Mr. H. B. Ray, of this city, announces the marriage of his daughter, Miss Carrie L. Ray, and Mr. J. Carl Wolfe, of Waxhaw, N. C. The ceremony was performed at Charlotte on Tuesday, May 22, by Dr. D. H. Ralston. Miss Ray is a graduate of the Normal school and since graduation has been teaching in the public schools near Charlotte. Mr. Wolfe is a prominent druggist of Waxhaw and is well known in business circles. Mr. and Mrs. Wolfe are motoring in the western part of the state. After June 1, they will be at home to their friends at Waxhaw.

The student body of Horner's Military school ended their first Wednesday evening with a brilliant dance. The flag and cup presented each year was won this year by Company "A" of which Mr. Junius Horner, of this city is a member.

The young people's mission study class of the Haywood street Methodist church, meets this afternoon at 1:30 o'clock with Mrs. J. H. Stone at her home on South French Broad avenue.

Miss Christine Lee, a bride-elect of June, was the chief guest at a miscellaneous shower during the week by Mrs. V. L. Stone at her home on Ashland avenue. Potted plants and spring flowers made an artistic background for the many smartly gowned guests present. A wicker basket filled with gifts, and charmingly decorated with white rose buds and tulle was given Miss Lee.

Of interest to many friends in North Carolina as well as South Carolina, is the announcement of the engagement of Miss Nathalie Heyward, daughter of Mrs. Albert Rhett Heyward, of Columbia, to Mr. Charles Wilson Miller, of Columbia, formerly of Georgetown, S. C. The wedding will take place on June 27.

Interest will be attached in the marriage of Miss Martha Wall, of Mr. Frank Holton, of Winston-Salem. This wedding unites two of Western North Carolina's most prominent families. The Winston-Salem Journal gives the following:

"Announcements that will not only be of interest, but a great surprise as well, have been issued announcing the marriage of Miss Martha Wall, of Walburg, and Mr. Frank Holton, of this city, the wedding to be taken place on Monday, April 30, in a rather romantic way. Rev. Edgar A. Holton, pastor of Christ Moravian church and a cousin of the groom, having performed the ceremony. Accompanied by the minister, Mr. Holton went to Walburg on the day of the interesting event, was joined by Miss Wall and went a short distance from that place, the ceremony being performed on the roadside. The young people returned to their respective homes and kept the marriage a secret, even from closest friends and relatives, until a few days ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Holton decided to make the announcement and left yesterday by automobile on a trip through the Shenandoah Valley to Washington, D. C.

"The bride is an unusually attractive and popular young woman, being the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Wall, of Walburg, one of the most prominent families of Davidson county. Miss Wall was president of the senior class at Meredith college, Raleigh, last year. She attended commencement exercises of her alma mater the first of this week and the one-year reunion of her class, announcing to her classmates at a dinner given in her honor that she had married. She has numerous friends and has been a frequent visitor in this city, being a sister of Dr. R. L. Wall, of Woodland avenue.

"Mr. Holton is the second son of Hon. A. E. Holton, one of the state's most prominent attorneys and, for sixteen years United States district attorney for the Western North Carolina district, and Mrs. Holton, of Southside. He is a splendid and promising young man, being popular with a large number of friends. Mr. Holton has charge of his father's large farm just a few miles south of the city."

The Junior Brotherhood of St. Andrew of Trinity church will meet this evening at 8 o'clock with Mr. Duncan McMahon at No. 11 Cullowhee street.

The Country club will hold its regular Saturday afternoon tea dance this afternoon from 5 o'clock until 6:30 o'clock. A number of the dancing set are anticipating this party with a great deal of pleasure.

Mrs. Charles L. Minor has discontinued her Tuesday afternoon "at home" as she leaves the first of the week for a stay of some time at Baltimore, Md.

Mr. and Mrs. Billy Moore entertained at a buffet last evening complimentary to their guests. Miss Ione Fuller, of Winston-Salem and Mrs. L. Pugh, of Atlanta, Ga. The house was tastefully decorated with spring roses and other cut flowers. Miss Lucy Taylor presided at the punch bowl, which was placed in the hall. The highest score for the evening for the ladies was won by Miss Velma Thompson, while Mr. Young received the prize for the gentleman's highest score. Miss Ione Fuller cut the consolation prize. The honor guests were given dainty souvenirs. After the games, a delicious salad course was served. The guests present were: Mrs. Pugh, Miss Fuller, Miss Velma Thompson, Miss Evelyn Bonnett, Miss Lucy Taylor, Dr. Hixon, Mr. Floy Patton, Mr. Faust, Mr. Keister Young and Mr. and Mrs. Moore.

At a meeting held by Swannanoa Rebekah lodge last night, a reception was given in honor of the newly elected president of the Rebekah State assembly, Miss Lillian Stewart Byrd, she being elected last week at High Point, N. C. Miss Byrd was presented with a large bouquet of beautiful roses, given by members of the lodge, and presented by Mr. J. J. Mackey, with an appropriate address expressing appreciation of the lodge to Miss Byrd in holding the highest office in the state. After several talks on the good of the order by prominent members, refreshments were served.
