Dr. W. F. Powell, pastor of the First Baptist church, will address the drafted men at the exercises this afternoon at 5 o'clock at the court house, following a prayer by Dr. F. Campbell.

In this connection it will be of interest to learn that Dr. Powell has been granted a leave of absence from the First Baptist church for a month to be spent in the campus at Columbia, Spartanburg, Greenville and Charlotte.

DOCTOR INTERESTED IN SHEEP QUESTION

"Talking about sheep," said Dr. W. E. Glenn in the board of trade rooms yesterday afternoon. "I've just had a letter from J. C. Johnson, of West Spartanburg, whom I have known for a long time, that he bought thirty-five head of sheep last year, 1916, and a little while ago sold the wool from the flock for a sum lacking but eight cents of what the sheep cost him last year."

BRASS! Mighty good stuff for pipe-fittings and, in moderation, as an element of human character. But Brass never fully expresses its worth till an artist takes it in hand and makes it into a thing of art—educates it, so to speak, and puts eloquence behind its natural charm.

Those Brass Candlesticks we are displaying have a beauty that couldn't have been given utterance through the medium of any other metal.
