AT THE STRAND.

On Monday and Tuesday, Constance Talmadge in "A Virtuous Vamp," and a Briggs comedy entitled, "Photograph Gallery."

On Wednesday and Thursday, Nazimova in "Toys of Fate," with a comedy, "Sea Sirens."

On Friday and Saturday star cast in "Scarlet Days," and Paramount Magazine.

The latest Constance Talmadge production, "A Virtuous Vamp," by John Emerson and Anita Loos, will be seen at the Strand on Monday and Tuesday. In this production Miss Talmadge takes the part of a girl whose winning smile and coquettish habits involve her in all manner of ludicrous escapades until she finds the one man who is proof against her wiles. The play is an adaptation from "The Bachelor" by Clyde Fitch.

Nazimova, the celebrated star, plays the role of a gypsy princess, with the fiery, untrammeled nature of that picturesque race. In "Toys of Fate," a screen classic's superfeature love and hate are almost equally developed in the gypsy girl Azah, who is made the instrument of fate to bring to justice Bruce Griswold, a millionaire. Her life in the gypsy encampment, and in the caravan of her tribe, is depicted in a fascinating manner, and gypsy rites and customs are reproduced.

D. W. Griffith's new picture production, "Scarlet Days," is a story of California in the gold rush days of '49. It is based largely upon historical facts, as the central figure, called Alvarez in the film, is really Joaquin Murietta, a sort of Robin Hood of the west who used to roam the highways robbing the rich and giving to the poor. Around this chivalrous desperado, Mr. Griffith has woven a story said to furnish plenty of thrills and heart interest.

AT THE GALAX.

On Monday and Tuesday, all-star cast in "The Girl From Outside," and Burton Holmes Travelogue.

On Wednesday, Bessie Love in "Pegeen," with Pathe News.

On Thursday and Friday, Theda Bara in "Lure of Ambition," with a comedy, "Three Hours Late."

On Saturday, William Desmond in "Blue Bandana," and Pathe News.

Rex Beach's best and most powerful photoplay, "The Girl From Outside," comes to the Galax on Monday and Tuesday. With the frozen trails of Alaska as his colorful background, Mr. Beach has woven a tale of tremendous power that will thrill and absorb. A splendid casting includes Clara Horton, Cullen Landis, Sydney Ainsworth, Hallam Cooley, Wilton Taylor and many others.

"Pegeen," with Bessie Love in the title role, will be the feature attraction at the Galax on Wednesday. Miss Love appears as Pegeen O'Neill, a wisp of a little Irish girl who delights in bringing happiness to others. She succeeds among other things, in bringing about the engagement of two persons. Incidentally, the girl finds a romance for herself.

"Lure of Ambition," the new Theda Bara super-production will be seen at the Galax on Thursday and Friday. The dramatic nature of the story and the wonderful interpretation of the character of Olga Dolan, the heroine, by Miss Bara, have combined to make this engagement a triumph.

"The Blue Bandana," with William Desmond in the leading role is to be seen at the Galax on Saturday. This is a story of the west as Jerry Jerome (Desmond), a young New York millionaire, found it. Desmond was never better than in this role, and that is saying a lot, for the genial William has had some splendid mediums for his talent in his recent productions.

"THE LOVE DOCTOR." The story of "The Love Doctor" which will be the attraction at the Auditorium New Year's night, January 1 is as follows: Proctor Kirk, a retired millionaire soap maker, of Cincinnati, moves to New York in the hope of entering the most exclusive society and thereby marrying off his two daughters and upward son to aristocrats. He is also accompanied by his widowed sister, Mrs. Annabelle Pettinill-Foot.

Society refuses to accept either her or his family and at the beginning of the play he is preparing to make one final effort to gain social recognition by giving a big reception. If this fails he is going to move back to Cincinnati.

His son, Harry, is a dissipated young rake who has finally worn out his father's patience and has been told that the next escapade of his will be the last as he will be disinherited.

At the opening of the play Proctor Kirk has just received regrets from all the social leaders that they cannot attend the reception. He is also in a rage about the fact that his son has been in an orgy at a local cafe and the papers are full of it.

Harry, while intoxicated the night before, brings home a sign painter by the name of Joe Dokes and the two have slept in the same bed. When Harry awakes the next morning he cannot remember the stranger in bed beside him. He has the happy inspiration to introduce the sign painter as Prince Ottoman, known in Europe as "The Love Doctor" where he has been a social sensation. Old man Kirk falls for the deception and thinks he will have all society at his feet by being the first one to introduce "The Love Doctor." He announces in the local papers that the celebrated love doctor will attend his reception and lecture on his new theories of "love mating."

The real "Love Doctor" finally appears on the scene and the complications are fast and furious. In the end, Joe Dokes, captures the heart and hand of Proctor Kirk's sister, Mrs. Annabelle, Pettinill-Foot and all ends happily.
