When Out of Sorts Start Your Liver Working

No Matter What Ails You, Dodson's Liver Tonic is Usually a Big Help in Getting Well. Avoid Calomel.

Nine times out of ten, when you are ill or out of sorts, your liver is out of order and getting it in order again will make you feel better. When your liver is sluggish and torpid and you are constipated and bilious it is impossible to feel well.

There was a time when a great number of people took calomel when so troubled. But this is not true today. It has become widely known that calomel often has bad after-effects and is even dangerous to many. The use of Dodson's Liver Tonic, instead of calomel, has spread wonderfully because it has proved so beneficial in so many households. All-son's Drug Store recommends and guarantees Dodson's Liver Tonic instead of calomel and guarantees to refund purchase price (50c) if you instantly without question if you are not perfectly pleased with the way in which it relieves you from constipation, sick headache, biliousness, etc. If "lives the liver" and is a pleasant-tasting, vegetable liquid, easy to take and causes no pain, no griping, no bad results, no change from your regular duties and habits.

To test Dodson's Liver Tonic is a sensible matter because you get your money back if you are not satisfied.

P. C. FOSTER, Sheriff.

Requisition papers have been applied for and as soon as these can be secured one of the officers from the sheriff's department will go to Washington to bring the prisoners back. Since the message from Sheriff Foster seemed to imply confidence in his ability to get the Hutchinson woman and the child at any time he desires the local officers refuse to be discouraged over the fact that Mrs. Hutchinson has not been apprehended.

Smooth, Hairless Skin Follows this Treatment

(Toilet Tips.) Among the home-beauty helps, none perhaps is more important than that which will free the skin from obnoxious hairy growths. A simple method to rid the skin of unsightly hairs is to make a paste by mixing powdered delatone with water and applying for about 2 minutes, then rubbing off. With it comes every bit of hair and when the skin is washed, it will be firm and free from blemish. Results are more satisfactory if the delatone is bought in an original package.

VICTORY CELEBRATED BY LENOIR PUPILS

Huge Bonfire Is Built as Celebration of Le Nair's Success in the Triangular Contests.

LENOIR, March 23.—The high school pupils of the Lenoir graded schools celebrated their victory won in the triangular debate last night over Morganton and Hickory graded schools, the final climax of the jubilation being a huge bonfire at the school building on North Main street. In the debating contest the Lenoir boys won over the Morganton boys in the latter town and also won over the Hickory boys at the school building here. The query for discussion, Resolved, "That the Constitution of North Carolina be so amended as to allow the initiative and referendum in statewide legislation," was discussed by the representatives of all three of the schools.

The debate held here was well attended and the meeting was presided over by Captain Edmund Jones, chairman. Our boys supported the affirmative side of the query and the visitors took issue from the negative point of view. Lenoir school was represented by Henry Menzies and Bonner Knox. The judges were I. T. Avery, Morganton; J. D. Elliott, Hickory and Thomas Newland, Lenoir.

At Morganton the Lenoir boys took the negative side of the query and won the judges decision over their opponents. The affirmative was defended by Clarence Bolick and Leith Shuping, of Morganton and Reece Crisp and Lee Spencer, of Lenoir upheld the negative, the latter boys winning the decision of the judges. Lenoir, having won at both of the debates, entitles them to the representation at the final contest to be held at the university, Chapel Hill, April 3. The committee of judges at Morganton was composed of Dr. J. L. Murphy, Hickory; W. C. Newland, Lenoir and A. C. Avery, Morganton. All four of the Lenoir boys made excellent speeches.

structions from their commanders to deal promptly with any of their own men acting in a disorderly manner, and to give the police immediate assistance in any such case.

The city is quiet, but great interest was displayed in the parliamentary statements by the crowds which remained around the bulletin boards of the newspapers most of the night, awaiting details of the situation with regard to the army.

was "MISUNDERSTANDING"

LONDON, March 23.—The defection of the army officers who refused to serve in Ulster is a closed incident, but its consequences are likely to prove far reaching. Premier Asquith and Colonel Seely, secretary of state for war, made explanations before an excited and turbulent house today that the whole affair was the result of a misunderstanding.

