

REGULATIONS FOR OBTAINING LIQUOR FOR MEDICAL USES

Are Made Public by the Bureau of Internal Revenue.

OFFICIALS COMPILE SYSTEM OF PERMITS

Physicians and Pharmacists May Get Permits From Director.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 29.—Methods by which intoxicating liquors may be obtained for medical purposes...

Both the physician who prescribes and the pharmacist who sells liquor, the regulation provides, must have a permit which may be obtained from the federal prohibition director.

"All prescriptions for intoxicating liquor are requested to be written on prescription blanks provided for the bureau, except that in emergency cases physicians may use their regular prescription blanks."

"Physicians may also obtain permits entitling them to procure not more than six quarts of distilled spirits, wines or certain alcoholic preparations during any calendar year for administration to their patients in emergency cases where delay in procuring liquor on a prescription through a pharmacist might have serious consequences to the patient."

"Provision is also made in the regulations for issuing permits to hospitals and sanatoriums to enable them to procure intoxicating liquor to be administered for medicinal purposes to patients at such institutions and also for issuing permits to manufacturing, industrial and other establishments, maintaining first aid stations, authorizing them to procure such liquor for distribution to their employees for medicinal purposes in emergency cases."

GLASS SETS FORTH TREASURY'S STAND

With Regard to Meeting of Financial Interests.

Does Not Favor Some Phases of International Conference.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 29.—The United States treasury does not look with favor upon certain features of the proposed international conference recently called by a coterie of nationally known financiers and commercial leaders in an effort to lead the world out of the financial and commercial chaos into which it was dragged by the war.

Secretary Glass declared tonight in a letter to a committee of the chamber of commerce of the United States which has sought a government expression on the meeting, that such a conference would serve to cause confusion and revive hopes, doomed to disappointment, of further government loans.

"If the chamber of commerce of the United States (to which were left details of the conference) considers it advisable and desirable to designate representatives to attend an unofficial conference," Mr. Glass said, "the treasury department does not object."

Mr. Glass directs attention to differences which he discovered in the formal call for the conference as issued here and in several foreign countries. The memorials, circulated in Europe, Mr. Glass said, apparently advocated further governmental financial assistance and requested the respective governments to designate representatives to those international meetings which thus would accord in an official character.

Senator Nelson, republican, Minnesota, asked Marsh if there was any alliance between his organization and the Russian soviets to which question a negative reply was made.

WILL GO TO AID OF TWO AVITORS

Permission to Cross Border Is Sought of Mexican Officials.

BROWNSVILLE, TEXAS, Jan. 29.

Several aviators of the eighth aero squadron at McAllen, Texas, tonight were awaiting permission from the Mexican government to cross the international boundary to carry oil and gasoline to Lieutenants E. F. Davis and G. E. Grimes, who made a forced landing 30 miles below the Zapata county, Texas, border, yesterday.

FARMER DELEGATE GRILLED BY SOLONS

Statement on Wall Street Control Results In Spirited Tilt.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 29.—Benjamin C. Marsh, representing the farmers national council, opposing the sale of government-owned ships, in testimony before the senate commerce committee today came in for sharp questioning by committee members when he declared that he represented a considerable proportion of farm organizations which are not controlled by Wall street.

Senator Nelson, republican, Minnesota, asked Marsh if there was any alliance between his organization and the Russian soviets to which question a negative reply was made.

At the beginning of the declaration says that it is incumbent on the Polish government to decide whether or not to make war on Russia.

CONSOLIDATION OF ROADS ADVOCATED

By Hines In Address Before Louisville Club.

Urges the Necessity of a Division of Excess Earnings.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Jan. 29.—Walker D. Hines, director-general of railroads, in an address before the Transportation club here tonight, urged the necessity of a division of excess earnings of railroad corporations above a reasonable return in order to protect the public against excess earnings.

Mr. Hines declared his belief that unless the railroad problem at the present time is dealt with "in a bold and effective way" the return to private management after federal control "will be wholly disappointing."

ANTI-RADICAL BODY IS FORMED IN S. C.

COLUMBIA, S. C., Jan. 29.—Organized effort to combat propaganda of any of the revolutionary forces trying to gain a foothold in South Carolina was begun at a conference held here today when an organization was formed of citizens from various sections of the state, headed by former Governor Richard I. Manning and called by President Henry Nelson Snyder of Wofford college.

MESSAGES MAY BE FROM MARS, NOTED INVENTOR ASSERTS

Communication With Planet "Not Improbable" Says Steinmetz.

ABBOTT SAYS VENUS MAY BE RESPONSIBLE

Marconi Announces Time for Investigating Origin of Sounds.

