AN ORDINANCE.

WHEREAS, under the provisions of Chapter 383, Private Laws 1911, the Board of Commissioners passed a resolution on the 26th day of October, 1917, ordering the improvements of the following streets and alleys or portions thereof, to-wit:

WHEREAS, the resolution ordering the said improvements has directed that the same shall consist of constructing the surface of said streets and alleys or portions thereof, and in some cases of constructing or reconstructing curbs, gutters and drains as well as drainage of the surface of all said improvements to be of sheet asphalt laid on a solid foundation, or of concrete not less than six inches thick; and

WHEREAS at least one-fourth of the cost of each and all of said improvements shall be assessed against the property benefited thereby; and

WHEREAS the City Engineer has reported his estimate of the cost of said improvements and the incidental expenses in connection therewith, from which it appears that the cost thereof, exclusive of the cost of such improvements to be made by the street railway or railroad companies, shall be approximately the sum of Twenty-seven Thousand Eight Hundred Sixty-Six and 47-100 ($27,866.47) Dollars; and

WHEREAS it is deemed by the Board of Commissioners to the advantage of the citizens and taxpayers of the City to provide for the payment of the cost of the foregoing improvements from the proceeds of the issue of $250,000 street bonds authorized by an ordinance passed May 28, 1917; and Company, Carolina Avenue—From the City Line south to a point ten feet north of the present North Line of Dortch Avenue.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT ORDAINED by the Board of Commissioners of the City of Asheville:

coupon bonds of the City of Asheville be issued in a sum not exceeding the principal amount of One Hundred Twenty-Seven Thousand ($127,000.00) Dollars, bearing interest at a rate not exceeding six per cent. per annum and maturing within the maximum period of twenty years, for the purpose of providing funds for the payment of the cost of the improvements of the following streets and alleys or portions thereof, heretofore provided by resolution, to-wit:

BAD DECLINE ON N. Y. MARKET.

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—Stocks experienced their worst decline of the year today, falling 1 1/2 to 2 points on revival of liquidation, provoked largely by the latest political crisis in Russia.

War flotations were heaviest features of the bond market. The Liberty 4's held at par, but the 5's fell from 99.82 to the new low quotation of 98.28.

the principal and interest of such bonds as the same fall due, and as additional security for the payment thereof there shall be and hereby is pledged to such payment all assessments made for all of the improvements forth in the amended Section 1 of this ordinance, which shall hereafter be collected, and such assessments, when collected, shall be placed in a special fund and be used for no other purpose than for the payment of such interest and principal.

Section 4. That this ordinance shall take effect upon its passage and shall not be submitted to the voters. I move the adoption of the foregoing ordinance, this the 31st day of October, 1917.

D. HIDDEN RAMSEY, Commissioner.

MARCUS ERWIN, Corporation Counsel.

By virtue of the power of sale contained in a deed of trust, executed on the 20th day of September, 1915, by Elizabeth Taylor (widow), to Joseph F. Ford, Trustee, to secure the indebtedness therein described to George H. Thrall, which said deed of trust is duly recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds for Buncombe County, North Carolina, in Book of Deeds of Trust No. 37, page 313, and defect having been made in the payment of both principal and interest on the note secured by said deed of trust, and upon application and demand of the holder of said note, the undersigned Trustee will, on Monday, the 27th day of December, 1917, at 12 o'clock noon, offer for sale at the Court House Door in the City of Asheville, said County and State, to the highest bidder, for cash, the following piece, parcel or lot of land, situated, lying and being in the City of Asheville, County of Buncombe and State of North Carolina, in the second ward, part of Doubleday addition to Asheville, and more particularly bounded and described as follows:

BEGINNING on a stake in the Northern margin of Hillside Street, 66 1-2 feet South 71 degrees 8 minutes West from the intersection of said margin of Hillside Street, with the Western margin of Center Street, 146.5 feet to the BEGINNING, and being the same land described in a certain deed from Charles G. Henninger and wife, Ethel Henninger, to E. M. Lyda, dated December 10th, 1915; and being the same land described in a deed from E. M. Lyda and wife to Elizabeth Taylor, dated the 18th day of December, 1915, and recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds for Buncombe County, North Carolina, in Book 184, page 178; reference to which said deeds is hereby made for a more perfect description of the land herein conveyed.

This the 2nd day of November, 1917. JOSEPH F. FORD, Trustee.

CHICAGO MARKETS. CHICAGO, Nov. 8.—Corn underwent a decided setback in value today largely as a result of Kentucky's crop and of Russian peace talk. The market closed nervous at losses of 1 1/2 to 2 1/2c, net with December 1.16 1/2 and 1.15 1/2 to 1.12 1/2.

CHICAGO MARKETS.

NEW ORLEANS COTTON. NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 8.—Bulges in early cotton trading today were succeeded by slumps and tedium as the decline was more sensational than the trading at the advance. The small ginning returns caused improvement in values and the Russian news resulted in the trading at the advance. Net changes for the day were insignificant, active months standing on the close 4 points higher to 14 points lower than yesterday's last prices.

LIVERPOOL COTTON. LIVERPOOL, Nov. 8.—Cotton spot in fair demand, prices easier; good middling 21.85; middling 21.35; low middling 20.75; good ordinary 19.75; ordinary 18.25. Sales 4,000 bales, including 3,800 American. Receipts 55,000 bales, including 48,000 American. Futures closed quiet. New contracts:

NEW YORK DRY GOODS. NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—Cotton goods and yarns were firm. Wide assortment quiet. Blankets were scarce. Raw silk was quiet and unchanged. Knit goods were in demand.
