THE ASHEVILLE CITIZEN, THURSDAY MORNING, APRIL 14, 1921.

'WALKING' LAMBERTH BEET CULTIVATION IN TO OBSERVE TAG DAY PRACTICALLY ALL OF FRUIT IS WIPED OUT COUNTY BEING TESTED MAKES VISIT TO CITY FOR BOYS ON MAY 7 ESTIMATED IN MIL GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS CON-

DUCTING TWO DEMONTRATIONS

Countles Prove Successful-To Encourage Movement.

10 inches in the row.

county.

partment in Raleigh.

HERE ON LAST LAP OF 309,009 DAMAGE MILE JOURNEY LIONS

Contesting for $65,000 Offered by lkers' Association-Must Finish July 11, 1924. Walkers'

Dressed in appropriate hiking costume, consisting of army shoes, breeches and shirt, E. F. Lamberth arrived in Asheville yesterday on a 300,000 mile hike for a prize of $65,-000, which is offered by the International Walkers association. On ar-riving in the city, according to the "globe frotter," he had a capital of and plans to finish it at the starting point on July 11, 1924. Lamberth March 19, and has visited 17 county seats in the state. Ha will visit Warshall, making a total of 18, and will make his way from there to Nashville, Tenn., the next state capi-tal on his route. tal on his route.

River Hill, Ala., and became a pro-reported as having shared the same fessional walker in 1897, and has fate with that of the Waynesville fruit since that time visited practically all growers. The countries in the world. At the indications in Madison county are beginning of the World war he had that the entire fruit crop has also that the entire fruit crop has also five languages.

Asheville high school yesterday this section are that practically the morning and last night gave a talk entire fruit crop in Western North to the local Elks, demonstrating his ability in making embroidery. This audience claimed him to be an expert number of orchards in this section of stated that during his life he has never been sick. He smokes an av-erage of a half pack of eigarettes a PLANS FOR SPRA which he states is his only day, v "hobby

Mr. Lamberth also stated that he ad walked when the thermometer was 55 degrees below zero and when it was as high as 112 degrees. He has also gone as long as nix days and five nights without food, which was in New Mexico, it being imposshile to secure any food. According IMPROVEMENTS ON to the traveler he spends more than two-thirds of his time out of doors. He carries credentials from many prominent government officials, among who are clerks of Superior court in the counties which he has recently visited. He has also been before many European officials from whom he states that he has secured official papers to show his visit. He plans cover the whole eastern portion of the United States and part of Canada by Christmas, at which time he ex-pects to be in Winnepeg, Canada.

According to Mr. Lamberth he is the only contestant for the award offered by the international association. He carries a pack which weighs an average of 75 pounds, and expects to Wheat Hearts average of 75 pounds, and expects to wir arrive in the Tennessee capital with-food.

LIONS FOR THIS SECTION Apples and Peaches Have Shared Alike

Fate—Young Trees and Black-berries Reported Killed.

Further reports from the freezing and frosty weather of Monday hight bring the losses of the fruit in this section still greater. In some cases besides the puaches and apples being killed it has been reported that even blackberries and the young trees have been futally hurt.

Reports from the Waynesville sec-tion are that the orchards have been The walker is making his last lap of 50,000 miles, which was started on July 11, 1920 from Ranger. Texas, and plans to finish it at the started on point. Lamberth peaches, plums, cherries and other Lamberth originally halled from Webb, J. M. Westall and others, are walked more than 256,000 miles, been destroyed by recent cold snaps, which carried him into foreign cous-Reports from sections around Mar-By this experience he learned shall are to the effect that great damtive languages. He makes his living by fecturing and cutting out fancy embroidery. He appeared before the students of the the students of the students of the the students of the student

In fancy work, The walker is 50 years of age and ent officials believe that the loss will

PLANS FOR SPRAYING WASHINGTON, April 13 .--- Fr growers in the regions affected 13.--Frult

He challenges to any person, of any He challenges to any person, of any place, offering $10,000 if they will make 1,000 miles in 1,000 hours. Hig distance is measured by routes, from state capitals to state capitals. needed.

Peaches were reported to the de-

SQUARE ARE BEGUN

Flowers and Grass to Be Sown on

About 20 of the senior and junior stu-dents of the Asheville high school were examined yesterday by Dr. Eugene R. Cocke, city school physician, for the pur-pose of detecting any contagious disease and denoting any physical defects. The examination was held in compliance with the state law, which requires that stu-dents in the public schools be examined. Miss Pearl Weaver, supervisor for the Asheville Association of Public Health Nursing, assisted the school physician in the examinations. Dr. Cocke plans to examine the majority of the students during the term, making a visit to the school two and three times a week if necessary. Bare Spots. In accordance with plans announced some time ago by the board of city com-missioners, work has been inaugurated some time ago by the board of city com-missioners, work has been inaugurated toward beautifying Pack square. At-tractive flowers and grass will be care-fully sown in the bare spots and around the Vance monument. Curbs paralleling the sidewalks will be built to protect the grass plots. The plans also include the painting and remaining of the benches. A short time repairing of the benches. A short time ago Nathan Straus, the philanthropist, gave the city authorities $500 to be pecessary. Dr. Cocke appeared well pleased with the results of the examinations and few defects were noted. used in making the Vance monument

N. J. LANCE DIES AT Wheat Hearts - the health

Have You Tried a HAV-A-TAMPA CIGAR?

