Newton

NEWTON, Sept. 29.—Miss Kathleen Bacon was hostess to the members of the sophomore and freshman classes of Catawba college at her home on North Main street Thursday evening from 9 till 11:30 o'clock. The home was artistically decorated in golden red and potted plants. The hostess was assisted in receiving by her mother, Mrs. W. E. Bacon, and sister, Miss Elizabeth Bacon. Punch was served as the guests arrived. Progressive conversation and other games were indulged in by the young folks. Assisted by Miss Kathryn Wilson the hostess served ice cream, cake and mints. About forty young people were present at this most delightful affair. Mrs. W. F. Rader was hostess to the members of the Ladies' Aid society of the First Presbyterian church at her home in South Newton Monday afternoon. The subject discussed was "Japan," papers being read by Mrs. W. E. Gathier, Mrs. R. M. Knox and Mrs. J. Albert Gathier. A vocal solo, "God Save Our Boys on Land, Sea and in Air," was delightfully rendered by Mrs. J. A. Gathier. Refreshments were served by Mrs. W. E. Bacon, this week. Mrs. Gellinas is en route home from Blowing Rock, where she spent the summer. Mrs. Dorothy Ervin has received instructions from the war department to report at Camp Hancock, Augusta, Ga., where she will go into training for nurse. Miss Ervin will leave next Tuesday. Mesdames John M. Wagner and Ralph Corpening and children went to Statesville Tuesday to see John Robinson's circus. Others going from here were R. R. Moore, D. A. Rutledge, Forest Schum, J. O. Gilbert, W. B. Hargett, H. H. Lowrey, Dr. J. R. Campbell, Eli Smyre, G. Otto Hartsoe, Ralph Corpening and a number of others. Saturday morning a large number of the relatives and friends of the Witherspoon family gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Witherspoon to celebrate the first reunion of the Witherspoon family. There were about sixty-five of the grandchildren and children present. Among those attending besides the relatives and neighbors of the community were Mrs. W. Witherspoon and family, of Hickory; Miles Witherspoon and family of Cherryville; Lee Anthony and family, of Bessemer City; Moses Witherspoon and Charles Witherspoon and family of Bessemer City; H. E. Witherspoon, of Cleveland. After an hour of social chat dinner was spread on the large table where a good southern dinner was enjoyed by all present. Several boxes of cake were taken up and sent to soldier boys at Camp Jackson and Camp Sevier. Miss Mary Yount left Thursday for Statesville, where she will spend some time with her brother, Horace Yount, and sister, Mrs. Henkel. Mr. H. E. Rowe and daughter, Miss Myrtle Smyre Rowe, left Friday for Camp Greenleaf, to spend a few days with Dr. H. E. Rowe.

Lindsey and daughter, Miss Mary Lindsey, left for Atlanta, Ga., last Tuesday. Miss Mary will enter school there, while the mother will visit relatives for a few days. Word has been received from Richard Ballenger, in the aviation corps in France, that he has been detailed for instruction work behind the lines. "Dick" has won an enviable reputation for cleverness as a pilot and for never having had an accident to his machine. Mr. Anson Merrick, of Washington, D. C., connected with the DuPont Powder corporation, after a short visit with his wife at this place, has left for a business trip to Nashville. A merry house party spent the week-end at the Lucy Retter bungalow, at Mimosas, consisting of Mr. and Mrs. N. Jackson and daughters, Miss Genevieve and Marjorie, Mrs. Sawyer, Miss Sawyer and Mr. Julius Sawyer and Mr. W. H. Stearns. Mr. M. Georlion and Miss Eliza Abrams were married at Hillcrest in the late last Sunday afternoon by Rev. G. E. Kidd. Mr. Georlion is a native of France, but has resided in Polk county for quite a while. Miss Abrams is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Abrams, of Green's Creek township. Miss Dorothy Doubleday, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Doubleday, of Tryon, was married last Saturday to Mr. Paul Curran Smith, of Peoria, Ill. Rev. Mr. H. Norwood Bowne, of Bltmore, performed the ceremony. The ceremony took place at Holy Cross Episcopal church, which was tastefully decorated with wild flowers, which grow in such profusion at this time of the year. The couple will make their future home in Peoria.
