REAL ESTATE

FOR RENT. "Grow More Houses!"

In advocating good roads for Buncombe county and western North Carolina, a constructive policy, we make no claim that our purpose is disinterested. Inseparably linked with the prosperity of this community is the issue of good roads.

Of course, we shall profit by having good roads. Not only the land merchants as a class but the merchants who sell shoes and dry goods, automobiles and trucks and farm trac-tors and seeds. Please pardon our zeal for the cause when we tell you that on our mail matter we have printed; "To grow more food is our elemental duty." The man of the white house has said so. And, all over the nation, not in this neck of woods alone has gone up the cry that we must raise more food; more grow-ing crops, more cattle, more sheep. From the far west we are receiving 4259-17-tf inquiries for grazing lands. Farmnorthern country into the south to raise sheep and to raise wool. We are admonished that the war may last one, two, possibly three years. Shall we tell labor that they must quit the harvests, and that there is no need for the hammer and saw and the nail? For wood or stone or brick! For the carpenter or brick layer! Good roads spell accessibility. If you want to go over bad roads, you will find this true by "reverse" ratio. We hold no brief for the county commissioners for the buzz they caused some months ago by not advertising those bonds. was "sub-normal," we are told, and foot-warmers became recessary some quarters. But, we believe the county program is a county ne-cessity. And so—we are advertising those bonds. For the good of he service and for the country and our own firesides; conscious as we are that we should grow more food, more

The excavation work is about done. We asked Monsieur Homer Cathey what it would cont to cut down that 12 foot embankment on East Street, north of Chestnut Street. Frontage, 100 feet to be dug into, say, for 50 feet. To make way for stores, although flats could be provided for above, if desired. The whole plot is 100x220 feet and will readily cut up into four lots. We have indicated the preferential improvement. The price is $1,700; terms if desired, but cash is preferred.
