Hall, prohibition inspector, charged with the killing of Hudson on March 27, and his companion, Raymond Shackelford, were recently wounded by prohibition agents while driving an automobile loaded with whiskey on the valley turnpike, near Winchester, Va.

AMERICANIZATION BEGINS AT HOME WITH THE MOTHER

The Women With the Shawl Over Her Head Is Coming Into Her Own—Teacher and Pupil of Same Race Give the Best Results.

By LILLY LYKES ROWE. The woman with the shawl over her head is the real center of interest and attention in Americanization. At the great Americanization conference held in Washington last summer under the auspices of the Bureau of Education, the plain American woman, she received careful consideration. It is true that much of the work of the conference dealt with technical and philosophical aspects of the Americanization movement.

THE HOME TEACHER

"It would seem advisable for our high schools, normal schools and colleges specifically to train their immigrant girl students to become home teachers in the colonies of their respective nationalities. Their duty would be to visit the immigrant homes, talk with the mothers, tell them how to rear their children, how to care for the family health, how to prepare the home, how to work in the home garden, how to use a press, and they should organize among their recreation facilities, reading circles, amateur theatricals, and other amusements. The home teacher should be attached to the teaching staff of the local public schools."
