

NO COMPROMISE IN FIREMEN'S TROUBLES, RECALL STARTED AGAIN

Many People Surprised That Commissioners Would Even Consider Compromise—Would Cost Over $2,000 to Hold Special Elections if Recall Successful.

With all chances of compromise in the firemen's controversy gone, steps will now have to be taken by the city commissioners to either organize another volunteer fire department by March 1, or start a paid department, both of which are now being discussed. The matter will probably come up today. Ernest Davis, the discharged fireman, over whose reinstatement to the department and the right to use the on-duty street, Patton avenue, for fire trucks either way, caused all the members of the volunteer department to resign two weeks ago, states that his recall movement will be started again and vigorously pushed to a completion, against Commissioner Fitzpatrick, of the department of public safety.

Davis said last night that he had opened headquarters at No. 17 1/2 Patton avenue, in the office of Judge Spear Reynolds, but he would not divulge the names of the "recall committee," stating this would be given out later. He says that he has secured hundreds of names on the petitions, which are being circulated, but is unable to state just how many.

Surprise was manifested by many leading citizens yesterday and Tuesday that the city commissioners would even consider a compromise in the case, much less try to arrange one. It being pointed out that the orders of the heads of the three city governmental departments must be carried out in order to keep up the morale of the men of all departments.

It is necessary, under the commission form of government act, for the petitions to contain 35 per cent of the qualified voters in the last election, and when the petitions are presented, they must be checked up by the city treasurer.

May Cost $2,000

Various estimates have been placed on the probable cost of a primary to select a candidate and for the general election, the most conservative estimates placing this figure at $2,000. If the petitions are presented to the city commissioners the latest being checked are found to contain the necessary number of qualified voters, then the city commissioners will have to call an election. Commissioner Fitzpatrick will automatically be a candidate, as his name will have to be entered, according to the charter. There would probably be other candidates for the office and it may be necessary to hold two elections, a primary and general election.

At the last election there were 2,947 votes cast for the candidates for mayor, by which the number of votes for the election are calculated, 1,733 for Roberts and 1,214 for Rankin. In order to defeat Commissioner Fitzpatrick the successful candidate would have to have 1,474 votes.

Chapter 49, private laws of 1915, which contains the charter for the commission form of government here, provides as follows:

"If in the primary election any candidate receives a majority of all votes, which vote, however, shall be not less than a majority of all the votes cast for the different candidates for the mayor at the last preceding municipal election, he shall be declared to be elected to fill out the remainder of the term of the officer who is sought to be recalled. If in the primary election there are only two candidates, and neither candidate receives a vote as large as a majority of all the votes cast for the different candidates for mayor at the last preceding election, the officer sought to be recalled shall remain in office. If there be more than two candidates in such primary and no one receives a majority of all the votes cast therein then there shall be an election held within twenty days from the date of the primary, at which election the two candidates receiving the highest vote in the primary shall be voted for."

Party Searches For Descendants of James Gregory.

Mrs. Pearl Gregory Cartledge, principal of the Canby public schools, Canby, Oregon, has written John S. Cathey, clerk of the court here, seeking information concerning James Gregory, who was born in this county in August, 1788, almost a century and half ago.

Owing to the fact that the vital statistics law had not been passed in 1788, there is no record of the birth of Mr. Gregory or his death. Neither is there a record in this county of his marriage, so the information can not be given Mrs. Cartledge by the court official.

Any reader who has any knowledge of Mr. Gregory or his descendants and who will write Mrs. Cartledge, 512 Washington street, Oregon City, Oregon, the information will be appreciated.

As I have depended on Vinol to build me up every spring for the past nine years with such good results, I tried it. 'FLYING PARSON' MAY YET VISIT ASHEVILLE

Head of Air Service May Be Able to Include This City in List of Places Visited.

Congressman Zebulon Weaver wired Mayor Gallatin Roberts and President McDuffie of the Board of Trade yesterday that he had called on the war department urging that Asheville be included in the itinerary of Lieutenant Maynard, the "flying parson," of the southern cities which he is to visit, and that Asheville would give him routing welcome.

It is hoped by Mayor Roberts and President McDuffie that the efforts of Congressman Weaver will be effective and that Asheville may have the pleasure of welcoming and entertaining the greatest birdman in America, who is a native North Carolinian.

Congressman Weaver's wire to the mayor follows:

"General Manager, of the air service, advises that itinerary of Lieut. Maynard has been made up, but, he will see if it can be varied so as to include Asheville. I have impressed upon Greenboro and Knoxville, in order to do all I can to have your city included."

COAL DUST LODGED IN MINER'S LUNGS

Tell How His Cough Was Conquered and Health Restored

"In November, 1916, I was working in a coal mine and the doctors said the coal dust had settled in my lungs. I couldn't lie down on my right side, coughed so I couldn't sleep and had constant pain in my right lung and under my shoulder blades. I coughed so hard the blood would spurt out of my nose. Finally the doctors had me change climate and live outdoors, but didn't improve.

"Then I came home and started on Milks Emulsion. Thank God I did as it did me a lot of good right from the start, loosening up the coal dust in my right lung. In a few weeks my lungs were free. I could sleep like a baby, had an excellent appetite and my cough left me entirely. I gained back 30 pounds in weight and went back to work in the mines completely restored to health."—H. CASES DECREASING AT COUNTY INSTITUTIONS

No Patients at the Convict Camp—Inmates at Children's Home Are Rapidly Recovering.

While the influenza epidemic in the city appeared during the early part of the week to be subsiding, encouraging reports came in yesterday from the county institutions, notwithstanding an increase in the number of new cases in the city.

Jerry Dalton and two other prisoners in the county jail who were stricken during the early stages of the disease here, have recovered and are declared out of danger.

At Sandy Mush camp, where about 20 convicts are stationed, no cases have developed during the epidemic and owing to the measures of precaution which have been taken it is believed none of the prisoners there will fall victims.

Three little children from the county children's home, who are in hospitals were reported yesterday to be well on the road to recovery, and it is expected that they will be discharged within a few days. At the children's home four have recovered, while there are ten yet in bed. It is thought that four of these, who had no fever yesterday, will be able to leave their beds today. Miss Bonnahoe, superintendent of the institution, has been using every method possible to prevent the spread of the disease and ten children have escaped the plague.
