WASHINGTON, August 5.—
Democratic leaders of the Senate are shoving the tariff on the Reare shoving the tariff on the Republicans. They are going to force them to a vote. The text of agreement reached today was drawn by Senators Simmons. Walsh, of, Massachusetts, and Jones, of New Mexico, all Democrats. Senator McCumber, the Republican leader, accepted it.

Senator Simmons believed that the G. P. managars still hone. the G. O. P. managers still hope to find some way out of their who vote muddle. They want to escape a defeated. showdown vote before the November election. "I was greatly disappointed at the failure of our efforts to se-cure a day certain for a vote on this bill," declared Mr. Simmons today. "I think from many stand points that would have been most desirable but all efforts in that direction—and we on this side of the chamber were very persistent —having failed and losing all hope of fixing a day for a vote, I some how reluctantly entered into negotiations which resulted in the greement now proposed.
