

CONTRACTS PROBE PROVES FAILURE

Investigation a Disappointment to Republicans.

Garrett's Minority Report Praises Record of the War Department.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 21.—Republicans are sorely disappointed in the investigation of war contracts by the Graham committee...

The committee majority report meant nothing but a desire on the part of the republicans to investigate in a vague and uncertain state...

After six months of work the Graham investigating committee, instituted by the republican steering committee...

Representative Garrett submitted a minority report praising the remarkable record of the war department in handling the thousands of contracts...

In hundreds of cases the character of the institutions had been changed by reason of the war contracts...

Involved Laboring Men.

This statement was made with particular reference to the charge of the republicans that the articles had increased in market value after the settlements...

Reading Over Country. For months past the Graham committee has ridden over the country...

In its final report, mentioning eight transactions which, in the language of the committee report, "seem to have been obviously tainted with fraud..."

Speaking in support of his minority report, Representative Garrett showed that in the particular cases which invoked criticism...

"I wish to say to you, Mr. Speaker, that those honorable gentlemen with whom I have been associated in this grueling work...

"They have done everything they can. If there were anything there they would have found it. The war department has been raked from end to end as with a fine-tooth comb..."

"Give them an opportunity, sir! They are able men, give them an opportunity to go at something that is constructive and maybe they will be able to pull that side into performing something in these critical times for the good of the republic..."

"I resent the imputation of fraud contained in this report. I resent it in the name of my party, one of whose members happens to have been the secretary of war throughout these grueling years of war..."

RUTHERFORDTON AFTER BETTER TRAIN SCHEDULE

Dennis Loyelace, Sentenced to Electrocutation, Loses His Appeal.

(Special to The Citizen) RUTHERFORDTON, Dec. 21.—According to a Shelby dispatch to the Greensboro Daily News...

The Rutherfordton citizens are anxious for this train to be held two hours in order to give them better mail and passenger facilities...

THREE MEMBERS OF FAMILY BENEFITED

Jackson Gains 12 Pounds By Taking Tanlac—Wife and Father Are Also Relieved of Their Troubles.

"Tanlac soon ended my troubles and I gained twelve pounds by taking it," said W. E. Jackson, of 724 North 41st street, Birmingham, Ala.

"I work at night," he continued, "and eating at unusual hours gave me indigestion. My food would sour on my stomach and I suffered terribly after every meal. I lost weight and became so nervous I couldn't sleep hardly at all. Smoking too aggravated my trouble and I had to quit it. I felt all down and out and was miserable all the time. I tried every thing I could hear of, but got no better and was just about to give up, when I read about Tanlac helping someone having the same trouble that was worrying me."

"I felt better right after starting on it and improved so much that I was able to enjoy my pipe again and get restful sleep. My appetite is now fine and I can eat anything I want and I am not nervous and all unstrung like I was before. I believe I am in better shape today than in seven years. My father, too, was benefited a whole lot by taking Tanlac; my wife took two bottles and it helped her more than anything she has ever taken. I will never fail to recommend Tanlac to anybody I see suffering from stomach trouble."

Tanlac is sold by all good druggists. Adv.

THEATRICAL

Opening his offering at the Majestic with "Madame Pili", Bob Shaw will present a clever bill showing his vaudeville artists sure to please. The company has won many laurels in vaudeville circles of the south and includes in its repertoire such entitled numbers as "The Girl from the Movies", and "The Beautiful Isle of Love", which will be shown during the holiday week engagement.

Harry Morris stars for the troupe with his laugh producing Hebrew repertoire in which he has gained an enviable reputation wholly justifiable. Word of his repeated successes in southern circuits has reached this city from many points, and those who appreciate clean but uproarious comedy should see Harry in action.

Beckridge and Francher in songs and dance are billed for a number of pleasing turns, and those who enjoy the team of Gordon and Berry are scheduled to provide a "little of nothing" so elastic is their range upon the boards.

Centric harmony is promised aplenty when the Blue Ridge four assemble before the footlights in a novel costume, their singing being a feature of the performance, sure to please. In Irish roles Bob Shaw guarantees jest and mirth that is of a calibre consistent with the reputation he has gained in stageland.

With piano-accompaniment the Venetian Duo has in store abundant harmony of the kind that the audience likes, combining a little of classical with modern and jazz turns in a well balanced program.

It is little wonder that the serial now really being talked about upon the streets is that showing every Monday and Tuesday at the Majestic, for Big Jim Corbett in "The Midnight Man" sets a new record for daring action and gripping situations. No one should miss the comic episode.

Matinee, 3:30; night 7:30 and 9.

ularity of "Captain Dieppe" led Mr. Hope to dramatize it and the stage play was produced, both here and abroad. Recently the story was made into a scenario and under the title of "An Adventure in Hearts," it will be shown at the Strand theatre...

With this dual role, that of the struggling young artists in Paris and then as the well-to-do American girl in New York, Miss Reed is said to offer the most powerful work of her career, and in fact that talented star is reported to have said of "Her Code of Honor" that it is the best picture she has ever made.

The cast presents unusual strength with William Desmond, himself a star, leading the support, which includes also Robert Frazer, Irving Cummings, Marcelle Roussillon and Alec Francis.

AT THE STRAND. Robert Warwick in "An Adventure in Hearts." Briggs comedy, "City Dude."

Anthony Hope's exciting romantic story, "Captain Dieppe," has reached the movies. First published as a novel, the adventures of the dashing young secret agent proved a worthy companion of the author's earlier book, "The Prisoner of Zenda," which was the starting point of a flood of pseudo-historical literature. The popularity of "Captain Dieppe" led Mr. Hope to dramatize it and the stage play was produced, both here and abroad.

Recently the story was made into a scenario and under the title of "An Adventure in Hearts," it will be shown at the Strand theatre in the starring role.

The picture tells an entertaining yarn of adventure, love and plenty of excitement in a nobleman's castle in northern Italy. The hero is a sort of d'Artagnan, escaping from the agents of a government that has agreed to pay him for a hazardous task which he accomplished and which it is anxious to keep secret.

Mr. Warwick is said to be ideally cast. He is supported by Juan de la Cruz, Winifred Greenwood, Helene Chadwick and others. The picture is a Paramount-Artcraft and was directed by James Cruze.
