. Le Beau, Detroit, Mich.; Mrs. W. B. Rankine, New Canaan, Conn.; Mrs. George Baker and Miss Anne Baker, Frankfort, Ky.; Mr. Austin Peizer, Montgomery, Ala.; Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Goodaough, Kennebunk, Me.; Mrs. S. V. L. Shriver, Washington, D. C.; Miss Caroline Smith, Washington, D. C.; Mrs. M. T. Atwood, Cambridge, Mass.; S. M. Hall and wife, Saco, Me.; Miss Clara E. Riley, Philadelphia, Pa.; W. L. Wade, Boston, Mass.; T. W. Weeks, Cornwall-on-Hudson, N. Y.; W. H. Steinbecker, Charleston, S. C.

CLERKS TO DISCUSS CLOSING MOVEMENT

They Will Meet at Hall of Central Labor Union Tomorrow Night—Committee at Work.

For the purpose of discussing the continuation of the plan under which the merchants of the city are closing their stores at 6 p. m. each day except Saturday, the clerks of the city and others who are interested in the movement will meet at the hall of the Central Labor union tomorrow night at 7:30 o'clock. When the merchants several months ago agreed to close at 6 o'clock it was the general understanding that that hour would be observed as the closing hour only until the first of April. It appears now, however, that the stores of the city will continue to close early the clerks working in behalf of the movement which has the endorsement of the Asheville Merchants' association.

The merchants endorsed the movement at their last meeting when G. F. Stradley was named as chairman of the committee which was appointed to call on the various merchants and secure their opinions relative to the continuation of the early closing. The members of the committee have made several calls and it is understood that they have met with gratifying results many of the merchants having expressed a willingness to continue to close at the hour named several weeks ago.

Some definite announcement relative to the closing of the stores will be made within the next few days, it is expected.

LANGREN AUGMENTED ORCHESTRA PROGRAM

The musical program at The Langren hotel last night was rendered by The Langren orchestra, augmented by several additional pieces and the concert was attended by a large crowd that frequently applauded the various numbers. A feature of the program was the singing of Miss Nella Brown and the rendition of "Spring Time," written by John D. Jones, a member of the orchestra. The program was as follows:

1. March, "Under the Double Eagle"—Wagner.
2. Overture, "Tancredi"—Rossini.
3. Largo—Handel.
4. Selection, "High Jinks"—Primi Faust—Gounod.
5. Vocal Solo, "Flower Song" from Faust—Gounod.
6. Miss Nella Brown.
7. Valse Lento, "Spring Time"—Jones.
8. Grand Selection, "Lucia Di Lammermoor"—Donizetti.
9. Intermission.
10. Bolero, "Spanish Gaiety"—Eno.
11. Vocal Solo, (a) "The Rosary"—Nevin.
12. (b) "I Love You Truly"—Bond, Miss Nella Brown.
13. Grand Selection, "Faust"—Gounod.
14. Vocal Solo, "Carita"—Minnie Miss Nella Brown.
15. Romance—Tschalowsky.
16. Plerette—Chaminade.
17. The Finale, "America".

The First Wayne team of the Central league is to open the season at home this year for the first time in the dozen years it has been in the circuit.

A Live Piano In Every Home is Desirable

A Genuine Cecilian Player Piano

Real Mahogany Case Fully Guaranteed

Only $425.00

This is a High Grade Piano at a Low Price

DUNHAM'S MUSIC HOUSE
 Pianos of Quality

