ERRORS CHIEF CAUSE OF LOCALS' DEFEAT

GUTHRIE KEATTS'S HIRELINGS BUT THEY LOSE.

McKeithan Pitches Well and Fields Well, But Team Makes Mistakes in the Pitches.

Errors at critical stages and the break of the game caused the downfall of the Mountaineers before the Durham Bulls on the local lot yesterday afternoon, 4 to 3. The locals outthrew the visitors, three of their hits being for extra bases, but six costly bobbles, allowed the Bulls to get away with the decision with but six meagre singles, one of which was distinctly of a shafton shade. This was a bouncer down the third base line hit by W. Kelly in the third, which scored Butts, who had received a base on balls and stolen second. The ball hit inside the foul line, but before it reached third it appeared to be foul by several inches. Umpire Van Buskirk called it fair to the strenuous objection of Rohe, who was sent to the bench when the argument became too heated.

McKeithan pitched a good game for the home folks and fielded his position in jam-up style, deserving a victory, but his team mates could not back him up. Wares, at third, was the chief offender, making three mistakes, while Sauer let the first run in when he juggled Doyle's single to left and let Butts romp home from second. The hit was short and the out would have been easy.

The fielding features of the game were a one hand stab by Rickard of Gorham's drive in the fourth, and Whitted's peg from deep right in the seventh, which cut off Gorham at the plate. Rickard backed up against the center field boards and took Gorham's vorsemer on tiptoe.

The contest was lost in the eighth when two runs were pushed across with two down. Butts flew out to center. Whitted muffed W. Kelly's high one, the runner going to second. Corbett took Doyle's high one. J. Kelly was passed purposely and Morboth drove one against the left field boards. Sauer's return to third got away from Wares and J. Kelly followed the other across the pan.

his left leg just above the ankle. He was one of the star players of the league. He will be out of the game for the balance of the season. Krepps' home is in Kansas.

BATTING RALLY WINS GAME FOR HORNETS

GAME AT RALEIGH FEATURED BY PITCHING.

Schrader's Homer Wins in Ninth for Winston-Salem After Two Had Been Retired.

RALEIGH, May 7.—The Hornets annexed the first game of the series here this afternoon by running up a 3 to 0 score before the contest was called on account of rain in the eighth inning. The game was marked by light hitting, but the visitors took advantage of every opportunity offered when they got on bases and pilfered four sacks. This aided materially in getting three runs off seven hits and Raleigh's two errors also helped in the tally making.

The game was featured by the pitching of Drahan and Greengrass, the contest being a pitchers' battle up to the sixth, when Greengrass retired in favor of Meyers on account of a wrenched shoulder. Another feature of the game was the fielding of Weiser, who accepted five hard chances without a bobble.

The Hornets made all of their runs in the sixth when Williams singled and scored on Hartle's triple after Mollenkamp had fanned. Edwards brought in Hartle with a single to right and immediately stole second. He scored a moment later when Nelderborn hit to center.

Winston-Salem, May 7.—The Twins downed the Patriots here today in the ninth inning, 6 to 5, when Schrader pushed Hickman around the circuit ahead of him with a drive over the right field fence. Hickman was safe on first on a scratch, after one was out. Rollings fanned and then Schrader hit his four liner. The Patriots gathered but five hits. But errors helped them to score five runs. The fielding feature of the game was the bare hand stab by Rollings of Stuart's hard liner in the eighth. The ball was driven with terrific force and the local second sacker ran backward, leaped and grabbed it with his unloved hand.

Meador a recruit college pitcher hurled well for the twins and Franklin, the league's new umpire gave satisfaction. President A. Lyon watched the work of the latter from the stand.

HIGH SCHOOL TEAM WOULD BE CHAMPION

Local Aggregation Hopes to Get in on the Arrangement for Awarding State Championship.

The baseball team of the Asheville High school will leave during the early part of the coming week for Gastonia to participate in the elimination contest being conducted under the auspices of the athletic council of the University of North Carolina. The local team is making an effort to be counted in on the arrangement which looks to the selection of the champion high school team of the state. If it is successful against the Gastonia High school team, it will be pitted against some other nine and later will go to Chapel Hill at the expense of the athletic council to work against other state teams from which a championship aggregation will be selected.

The contest which has just been inaugurated is statewide and many North Carolina high schools will take part in it. Many teams will be eliminated next week by the time set for the aggregations to gather on "the hill" for the finals, but few teams will remain to work for the honor. The supporters of the local team are greatly interested in the contest and are hopeful that the Asheville boys will make a showing that will enable them to go to the university to play in the series of final games.

HENDERSONVILLE IS READY FOR DELEGATES

Entertainment Has Been Provided for Delegates to Women's Missionary Union.

HENDERSONVILLE, N. C., May 7.—Two hundred delegates from the Women's Missionary union of the Western Carolina conference of the M. E. church, south, are expected to arrive in Hendersonville tomorrow and Saturday for the annual meeting of the missionary union. Mrs. C. Few, president of the local union, says that entertainment has been provided for the majority of the delegates and that accommodations will be furnished others who may come.

Rev. John W. Moore, of Salisbury, former pastor of the Hendersonville Methodist church, will deliver the annual sermon. The meetings will be presided over by Mrs. Lucy H. Robertson, of Greensboro, president of the union.

A reception will be given the delegates at the Methodist church on Friday night of this week. An interesting program has been prepared and the local union is joined by the people of the city in extending the glad hand of welcome.

PLEADS GUILTY

AUGUSTA, Ga., May 7.—James P. Armstrong entered pleas of guilty in the Superior court today to five indications charging forgery and one indictment for being cashier of a bank which became fraudulently insolvent, and was sentenced to serve an aggregate of eight years in the penitentiary. Armstrong was cashier of the Irish-American bank, which failed last December. He is also under indictment for embezzlement but he did not plead guilty to that charge. The report of the bank examiners showed an alleged deficit of about $190,000.

Armstrong appeared in court today with his counsel and when the cases against him were sounded, he wrote out the pleas of guilty himself.