TO RAISE FUNDS FOR CONSTRUC-TION OF DAM Tests at State Farm and in Adjoining

Site Surveyed Yesterday by Benjamin Case—To Ask for Bids on Project.

Mr. Hensel, government expert in Permission was granted yesterday the cultivation of sugar beets, is asby Mayor Roberts to the Community sisting C. C. Profitt, county farm Roys' work which is fostered by the demonstration, agent in having the Asheville Rotary club, to hold tag day possibility of sugar beet cultivation in raise funds for the erection of a dam Buncombe county. The government for a lake on the new site in Pisgah national forest, the United States forofficials are conducting two demonstrations, one located on the farm of estry service recently granting permission for the location of the boys Mr. Tilson's on the Hominy road. summer camp. and the other on the farm of Mr.

It has been estimated that a dam Steven's in the Fairview section. Each of the Buncombe county demonstrations consist of a half an would probably cost close to $1,000 to form a lake in the natural basin on the site. Funds are also needed for additional camp equipment. acre and will be closely watched by

Mr. Proffitt and Mr. Hensel during The site was inspected yesterday by Walton Johnson, Community Hoy's MA. Produit and Air, renard during the year. The seed for these two plots was furnished by the govern-ment, the cultivation being in rows of two feet apart and from eight to site was surveyed and specifications are being made for the erection of the The heets, according to the officials, take splendid cow and chicken feeds, project. besides being an important factor in the production of sugar. If the two The dam that will probably be constructed will consist of a concrete base, with timbers from the force: bedemonstrations prove to be successful as the rests that were conducted last year, the construction of a beet ing utilized. The dam will be made so as to prevent wash outs and endangerngar factory will be started among the local growers. ing property. The lake will be large thereby affording pleasure to a large Mr. Proffitt stated yesterday that number of boys at one time.

heat beets yielded about 16 per Bids will probably be askel for with-the next few days, in order to rush cent sugar, and that the tests con-ducted in Henderson and Yancey counties and also at the test farm the project to completion. Mr. Johnson announced yesterday violded an average of 15 per cent. These tests have proved to be so that the equipment at the former camp, which is located about 20 miles from the new one, will be moved at successful that prospects are bright for extending the cultivation in the Once.

Plans are also being made for the The agent explained that sirups are erection of a lodge on the new site, which will be used for a kitchen, dinalso secured from the beet, there being possible three grades, the first which may be used for the best grade ing room and a store house by the camp officials. table purposes, the second for a cheaper table purpose, and the third for use in horse and cow feeds.

Reports of Actions of Building Trade Unions of City at Session of Council Tonight.

Reports of the actions of the build-EXAMINING STUDENTS ing trades unions of the city on the question of a general reduction of the present scale of wages will be made by representatives of the unions at a meeting tonight of the Building frades council.

This subject was discussed at the last meeting of the counsel and after due consideration, it was voted that the matter should be taken up in-dividually by each of the affiliated crafts. Since the meeting the various crafts have held meetings and all have acted on the measure. It is un-exception of one, whose contract does not expire until May.

a day. The question was voted on by the plumbers union Tuesday night.

HOT SPRINGS HOME Y. W. C. & BOARD HAS

News has been received in the city of the death of N. J. Lance, of Hot Springs, who died at his home Tues-day night at 9:30 o'clock. Mr. Lance had just returned from a visit to his farm at Newport when he was taken ill and died within a short time.

farm at Newport when he was taken ill and died within a short time. He was formerly postmaster at Hot Springs and Maves a large number of friends. He was well known in Ashe-ville. Mr. Lance was 66 years old and leaves a wife, three sons, Hugh, Frank, and Ted Lance, all of Hot Springs, and one daughter, Mrs. Plato Ebbs of Marshall. one dau Marshall.

