Buy Liberty Bonds

It is an erroneous idea which would infect talk of sacrifice into the Liberty bond campaign, the second of the present war.

Every successful issue of Liberty bonds brings us nearer to victory. We should not give Germany any ground for hope.

Notable Birthdays. October 13. Major General Thomas H. Barry, U. S. A., who is in command of Camp Grant, Rockford, Ill., celebrates his 62nd birthday anniversary today.

Looking for a Market. It will be somewhat surprising to the local citizenship to learn that but a short distance away, in the territory adjacent to the Carolina, Clinchfield and Ohio railway, produce raisers are looking for buyers, and unless a market is furnished in quick order thousands of dollars in perishable foodstuffs will be wasted.

Notes and Comments. Have you bought your Liberty bond? It is the price of freedom.

That the women of Buncombe county will enthusiastically register in the Food and Fuel Conservation campaign may be taken for granted.

So sure is General Haig of his opponents that he has now reached the point where he can afford to postpone operations when it rains.

When you buy a Liberty bond you are making the safest investment known to the financial world. It is also a profitable investment.

Every successful issue of Liberty bonds brings us nearer to victory. We should not give Germany any ground for hope.

THE SCISSORS ROUTE. Books For The Soldiers. (Christian Science Monitor.) The object of the "war library week" campaign, now being waged throughout the United States, under the direction of a committee appointed by the secretary of war, and with the approval and assistance of President Wilson, appeals strongly to the thoughtful citizen.

Not very hard to pick one out of Cooper's tremendous stock of suits and overcoats. No, not even as hard as picking the winner of the war.

Ever give us a look? Ever see our shop on Saturday? Judging the way we hand 'em out it reminds one of an auction sale.

Come in today and see what selling clothing means—and why they flock here. Cooper's "On the Square."

SCHOOL TEACHERS TO MEET THIS MORNING. School teachers of the county committeemen appointed in the school districts, and all others interested in the food and fuel conservation campaign soon to be started, will meet at 11 o'clock, this morning, at 11 o'clock.

TRAVELING MEN WILL AID FOOD CAMPAIGN. At the regular meeting of the United Commercial Travelers tonight, letters will be read from the food administrator seeking the co-operation of the traveling men.

NEGATIVE WINS IN THE ATHENEAN DEBATE. In a story published in the October American Magazine, one of the characters says: "The only reason we're put into the arena of life, gal, is because the Master Sherman wants to give us a tryout; see how we do our trick, and how we take our applause."
