ROBERTSON-COLE GOOD WOMEN

Directed by GARNIER with Rosemary Theby and Hamilton Revelle

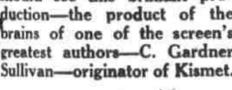

"Good Women" is a story of a woman who despised good women and dared to live out her unconventional ideas of life. Result—amazing in its truth. It shows the sorrows and joys in the life of a brilliant young rich woman. The famous Greenwich Villages of New York, the beautiful south of France, swift, speedy Monte Carlo and sunny Italy follow the roads of the young woman who believed that the world is enslaved to other peoples' opinions.

If a wife cannot hold her husband's love, has she the right to "spoil" his life?

Should daring truths be condemned?

Every wife, every husband should see this brilliant production—the product of the brains of one of the screen's greatest authors—C. Gardner Sullivan—originator of Kismet.

LITTLE GIRL HURT, ASKS $7,500 DAMAGE

Storage Supply Company Made Defendant in Complaint Filed by T. H. Stone.

The Storage Supply company was made defendant in a complaint filed in the superior court Tuesday, by T. H. Stone, father of Florence Stone, who was said to have been injured in an accident at the company's plant last September.

Complaint alleges that the company "carelessly and negligently" operated and maintained an elevator that went into the ground to the depth of four feet. It further sets out that there was no guard or rail around the elevator and that the little girl was innocently attracted to the bottom of the shaft because ripe peaches had fallen therein.

When the little girl was in the shaft it was charged, the elevator was allowed to come down from the floor above with no one on it. Florence Stone, it is claimed, O. K. Bennett and W. D. Pangle filed the suit.

FINDS GOOD ROADS TO ST. PETERSBURG

Weaver's Man Reports Many Shacks Along Florida Roads.

B. T. Gregg has just returned from an eight weeks' visit to St. Petersburg Fla. Mr. Gregg, with Ben R. Watts and son Clarence, and V. and I. Brittain, of Weaverville, drove to St. Petersburg in November, going via Greenville, Anderson, Macon, Athens, Valdosta, Madison, Live Oak, Ocala and Lakeland to Tampa and St. Petersburg. He states the roads were in exceedingly good condition and they had no trouble whatever going.

Mr. Gregg stated to the Chamber of Commerce last night that the crowd in St. Petersburg was not nearly so large this year as last year and there are a great many vacant houses and apartments, although he stated the housing accommodations had been enormously increased since last year.

This, he said, was the cause of the abundance of available rooms and apartments. He said that rooms and apartments were rented by the week and that the rates, he thought, were extremely high. This condition, he added, was causing more and more people to come into Florida and camp in tents or light shacks which were constructed along the roads surrounding the resort cities in different sections of Florida.

He said St. Petersburg was a beautiful city and he enjoyed his two months' visit.