Funeral services will be announced

Activities of the Association for Month Given by Secretaries— Camp Site Undecided.
 Activities of the Association for Month Given by Secretaries— Camp Site Undecided.
 Reports on the various activities of the association were given at the regular monthly meeting veaterday afternoon of the board of directors of the Y. W. C. A. The reports included the activities of the association are given at the regular.
 Tavelers Aid society, cafeteria, homo of the association and the secretaries.
 The selection of a camp site was dis-taked. A number of sites are being con-sidered for the girls' summer camp. The securing of a general secretary tem-porarity.
 Mrs. Burnham S. Coleman and Mrs. Edward Allce, who have been recently appointed members of the board, were present at the meeting.
 BURNSVILLE WOMAN

Cigarette

No cigarette has the same delicious flavor as Lucky Strike. Because Lucky Strike is the toasted cigarette.

INTERESTING PROGRAM FOR BIG CELEBRATION

Edward Buncombe Chapter, D. A. R. Will Honor Birthdays of Famous Statesmen Tonight.

Dr. and Mrs. J. G. DeRoulhac Hamilton will arrive today from Chapel Hill today and will be the guests of Mrs. Charles Malcolm Platt tor several days. Dr. Hamilton will be the leading speaker tonight at the celebration of the Edward Buncombe chapter of D. A. R. in honor of Thomas Jeferson and Jaines Monroe whose birthdays occur in April. The celebration will be held in the High School auditorium.

An interesting program has been aranged by the committee for the celebration and a feature will be the costumes to be worn representing characters of the early periods. The parties in costumes will occupy seats on the stage and impersonations will be as follows: Mrs. Platt as Aba-and W. W. Candler as Benjamin Franklin, A silver offering will be taken at the door by Mrs. Frank Weaver and Mrs. L. E. Fischar.

High school students will be ushers for the celebration and will be dressed in the costume of early Co-lonial days. The ushers will be Leonidas Matthews, Lindsay Gudger, John McCormick and Arthur Kale.

MISTRIAL DECLARED IN BIG DAMAGE SUIT

Due to the inability of Juror J. E. Shuford to be present in the Superlor court yesterday, a mistrial was de-ciared by Judge McEiroy in the damage suit of Frank W. Rogers against the City of Asheville. By the consent of both aldes, 11 remaining jurors were ac-cepted in the new case and the trial began over again.

THE Perennial INVESTMENT

There's much to be said for an investment that always awaits your convenience, and adjusts its continuance to your pleasure.

Such an investment the Certificate of Deposit is Whenever you wish, a Certificate may be obtained at once. And whenever you desire, the principal and interest will be paid you in full.

CENTRAL BANK & TRUST Company South Pack Square

6% MONEY

We can secure Loans on Residence property in Asheville a, SIX PER CENT.

No Commissions or Renewal Charges. J. J. CONYERS, Special Agent 301 Oates Bldg. Phone: Office 682: Home 2263

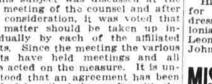

High-Class Accomodations at BATTERY PARK HOTEL For High-Class Traveling Men

Under the new ownership of Mr. E. W. Grove of St. Louis, we have allotted a portion of our capacity for the use of commercial travelers who desire to enjoy the refined service and attractions of a world-famous tourist hotel - conveniently located in the business district. American plan. Special commercial rates. Reservations will receive the personal attention of the manager.

> WILBUR DEVENDORF, Manager. Battery Park Hotel, Asheville, N. C.

The Thoughtful Young Person Today

realizes the importance of a thorough training before beginning a business career. He knows that the successful business man has no time nor patience to worry with an unrtained employee. Hundreds derstood that an agreement has been reached by all of the crafts with the carpenters and sheet-metal The unions have already voted to volun-tarily reduce their wage scale to $6

If not, there's a treat wait ing for you - A smoke-fest you'll not forget in a hurry. Hav-a-Tampa, a mild blend that satisfies, full of value, on today's market.

Sold Everywhere Good Cigare are

10c-2 for 25c-15c straight.

Barbee-Clark Cigar & Tobacco Co. Distributors

FUNERAL SERVICES HELD FOR VETERAN

Funeral services were held for Private Emile Olsen yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the undertaking establishment of Hare and Reynolds. Services were conducted by Rev. J. C. Williams. Good Samaritan chaplain, with interment at Riverside cemetery. Private Olsen died at Oteen hospilal Saturday, after having been a patient there for the past year. His home was in Quincy, Mass. It was stated that his only relative in the United States was in New York, and the relative was un-able to attend the services. Floral offerings were given by patients and friends at the local government hos-pital and the local chapter of War Mothers. Representatives were present from the War Mothers' club and other organizations. Funeral services were held for Private Great slaughter sale of Furniture ous at L. D. Ingle's, Biltmore Avenue store on Friday, April 15, 1921. $400 given away in prizes.

