

Society and Personals

A brilliant reception was given yesterday afternoon to the latest Asheville bride, Mrs. Vonno Gudger, the hostess being Mrs. Camie Brown of Montford avenue. Mrs. Brown's handsome new home lends itself admirably to entertaining, the rooms being spacious and so arranged as to accommodate numbers of guests. For this occasion they were lavishly decorated; the music room where the guests were received was most attractive, splendid white chrysanthemums being used with green. In the receiving line were the hostess, the guest of honor, Mrs. Vonno Gudger, Mrs. Lamar Gudger and the Misses Gudger, these young ladies having been in the wedding party at their brother's marriage.

Mrs. James H. Caine and Mrs. Arthur Pritchard served punch from a prettily decorated bowl placed in the living room.

Other ladies assisting Mrs. Brown in entertaining her guests were Mrs. Martin L. Stevens, Mrs. Mark Brown, Mrs. Thomas J. Harkins, Miss Catherine Beadles and Miss Myrtle Rolins.

The decorations in the living room were of autumn leaves and dahlias of a rich crimson hue. The dining room was in white and green. A bowl of white chrysanthemums occupied the center of the tea table, which was covered in rich lace; candle shades were of white silk and tulle rosettes.

Young ladies serving in the dining room were Miss Isabel Harris, Miss Esther Gudger, Miss Lois Hughes, Miss Christine Lee and Miss Carolyn Brown.

Dunn's orchestra furnished a musical program which added greatly to the enjoyment of the occasion.

About one hundred and fifty guests called to meet the bride.

Mrs. Annie D. Martin was hostess last evening at a delightful auction bridge party given at her home on Aston Place. The party was planned to mark the going away from Asheville of Mrs. Harris, of Jacksonville, who has been here several years, and also of Mrs. Clarence Hobart, who will join Mr. Hobart in Florida this week, and Mr. and Mrs. Swift Wright.

Mrs. Martin's guests numbered about twenty-five. A delicious supper was served at the conclusion of the games.

Among the young ladies who played tag yesterday to raise money for the European war sufferers were Miss Doris Davenport, Miss Dorothy Lytle, Miss Henrietta Jones, Miss Margaret Cowan, Miss Leon and Miss Emily Campbell.

Mrs. Willis Eardman Collins has issued invitations for a tea to be given at her home on Cumberland avenue Thursday afternoon from 4 o'clock to 5 o'clock. The tea is given in honor of Miss Mary Horns Ramsey.

Mrs. Patrick Henry Branch will entertain with a large auction bridge party Friday afternoon at Margo Terrace. Play will begin at 3:30 o'clock.

The nurses of Meriwether hospital were entertained Saturday night at the home of Mrs. Grady Swicegood on Patton avenue. Several of the guests participated in the entertainment program rendering musical selections. Refreshments were served and a most enjoyable time was reported.

The basketball game between the Greens and the Yellows at St. Genevieve's college yesterday afternoon resulted in a tie, which will be played off tomorrow afternoon. The game was exciting throughout the entire time of play, the teams being evenly matched. The Greens were captained by Miss Frances Stanton, while the Yellows had as their leader Miss Margaret Maney.

At a meeting of the students at St. Genevieve's college yesterday Miss Margaret Stanton, of Elkhart, Ind., was elected president of the college student body for the ensuing scholastic year.

The various committees who worked so energetically for the success of the charity tea dance and auction bridge party at Grove Park inn on Saturday, for the benefit of the European war sufferers, met with the chairman, Mrs. Arthur Rees, at her home on Biltmore road yesterday morning at twelve o'clock. After the reports were all in it was found that the clear sum made out of the enterprise reached beyond the five hundred dollar mark. This remarkable success gave the greatest gratification to the chairman and all the ladies who so ably assisted in the good work. There were 41 tables of bridge filled and hundreds of others who attended the tea dance, but did not play auction. The ladies were especially grateful to Mr. Rees and the management of Grove Park inn for the use of the hotel and for many courtesies extended, also to the young ladies who gave exhibition dancing and those who joined in making a gay ball room scene.

Yesterday the splendid sum obtained from the Saturday function was added to by the tag girls who worked industriously on Patton avenue and at the postoffice both morning and afternoon, realizing $150 by their efforts.

This money has been placed in the hands of Mayor Rankin for the present, until plans are perfected for its distribution.

Miss Welmoth Noland entertained her young friends on Friday evening at her home on Ashland avenue with a five hundred party, given in honor of Miss Mildred Poindexter's house guest, Miss Margaret Young, of Lexington, Ky. The reception rooms in Miss Noland's home were beautifully decorated in autumn leaves and autumn cut flowers with ferns. Seven games were played, the winners being Miss Edith Clark, Miss Mildred Poindexter and Miss Mehr, who received attractive prizes. Miss Young returned yesterday to her home.

"Come to tea and bring your knitting" is an invitation often given in Asheville just now. Society is reviving the old-fashioned accomplishment in which our grandmothers were expert, in order to send help to the soldiers and destitute poor in Europe. The practical Belgians know the genuine worth and wearing qualities of hand-knitted garments and much prefer them to the less durable machine knitted articles.

It is a sociable occupation, too, and one quite suited to the enjoyment of a quiet chat on stay-at-home afternoons or evenings, as the stitches are simple and require little close attention. Young ladies are finding knitting so fascinating that they take their bags to parties and ply the needles industriously between the dapsos.
