MARKET NEWS

SOME DEPRESSION IN N. Y. MARKET.

NEW YORK, Oct. 2.—The greater depression which attended today's stock market was due mainly to familiar causes, steady liquidation of securities of a character heretofore favored by investors.

Recent severe recessions in rails were extended by one to four points, few issues escaping the process of attrition. New lows were recorded by the St. Paul, New York Central and Baltimore and Ohio, while many other transportation stocks came within easy approach of their minimums.

No developments of specific or definite nature were offered in explanation of the movement, but in well informed circles, the belief still obtained that the selling emanated from foreign quarters. The bears were not too slow to avail themselves of the decline.

Industrial and the various shares included in the war group were plainly inclined to the pressure against the rails, but yielded with the general list until the final hour, when gradual improvement set in, the market changing from its heavy tone to one of moderate irregularity.

United States Steel's course was again indicative of the general movement, from its low level of 1.03 1/2, steel rallied two points, closing at 1.10 1/2, a net loss of an insignificant fraction. Copper, on the other hand, regular but shipping and recognized pool shares were steady to strong.

Call money was stabilized by the money pool, but the market was again in scant supply, though quotably unchanged. Remittances to London and Paris were easier and the rate on Rome hardened slightly.

Bonds were heavy on moderate trading, the Liberty issue selling at 99.24 to par. Treasury 4 1/2's, par value, aggregated $4,750,000.

United States coupon 3's rose 1/2 per cent. on call.

N. Y. COTTON PRICES ADVANCE.

NEW YORK, Oct. 2.—The government crop report was followed by an excited advance of more than a cent a pound in cotton today. December contracts sold up to 25.06 or 122 points above last night's closing figures and representing the highest price reached since that delivery touched 23.53 on the break of last month. The close was at 24.92 for December, with the general list closing barely steady at a net advance of 10 to 12 points.

The trade had been prepared for small gains but had not looked for such a high return as indicated by the official report showing 4,931 bales gained prior to September 25 against 4,951, 889 last year. The market opened 22 to 25 points higher on this showing, but buying was held in check by uncertainty as to the government's crop report. When this appeared at 11 o'clock, placing the condition at 62.4 and the indicated yield at 12,047,000 compared with 12,499,000 bales, the indication of a month ago, buying became general and excited.

In addition to heavy Wall street and western buying, there was an active demand from foreign and domestic trade interests which sent prices upward rapidly in spite of realizing and increased foreign hedge selling. Before the advance was more than momentarily halted, October futures at 24.50 and January at 24.75, making a net gain of 118 to 125 points. The close was several points off from the best under profit-taking. The trade had been looking for a condition of about 62 and the lower figures combined with the continued free exports, created a strong bullish sentiment.

NEW ORLEANS COTTON.

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 2.—The government report on condition, production and spinning today put the price of cotton in New Orleans 1/2 to 1 1/2 higher on the most active months, sending all months over the 24 cent level. Opening at the advance, the market heated and reacted in the early trading but around the middle of the morning, took on strength and spurred upward to a net advance of about 100 points. In the afternoon the gain was widened to 130 to 121 points on the more distant options. October was not as active as yesterday and at its best was only 108 points up. The market closed at a net gain of 107 to 116 points.