Wheat Hearts-eat them and

Present at the meeting.
Present at the meeting.
BURNSVILLE WOMAN
IS STRUCK BY AUTO
Wrs. L. B. Jackson, well-known resident of Burnsville, was painfully in-gired last night, when she was struck by an automobile wille crossing the street at the Langron hotel. The in-guires are reported not to be of a serious nature and Mrs. Jackson will return to her home today. A case was made against Mrs. Katie Wright, of 96 Hay-wood street last night on charges of reckless driving.
Among the other defendants to appear before Judge R. M. Weils this morn-ing will be Clifton Trantham on the charge of operating an automobile with out license and violating the traffic
SHRINE CLUB GIVES BIG DANCE TONIGHT

out licen ordinance

AUXILIARY MEETS

PARDON NOT PROBABLE

dividual cases. "I listened, carefully to their argu-ments for graning general amnesty" he said. "Their statements were prac-tically the same as those which were presented to my predecessor in office and I shall consider them carefully in connection with the subject and fter consulting with the President and the senate committee which has been ap-pointed to determina whether or not any policy should be adopted to extend gen-eral clemency to them. I assured the delegation that in the meantime I would carefully consider any individual cases presented to be one of merit. I would be inclined to be lenient in reaching a decision. However, indi-vidual cases were not permitted to be discussed at this interview." The ammesty day program was con-cluded with a mass meeting tonight at which a number of socialist and labor leaders were speakers. William John-stoh, president out the the the the treational hashing a decision the state the func-tion of the International which a number of the International

A big dance will be given tonight at the Masonic temple by the members of Asheville Shrine club from 9 o'clock until midnight. A seven-pleced orches-tra, composed of plcked musicians, will furnish the music for the dance. Fezes will be worn by the Shriners. The hall of the Masonic temple has been decorated by the entertainment. Shrine club members and their wives and friends, holding cards will be ad-mitted to the dance. Only those having special invitation cards, issued by the secretary, will be admitted. THIS AFTERNOON The girl's auxiliary of the First Bap-tist church will meet this afternoon with Mrs. C. L. Palmer at No. 389 Merrimon avenue. The meeting will start promptly at 3:45 o'clock and an interesting pro-gram is promised those attending. (Continued from Page One) lenient in reaching a decision" on in-dividual cases. "I listened, carefully to their argu-

Great slaughter sale of Furniture starts at L. D. Ingle's, Biltmore Ave-nue store on Friday, April 15, 1921. nue store on Friday, April 15, 1921.

cluded with a mass meeting tonight at which a number of socialist and labor leaders were speakers. William John-ston, president of the International Mach'ists union, urged that labor join in stojping the manufacture of muni-tions and said he already had been in-structed by his union to take up the question with other unions whose mem-bers are employed in such work. John Millholland, of New York, praised the attitude of Attorney-General Daugherry in the Debs case and Otto Brandstetter, of Chicago secretary of the socialist party, brought a message from Debs praising the amnesty movement and urging a continuation of the fight. The meeting was thrown into confu-sion when an unidentified young man in the audience asked if the amnesty plea as sponsored by the organization in-cluded cases of conscientious objectors. His question was unanswered, and dur-ing the confusion he left the meeting Great slauchter sale of Furniture Great slaughter sale of Furniture starts at L. D. Ingle's, Biltmore Aveampis Each Free by Mail. Address: "Outicurs Lab-ratories, Dept. 146, Maiden 48, Mass." Sold every-there. Scap Ec. Ontmeet 28 and 60e. Talents Me. Cuticurs Scap shaves without mug. aus store on Friday, April 15, 1921. $500 given away in prizes.

of our graduates are holding responsible, high-salaried positions in the business world. Call and let us tell you about our splendid courses and rates.

Emanuel Business College

Phone 1100

32 College St.

MRS. DUNCAN DIED TO HOLD MEMORIAL SERVICES FOR LATE Y. M. C. A. SECRETARY

15 Haywood St.

Phone 1800.

Funeral services will be conducted for Mrs. Bessle Duncan this afternoon at two o'clock at Riverview church. Inter-ment will follow at the church cemetery Mrs. Duncan died yesterday afternoon at 1:45 o'clock after an extended 10-ness. She is survived by a young daughter and other relatives,

IN CITY YESTERDAY

A special committee has been appointed to arrange the program for the memorial services for the late Ed W. Brown, for-mer secretary of the local Y. M. C. A. The committee, which was appointed by the directors of the "Y" are Dr. J. T. Serier, J. J. Nichols, P. R. Allen, M. W. Mamrick and W. W. Edwards. The services will be held in the new building on April 24. Additions to the present quarters of the Y. M. C. A. are now being planned by the directorate. AROUND TOWN

Son Born-Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Whit-ey E. Davis, a son, Whitney E., jr. ney E. April 12.

Great slaughter sale of Furniture Great slaughter sale of Furniture starts at L D. Ingle's, Biltmore Ave-nue store on Friday, April 15, 1921. $500 given away in prizes. Small Fire-Fire caused slight damage to the roof of the residence of C. L. Mc-ing at 10:40 o'clock.

