AT THE 'MOVIES'
PRINCESS THEATRE
Dorothy Dalton, star of "The Flame of the Yukon," will appear in the role of Neva Blaine in "The Ten of Diamonds," the latest Triangle play, which will be shown at the Princess theatre today only. The story is designed to show how a woman's life is moulded by a man or men, each having his part in shaping or directing the resulting personality. Again she is the dance hall girl, joyous, reckless, yet with a sense of moral equity. One night while she is telling her fortune over the cards, in a dim corner of the amusement cafe, a man of the upper world enters. He makes her regular proposition, during the course of the evening. As a result she is transported from the field reeking atmosphere of the "joint" to a luxurious home on Fifth avenue where she is carefully fashioned into a lady. Later she rebels against the man's schemes and returns to the common life, but in the end is again rescued by the same man who has just realized that he wants her for himself and because he loves her. The play is a high colored, dramatic creation with Dorothy Dalton at her best.
