

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE HOLDS ANNUAL BANQUET

Big Reward Offered for the Capture of Kohler Holsclaw.

(Special to The Citizen) HICKORY, Jan. 4.—The annual banquet of the Hickory chamber of commerce will be held at Hotel Hurty on Thursday night, January 16, it was announced today by President J. D. Elliott and Secretary A. K. Jop.

There are exceptions of course but the people generally are desirous of aiding, he says, and there is a widespread desire to get away from the present scheme.

Sheriff John A. Izenhower, who has been this week, reports having collected more than $130,000 of the $160,000 in taxes charged against him, and believes that the remaining amount will not be hard to obtain.

Although rewards aggregating $800 have been offered for the capture of Kohler Holsclaw, no trace has been found of the young farmer who shot and killed John Gabriel at a store at Terrell, this county, last Monday.

Details of the homicide have reached Hickory. It seems that a letter written by Miss Margie Lockman last Sunday night in which she declared that Holsclaw's attentions were no longer welcome prompted him to seek out Gabriel and shoot him.

Holsclaw fired one shot from an automatic pistol into Gabriel's forehead as the latter raised up after cranking his car and shot the second time when the man was on the ground.

The last shot also went into the forehead. Holsclaw then jumped on his horse, rode home, kissed his mother good-bye and rowed across the river in a boat. He has not been seen since.

LARGE CONFERENCE WILL OPEN IN ATLANTIC CITY

Over 1,000 to Attend Meeting of Interchurch World Movement.

(Special to The Citizen) ATLANTA, January 6.—Scores of church leaders, including the outstanding figures in the religious life of the south, will leave Monday for Atlantic City to attend the national conference called by the Interchurch World movement, which is to convene on January 7, for a session of three days.

The conference is expected to outline the next six months' work to be undertaken by the Interchurch World movement and to plan for the cooperation of the Christian forces of America in the mighty drive of the christianization of the world.

Conference sessions will be held on the steel pier. In the large auditorium, one floor of the auditorium has been set aside for the general meetings, while another will be devoted to the exhibits of various departments of the movement.

There will be few formal addresses at the conference, for most of the work to be undertaken will be accomplished in committees appointed on the various phases of the work.

A thousand delegates are expected to be present. These have been officially chosen by the various boards and other agencies of the evangelical denominations co-operating with the Interchurch World movement.

The meeting will conclude on Saturday, and will be followed on Sunday and Monday by sessions of denominational group leaders. On Monday afternoon there will be the Interchurch dinner, which takes the place of the annual dinner of the Missionary Educational movement which is now merged in the movement.

Hair dyes are unknown among Chinese women as their hair is uniformly black, becoming gray only in extreme old age.

MARKET NEWS

LOW RATIO OF RESERVES A FACTOR ON THE MARKET

Money Market Provides Only Encouragement During the Session.

NEW YORK, Jan. 5.—The low ratio of reserves reported by the federal reserve bank, another supreme court decision sustaining war-time prohibition, progress of the railroad bill in the senate and ease of demand loans, copitated the main factors of today's irregular stock market.

Of these conflicting influences, the only encouragement was provided by the money market. On the large cash inflow from interior points, all loans opened at 10 per cent, the lowest initial rate in weeks, falling to 6 per cent in the final hours.

Failure of the supreme court to act on the Macomber tax case was a source of disappointment and contributed to the sharp setback of prices after their temporary recovery from lowest quotations of the mid-session.

Steel, oils and motors were singled out for bear pressure with quotas, tobaccos, shippings and several of the high-priced specialties, which featured last week's rally, notably American Woolen, International Paper, American International and Baldwin Locomotive.

Unusual activity in foreign issues, through an advance of a point in United Kingdoms of 1927, was the chief feature of the dull but diversified bond market, the Liberty group displaying moderate strength. Steel values were unaltered on call.

RENEWAL OF STRENGTH ON THE COTTON MARKET

Prices Make New High Ground For Movement In Early Trading.

NEW YORK, Jan. 5.—The cotton market showed renewed strength and activity during today's early trading with prices making new high ground for the movement. March contracts sold up to 37.25, or 18 points above Saturday's closing and within 5 points of the high record established early last November.

Reactions followed which carried March off to 36.50, or 20 points net lower, but there were rallies later of covering and renewed trading buying with March closing at 36.82, and with the general list closing steady at a net advance of 8 to 77 points, late months being relatively firm.

The market opened firm at an advance of 20 to 24 points in response to the firm showing of Liverpool. Houses with Liverpool connections and other foreign trade interests were good buyers of the late months, including October while there was covering by near months shorts with January selling at 36.70, making a net high record for that position, and July 33.90, or sixty-six points net higher. October advanced to 36.82, making a net gain of 91 points or nearly a cent point. There was a good deal of southern selling, which was supposed to represent liquidation of hedge against an increased spot business and after the close of Liverpool, the buying here became sharper, which rendered the market more sensitive to reactionary sentiment around the ring and price of cotton rather than during the middle of the day. January reacted to 36.15 and July to 33.35, but October was better sustained and there was a closing rally of 26 to 40 points from the lowest. Private cables said the strength of Liverpool was due to an accumulation of buyers' orders from all quarters over the holidays, and the late rally here was encouraged by the large exports.

Cotton closed steady.

LIQUIDATION ON COTTON MARKET

NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 5.—After a period of strength in the early trading, the cotton market turned unsettled feeling much liquidation from holders of cotton in early trading, compared with the near months, although the distant portions made a show of holding their own, particularly October, which appeared to be the center of the speculative demand. On the close prices were net unchanged to 60 points higher, January being unchanged, while October was 60 points up. Spot quotations were revised and while the revision favored the seller, the changes in prices indicated the discount on the market, midling being advanced to 41c, while the closing price on January was 35.80.

The opening was higher and the improvement was maintained for sometime on a very strong Liverpool. January rose to 40.00 and the trading months stood 28 to 30 points higher than last week's final prices. In the afternoon there were recoveries which were particularly on October, which month finally went to 37 points, an advance of 79 points. Other months did not quite reach their former high levels, and this irregularity was covered by a move on the close. Pressure on Jan 7) appeared to come largely from long.

Cotton closed steady, unchanged, to 60 points up net.

CHICAGO GRAIN.

CHICAGO, Jan. 5.—Buoyancy developed in the corn market today largely as a result of renewed strength in prices for rye, wheat, oats and hogs. The close was strong, 2 1/2 to 2 3/4c net higher. Oats finished 3/4c to 1c up, provisions gained 1c to 2c.

COTTONSEED OIL.

NEW YORK, Jan. 5.—Short covering and further accumulation for southern account, together with the strength in cotton, were the main reasons for a further advance in cottonseed oil today. Realizing sales cut down early gains 32 to 29 points, but final prices were 19 to 22 points net higher. Sales 23,400 barrels. Tenders, 300. Prime crude, 20.00; prime summer yellow spot, 22.42; March, 22.88; May 23.05; 1920; prime winter yellow and summer white, nominal.