This misunderstanding, it was inferred, although they did not directly say so, was due to misconstruction of the government's plans by the commanding general, Sir Arthur Paget, whereby he informed the officers in Ireland that they were to move on Ulster for a repressive campaign.

General Paget and three senior officers from the Carragh camp—General Gough, Colonel McEwan and Colonel Pariser, were summoned to London for a conference. According to official statements the misunderstanding has been cleared away, and these officers returned tonight to Ireland.

Prior to their departure they said they were entirely satisfied with the route of their visit. The terms on which the officers remain at their posts were not disclosed, but the general belief is that they were assured they would not be compelled to fight against the Ulster men. Lord Morely explained in the house of lords significantly that he did not think, in the interests of the efficiency of the army, that all that transpired in the army council should be made public, and that the king approved the orders to the officers to return.

King Takes Part.

The part of the king played in the crisis has not been disclosed. Army officers address their resignations to his majesty, and the report is that the king insisted that the resignations in the present instance should not be accepted and used his influence with the cabinet for a compromise with the army.

The unionists firmly believe that the government has participated in a fiasco. They think that the two most enterprising spirits of the cabinet, David Lloyd George and Winston Spencer Churchill, were the chief movers in the plan, and that the government proposed a wholesale movement of troops into Ulster to overcome the covenanters by the display of superior force and the arrest of their leaders, and that the plan was frustrated only by the opposition of the officers.

Some of the unionist members assert that Andrew Bonar Law recently received a letter quoting one of the highest officers in Ireland as saying:

"By Saturday there will be hundreds of dead in Ulster."

The unionists also accuse the government of making a scapegoat of General Paget for their own "colossal blunder."

The future of the home rule bill is in doubt. None of the fire and firmness which permeated the speeches of the ministers only last week was

Swell Corns? Try Wonderful "GETS-IT"

Greatest Corn-Cure World Has Ever Known. "Gets" Corns Sure as Fate.

Thousands say "GETS-IT" is simply magic. If you've tried nearly everything under the sun to get rid of those corns, so much the better for "GETS-IT." Corn freedom is yours at last.

not next week or next month, but right now! "GETS-IT" goes after corns as a crow does corn. There are no more thick plasters and greasy salves that don't remove, no more files, razors and jabbers that make corns grow. Put a few drops of "GETS-IT" on and see every corn and callus shrivel and vanish. That's the new way, the painless, sure, safe, quick way. Only "GETS-IT" can do it. Apply it in 3 seconds.

in evidence. The army has checked the government according to the unionists' view and the covenanters of Ulster have won their fight.

Raised Class Jealousies. No one will be surprised if the government soon relinquishes arms, as its action had the immediate result of striking a shower of sparks of class jealousies.

Liberal newspapers of high standing and influence like the Daily Chronicle and the Daily News print better denunciations of the officers as part of the Tory aristocracy which insists upon the prerogative of ruling the country against the will of the people, and demand the democratization of the army and that the system of officering it from the sons of the rich be superseded by a system whereby officers maybe promoted from the ranks.

The labor papers are equally bitter and demand to know why priviledged should not have the same privilege of refusing to fire upon workmen when called upon to suppress strike riots.

"What about the strikers?" was the shout with which the labor members tried to drown Mr. Bonar Law's defiance of the rights of the officers to refuse to obey orders against their consciences.

Conferences of high officers with the king continued today. Sporadic resignations of officers were announced, including those of several of the volunteer forces.

At the Carlton club, which is a conservative stronghold, it was asserted that the first lord of the admiralty, Mr. Churchill, one Friday ordered the third battleship squadron to Belfast, with the object of landing marines, and that Admiral Bailey replied that the squadron was not in condition to go to sea.

Speaking in the house of commons, Prime Minister Asquith today made it clear that officers and men refusing to obey orders in connection with the opposition of Ulster to the introduction of home rule for Ireland were liable to dismissal.

Details of the revolt of the army officers against service in Ulster had been awaited with strained expectations by the whole country. Only brief statements were forthcoming from the secretary of war and the premier, and the gist of these was that the whole affair was due to "misunderstanding" and that all the officers had now returned to their duty.