NEW YORK, Jan. 29.—Wireless communication with Mars is "not at all improbable," Dr. Charles P. Steinmetz, inventor and a leading authority on electric waves and power, declared in a statement here tonight. He said that this could probably be done by the consolidation of all the electric power in the country into one great sending station at the cost of about $1,000,000,000.

Dr. Steinmetz said that the mysterious wireless messages received at the various stations he recorded, were received with the same "edge of intensity" in different parts of the world and were of greater "wave length" than required for "our greatest earth messages."

He added that if Mars was "trying to communicate with this world it is doubtful if it would ever be possible to decipher the code, but it would be satisfaction to know that one planet could send messages to the other and that intelligent beings were inhabiting the planet from which they came."

PROBABLY VENUS

WASHINGTON, Jan. 29.—(By the Associated Press)—If wireless messages are being received on the earth from some other planet, as suggested by William Marconi, it is not Mars sending the signals, but most probably Venus, says Dr. C. G. Abbott, director of the Smithsonian astronomical observatory and assistant secretary of the Smithsonian institution.

The stagger run of traffic becomes effective tomorrow and new regulations were posted today by the welfare department classifying the various business workers to the end that with a change in working hours, the traffic congestion will be eliminated.

SOCIALISTS' VIEWS ON WAR PRESENTED

In Trial of Suspended Assemblymen at Albany.

Party War Program Is Read Into Record By Counsel for Committee.

ALBANY, N. Y., Jan. 29.—An attempt to show the program of the socialist party in its program of "continuous, active and public opposition to the war" was made today by the prosecution at the trial of five unseated socialist assemblymen charged with disloyalty.

Counsel for the assembly judiciary committee conducting the investigation and war program adopted at the St. Louis convention of the socialist party on April 7, 1917, one day after the United States entered the world conflict, in which workers were urged to oppose the war "through demonstrations, mass pickets and all other means within our power."

The prosecution also read into the record denunciations of the war in the "manifestation of rage" caused by the treachery and trickery of the capitalist class through their representatives in congress.

Finally committee counsel brought out that the "anti-sabotage clause" in the party's constitution, of which the prosecution asserted the socialist party had "boasted" had been struck out at the same convention.

HAMBY MAINTAINS HIS COMPOSURE TO LAST HOUR OF LIFE

Murderer and Bandit Walks to Electric Chair Unaided.

"GO AHEAD BOYS" HE TELLS ATTENDANTS

Spends Last Day Reading, Writing and Eating—Is Not Unnerved.

OSHSING, N. Y., Jan. 29.—Gordon Fawcett Hamby, murderer, bank robber and train bandit, whose crime record reached from coast to coast and culminated in the murder of two Brooklyn bank employees in December, 1918, was electrocuted in Sing Sing prison tonight.

Hamby maintained to the last his demeanor from the hour of his arrest in Tacoma, Wash., last June. He refused the offer of the Protestant and Roman Catholic chaplains to accompany him to the chair and walked to his death unaided and with a firm step.

When asked what he wanted for supper, Hamby ordered a lobster salad which he ate heartily. He then proceeded to enjoy some of the cigars and candy which his companions in the death house had furnished him.

Father William E. Cashin, the Roman Catholic chaplain, spent a half hour with the condemned man this afternoon, who did not actually refuse spiritual consolation but requested the priest and Rev. Dr. A. N. Peterson, the Protestant chaplain, not to accompany him in his walk to the chair.

When asked by Father Cashin if he had any message for the youth of the country, Hamby said: "I don't wish to appear in the light of a moralist, but you can tell them for me never to start doing wrong. Once you get started in crime you can never stop."

Arrested in Tacoma. Gordon Fawcett Hamby, the bandit who today expiated his crimes in the death chair, was arrested in Tacoma, Wash., last June under the name of "Jay B. Allen," after killing a man there in a revolver fight. He was later identified as one of the two robbers who, on December 28, 1918, held up the East Brooklyn banking house after killing two of its employees, escaped in an automobile with $12,000.

Extradited from New York and tried for this crime Hamby stood revealed as a self-confessed participant in the robbery of thirteen banks and two trains last June under the name of "Jay B. Allen," after killing a man there in a revolver fight. He was later identified as one of the two robbers who, on December 28, 1918, held up the East Brooklyn banking house after killing two of its employees, escaped in an automobile with $12,000.

of the supreme executive committee of the soviet. Further, it declares, there is no territorial, economic or other questions which cannot be solved peacefully by negotiation, concessions and mutual agreements, such as are now being arranged with Estonia.

RELEASE SOUGHT WASHINGTON, Jan. 29.—Request for the release of the four American Red Cross workers recently captured by the bolsheviks in Siberia already has been forwarded to the Russian soviet authorities through the Czech Red Cross headquarters, was informed today by representatives in Vladivostok in a cablegram. The cable stated that the prisoners were not believed to be in any danger.
