Following the news of the marriage of Miss Helen Jones, of Swannanoa, and Mr. Charles V. Westall, of Asheville, the following detailed account of the wedding which occurred in Charlotte is taken from The Charlotte Observer and will be of much interest to friends and relatives of the bride and groom in this city and vicinity:

"In a ceremony characterized by beauty and simplicity Miss Helen Jones, of Swannanoa, and Mr. Charles Vernon Westall, of Asheville, were wedded in this city Thursday evening at 8 o'clock. F. Yount, of Camp Greene, officiated.

vows were spoken in the private parlor at the Selwyn hotel. The decorations consisted of potted palms and ferns and a profusion of white chrysanthemums. Cathedral candlesticks, draped in white and entwined with ivy, held burning tapers.

Little Miss Blanche Larzere, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Larzere, the former manager of the Selwyn hotel, was the only attendant. She wore a dainty handmade frock of white organdy and light blue sash and hair bow and carried the ring on a silver tray.

"The bride was strikingly pretty in her wedding gown of white georgette and arm bouquet of bride roses and maiden-hair ferns.

The ceremony was attended by a few relatives and friends. The bride and bridegroom knelt on a white satin cushion to receive the benediction.

"Mrs. Westall is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Jones, of Swannanoa, and is a tall handsome brunette with charming, winning personality. She was educated in Baltimore and is a bright and accomplished young woman and is admired by a host of friends.

"Mr. Westall is the younger son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Westall, of Asheville. Prior to enlisting in the army he was associated with his father in the lumber firm of W. H. Westall and company. He was one of Asheville's most prominent and successful young men and commands a wide circle of friends. He is stationed at Camp Greene, being a member of developing battalion No. 1.

"Mrs. Westall, mother of Mr. Westall, was present at the marriage. She has been spending the greater part of the fall in the city in order to be near her son. "The announcement of the marriage will be of interest to the host of friends of the young couple in western North Carolina."

Miss Chloe Shankle and Sergeant Edgar W. Betts, both of Albemarle, were married yesterday evening at 7 o'clock at the parsonage of the Haywood Street Methodist church, Rev. O. P. Ador, pastor of the church officiating. Friends of the bride and groom who were present at the ceremony were Miss Mary Fountain of Albemarle and Mr. R. F. Satterfield of Greensboro.

Captain and Mrs. Charles Jordan, Mrs. Paul Ringer and Mr. W. Vance Brown returned the middle of the week from a camping trip at Mr. Brown's cabin which is near Black Mountain, on the North Fork.

Mrs. James M. Gudger, Jr., chairman of the Women's division of the United War Work campaign which is to be held on November 25, in a whirlwind campaign, from 7 to 9 o'clock, requests that the presidents of all the women's organizations in the city and presidents of all the women's clubs will meet at the Y. M. C. A. building on Haywood street at 8 o'clock Wednesday, November 20, at which time Mr. M. A. Brakine, city chairman of the drive, will outline the plan to be used on the 25th. These women have already pledged themselves for volunteer service and it is very important that they be present at this meeting that they may instruct their individual organizations and clubs.

Mrs. Henry W. Hoagland entertained informally Friday afternoon with a tea at her home in Grove Park for the officers' wives who are stationed at the army hospitals here.

The Asheville Canteen department of the Red Cross will entertain next week for the nurses, patients and soldiers at the General Hospital, number twelve, at Kenilworth, with a keno party. The party will be given on the afternoon of Thanksgiving day and will start at 3 o'clock. Mrs. Thomas S. Rollins, who is at the head of the canteen work here, is in charge of arrangements for this occasion and is being ably assisted by other canteen workers. There are some seventy matrons and girls who have been actively engaged in this department of the Red Cross and these will go out by motor and take part in the keno party, taking with them delicious refreshments to be served following the game. A number of handsome prizes have been contributed for this occasion and the event promises to be popular and successful. Deep interest is felt by everyone in Asheville in the happiness and welfare of the patients in the military hospitals in this vicinity and much has been done for their entertainment and pleasure. It is thought that the keno party will add greatly to the Thanksgiving day celebrations at Kenilworth and that the convalescent among the patients will find it a delightful social diversion.

The engagement of Miss Julia Ashely, of St. Petersburg, Fla., to Mr. Edgar Latham, of Hendersonville, has been announced. Miss Ashely has been spending the summer and autumn with Miss Ruth Wooten, of Hendersonville, and a group of the friends of the bride-elect are planning a series of pre-nuptial entertainments for her.

The meeting of the Women's club, which was to have been held with Mrs. James M. Gudger, Jr., at her home on French Broad avenue, Monday afternoon will be postponed again on account of the quarantine.

Lieutenant Richard Loughran will return this afternoon to Greenville, S. C., after spending the week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Loughran, at their home on Broadway.

Mrs. Ellen Rice Clough returned Saturday evening to her home on Montford avenue, after spending several days with friends at Esmeralda inn, at Chimney Rock.

Mr. William M. Clarke, of 253 South French Broad avenue, left Friday for Charleston, S. C., where he goes to spend between the ordinary and the distinctive prompts the well-dressed man or woman to wear only tailor-made clothes.

Present high prices of ready-to-wear garments add the further inducement that there is now but slight difference in the cost of the two.

We are ready to measure you for suits or coats from the new woolsens.

Smart Suits, Coats and Dresses

What gift could be more practical or useful than one from the Department of Ready-to-Wear?

The special sales now on will enable you to give something much handsomer than you ordinarily could for the count you decide to spend.

Suits and Coats are generously reduced. Dresses specially priced at $15.75 to $29.50—all sizes.

In this department, too, we would suggest furs, sport skirts, raincoats, silk petticoats, negligees and bath robes, boudoir slippers and caps, etc.

The National Council of Defense doesn't want us to prolong our store hours nor employ extra salespeople to serve you at Christmas time. Early shopping is urged. DON'T wait until you usually start to buy your Christmas gifts! Start NOW, while you can make your selections leisurely from full and complete stocks!

Every department of our store has attractive suggestions to make in gifts that are useful and approved by the Government and by the recipients!

Adirondack Clothing for Sleeping or Sitting Out

Anyone who is out of doors a great deal, whether on account of illness or vacation, will appreciate a gift from this department.
