GROVE PARK BUS UPSET IN SMASH WITH CYCLE

Motorcycle and Turned Heavy Vehicle Into Rock Wall

In a peculiar accident on Macon and Howland roads yesterday at about o'clock, the hig bus of the Grove Park inn was overturned and damaged to the extent of about $500, while a motorcycle driven by Ascol Wilson was damaged about $40 worth. Both parties are charged with carelesaners, while Wilson is also sharged with reckless driving.

Witnesses stated that both vehi-cles were going toward Grove Park inn when Wilson tried to drive past the bus. There was not room enough. and when J H. Henaley, driver of the bus, saw that he had struck the mo-torcycle, he turned his machine hastily aside, raming a rock wall and turn-ing the vehicle over. Fortunately no one was seriously injured. It is stat-ed that both parties were on the wrong side of the road.

STYLE HEADQUARTERS Where Society Brand Clothes are sold

"Shop Early," Says Uncle Sam

T always was good judgment to "do your Christmas shopping early" and always an act of cooperation appreciated by salespeople and merchants.

This year it's all that and a government injunction besides to make your Christmas purchases early-it means patriotic assistance in a time when help is scarce.

As for gitts, you'll find in this store useful and desirable ones-latest styles in practical things, neckwear, handkerchiefs, stockings and other men's wear.

This is "Style Headquarters"—where Society Brand Clothes are exclusively sold in Asheville.

You are sure to be pleased with a Christmas present selected here.
