Newton

NEWTON, May 19.—Mrs. C. L. Everhart was hostess Tuesday afternoon to the Virginia Dare Book club. Mrs. "Travel" was the subject of study. Quotations on the subject were given and papers dealing with Palestine were read by Mesdames O. A. Brady, T. C. Clifton and H. M. Yount. Other readings were given by Mrs. H. E. Rowe and Mrs. Brady. Guests of the hostess and the club included Mesdames E. A. Bost, G. A. Warlick, C. W. Thurmond, W. C. Feinster, L. F. Long, A. H. Crowell, Chas. W. Sherrill, W. D. Cochran, O. D. Dellinger, J. A. Gaither, and Misses Mary Hardister and Margaret Kilne. Mrs. Everhart served an ice course.

tended the Methodist Missionary convention. The young people of the town and college are preparing this week for commencement festivities at Catawba college beginning next week. Sunday evening Rev. Dr. A. D. Wolfinger, of Greensboro, will deliver the baccalaureate sermon, and the finals will be given Wednesday evening. Wednesday evening the young people of the town enjoyed a dance, at which guests from other towns in this section were present. Mr. and Mrs. Ernest H. Yount, who were married May 3 at Shelby, the bride being Miss Marguerite Smith, arrived Thursday after ten days spent in New York and other cities.

Morganton

MORGANTON, May 18.—Tuesday morning in honor of her guests, Mesdames A. C. Paradise and L. Robinson, Mrs. N. McNaughton entertained in a charming manner the West Union Bridge club. The honor guests, whose homes are in Chicago, have been spending some time at Grove Park Inn, Asheville.

Mrs. A. M. Kistler was hostess at a beautifully appointed five course luncheon Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock in honor of Miss Fayette Peck. Her guests were Miss Peck, Mesdames E. McK. Goodwin, L. W. Alston, B. S. Gaither, A. C. Chaffee, J. Theo. Perkins, E. D. Alexander, I. F. Jeter, and C. E. Gregory and Misses Welch and Grimes. Roses were used for decorations, and the favors were tiny cottages filled with candy, suggestive of Miss Peck's plan to build a cottage in the Berkshires.

It is with regret that friends here have learned of Miss Peck's decision to retire from school work at the end of the present session at the school for the deaf. For several years she has been the efficient head of the educational department of the institution.

Saturday afternoon little Miss Naomi Pipkin celebrated her sixth birthday with a party to a number of her little playmates.

Mrs. S. Prasad was hostess to the Embroidery club last Friday afternoon, when invited guests were Mesdames L. Robinson, B. Riddle, Richard Beger, and I. T. Avery. Tea and sandwiches were served.

The Hesperian Book club held the last meeting of the club year—on Thursday afternoon with Mrs. John Miller. Mark Twain was the subject of the afternoon's study. The hostess served a salad course.

Mrs. F. M. Scroggs entertained the

S. McD. Tate chapter of the United Daughters of the Confederacy at their regular meeting on Friday afternoon. The Embroidery club had an enjoyable meeting on Thursday afternoon of last week with Mrs. J. R. Anderson.

On Monday afternoon in Greensboro, Miss Donnie Cobb, daughter of Mrs. T. G. Cobb of Morganton, and Dr. Presley R. Brown, whose home is near Charlotte, were married at the Gullford hotel, Dr. E. L. Bain, pastor of West Market Methodist church officiating at the ceremony. It was a surprise affair, as the marriage had been planned to take place in June, and only the immediate families of the bride and groom and a few friends were told of the change of plans.

Dr. Brown is a graduate of Davidson college and Charlotte Medical college. He has been located at Swopeville, near Graham for some time, and he and his bride will go to housekeeping at that place. The bride is a daughter of the late T. G. Cobb, for years editor of the Morganton News-Herald. She has been teaching for the past four years in the Graham public schools.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. White, of Graham, and Miss Annie Morgan, of Winston-Salem, spent Sunday with friends here.

Misses Helen and Clara DeSchweinitz, of Bethlehem, Pa., were the guests several days during the week of Mrs. A. M. Gistler.

Mrs. Mamie Erwin returned Saturday on a visit to her daughters, Mrs. J. D. Bowman, at Winston-Salem, and Mrs. W. W. Rust, at Rocky Point.

Mr. and Mrs. I. G. Greer, of Boone, are visiting Mrs. Greer's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Spainhour, Miss Ruth Coffey, of Boone, and Miss Irene Coffey, of Lenoir, are also guests in the Spainhour home.

Mrs. Thula Puett, of Lenoir, is visiting relatives here this week.

Miss Lucy Walton, who spent the past two weeks at her home near the State Hospital, has returned to Charlotte.

Mrs. G. C. Passmore left Monday for her home at Tuscaloosa, Ala., after spending a month with her parents near Morganton.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Patton arrived the latter part of last week from Spartanburg.

Mrs. E. L. Abernethy spent Thursday in Hickory.

Miss Ruth Houk returned home

Thursday from the State Normal, Greensboro.

Miss Elizabeth Anderson returned Wednesday from Mitchell college, Statesville.

Miss Eliza Murphy Pearson, who holds a position in Washington, D. C., is at home on a two weeks' vacation.

Mrs. J. D. Clark, of Statesville, is visiting Mrs. J. R. Anderson.

Miss May Mills, of Brindletown, is visiting Mrs. A. C. Avery.

Hearts was the game of the afternoon. The tally cards were heart-shaped. Miss Mary Bette Field, Mrs. R. A. Campbell, Mrs. Albert Cooper and Miss Elizabeth Carlton drew for the high score prize which fell to Miss Field. The prize consisted of a box of correspondence cards. The guest of honor was presented with a fan. A salad course was served. The sandwiches served with the salad were heart-shaped. The decorations consisted of potted plants, cut flowers and flags. A general color scheme of red and green was carried out. Miss Corrine Morrison entertained the Bachelor Belles Wednesday afternoon. Bridge was played. High score prize went to Miss Ruth Gill. A salad course with candied nuts was served. The house was pretty with a profusion of roses. Guests of the afternoon outside the club were: Misses Sara Adams, Bertha Cooper and Isabelle Miller. The luncheon given the Statesville college (now Mitchell college) alumnae Monday afternoon was attended by 123 guests, the largest assemblage of the college alumnae in recent years. The luncheon table was beautiful with lilies, roses and ferns.

Miss Carrie Hoffmann presided as toastmistress. Dr. C. E. Raynal pronounced the blessing. Mrs. Lula Rhyme Adams gave the address of welcome. Dr. James K. Hall, of Richmond, Va., spoke on Iredell county's pioneer educator, Dr. James Hall. Mrs. Cornelia Kelly Leitner gave the toast, "Looking Backward."
