MAMM

Give Babi Fresh

atigue Take then Morerse, when

We have a day, you for their ful line Baby your feet ourden, by and Go - Choes. Your very re prices. nd flexibility, per circulaaction of the -not handi-, in Cantileyor limit for you. 15 Broad

ched Like the Foot

Cantilever arch is flex d shaped, like your foot There is room for the spread out; the heel fits The Cantilever snugly at the arch and the foot without in g with it. Avoidance of strain and restriction a big difference in the y you feel after standing or king a while.

Try on the Cantilever at our Take a few steps and its comfort. The Cantiis good looking, well made prices are reasonable. We be exclusive agents for this lome of fine Shoes and hoes repaired Right."

Main Floor 89 Patton Ave.

MANY LOCAL LEGIONNAIRES WILL ATTEND CONVENTION TO BE HELD IN GATE CITY

mires will go to the Fourth An-ual Convention of the North arolina American Legion to be ield in Greensboro Friday and saturday, September 8 and 9 om Bird, State Commander, Fom Bird, State Commander states that several of the Asheville states that several of the Asheville ruen will go by automobile Tuenday. With others following on Wednesday and Thursday. A few of the local men that pian to attend besides Mr. Bird, are C. A. Sioan, Editor of the Oteen Echo: Tracy Viscent. Secretary - Treasurer of the Especial Formation. Sioan, Editor of the Oteen Echo:
Tracy Viscent, Secretary - Treasurer, of the Echo; L. E. Shepherd, Wayne Beachboard, Harvey
Hester, Gilliland Stikeleather,
Lovel Rhodes, and many others.
Meeting at the same time will be the Second Annual Convention of the Women's Auxiliary of the Legion. Quite a number of Asheville women will attend but no definite arrangements have as yet been made, according to Mrs.
George Shuford, of the local Auxillary.

Separate sessions of the Auxilseparate sessions of the Auxiliary will be held, but the delegates and others attending will join the Legion men in several of the big events of the two days.

Senator J. Thomas Heffin, of Mabama, and Governor Cameron Morrison have accepted invitations to speak to the veterans. Gbvernor Morrison will speak the first any and Senator Heffin the second day.

Senato Heffin is known as a orator of ability, being a fiery speaker, a good story-teller, and a strong southerner. His speeches in North Carolina have always at-tracted wide interest. That many ill go to hear Governor Morrison

The oig event of the two days will be 'he parade on Saturday morning, September 9. Members norning. September 9. Members of the Woman's Auxiliary will join in the march down the principal streets of Greensboro.

Friday afternoon in High Point there will be a big social event staged by the Andrew Jackson Post. Dances, dinners and other big social events are on the programs as well as a basket pienic at the battleground. The Elm Street Foilies will also feature the occasion.

It is stated that from the pres-or prospects there will be one of the largest gatherings of soldiers he largest gatherings of soldiers in Greensboro, the city has ever known. Ex-service men of all kinds, whether members of the legion or not have been invited to attend and it is predicted that the greatest convention yet held will reature the two day session in the Gate City.

As special guests of the convention will be all the medal of honor men in North Carolina, some 150 men in North Carolina, some 150 men altogether.

The session of the Auxiliary will he presided over by Mrs. E. W. Burt, of Salisbury, State President of the Auxiliary, Mrs. Josephus Daniels, of Raleigh, will be one of the main speakers.

Daniels, of Raleigh, will be one of the main speakers.
Following is the program of the Legion Convention.
Friday, Sept. 8—Morning Session 9:20—Called to order by department commander, Thos. W. Bird. of Asheville; the singing of "America" by the audience; the invocation by the department chapter. tion by the department chaplain, Rev. T. G. Vickers, of Henderson. 9:40—Address of welcome by Mayor Claude Kiser, and response by Charlie A. Sloan, of Oteen. 16—Report of credentials com-mittee.

10:15—Reading of minutes of third annual convention.

10:20—Report of department officers: (a) Thomas W. Bird, of Asheville, commander; (b) Cale K. Burgess, of Raleigh, adjutant; (c) Rev. T. G. Vickers, of Henderson, chaplain; (d) R. S. McNeill, of Fayetteville, historian; (e) Dan S. Hollenga, of Hamlet, national comthird annual convention

The Ivory and Blue Shop Will Be Closed All

Open for business as usual Tuesday

Day Tomorrow

A. L. PRICE

63 Haywood Street.

THIS COMING WINTER every day will be LABOR (ing) DAY unless you have been fortunate in getting a good supply of GOOD coal.

Coal has begun to come in-not as fast as it should, but enough to fill orders if they are placed early.

The Carolina Coal and Ice Co. atton Ave. Phone 130

nmittee. 11:20—Appointment and announcement of sommittees. 11:30—Address by Gov. Cam-eron Morrison. Afternoon Session

2—Convention called to order and the singing of "Carolina" by the audience. 2:10—Report of the convention committees: (a) constitution and by-laws: (b) department organ: (c) service; (d) liaison committee from Legion Auxiliary.

3-Introduction of special guests and special representatives of the United Confederate Veterans, Red Cross, Veterans' Bureau, Veterans of Foreign Wars, Spanish-Ameri-can War Veterans and Disabled Veterana

3:30-Automobile ride over Greensboro and to High Point for supper as guests of the Andrew Jackson post. 8-Return trip to Greensboro for evening entertainments. Saturday, Sept. 9—Morning Session -Convention called to or-

10:15—Parade starts.

Afternoon Seesion
2—Call to order; special message to convention election of officers; unfinished and new bust-

5-Adjournment. Big basket picnic at Guilford Battleground. •
The full program for the meeting of the Auxilitary is as fol-

9:15—Singing of "America" by the audience with singing led by Mrs. Fred Sparger. Convention called to order by Mrs. E. W. Burt, State President.

State President.

9:30—Flag ceremony, repeating allegiance to the flag.

9:40—Introduction of Mayor of the city by Mrs. C. W. Stockard. President of the Henry K. Burtner

Unit. Address of welcome by Claud Kiser, Mayor of the city. 10—Address of welcome from the local unit by Mrs. Charles D. Benhow, Jr., response to welcome address by Mrs. Josephus Daniels. 16:26—Reading of the conven-ficers. President Mrs. E. W. Burt.

Salisbury: Secretary - Treasurer,
Miss Marie Torrence, of Gastonia; Chaplain, Mrs. J. K. Nortleet, of Winston-Salem; Historian, Mrs.
Louis Owen, of Winston-Salem. 11:10-Announcement of ap-

Afternoon Session 2—Singing of "Auxiliary Song."
Session called to order by State President. Introduction of special guests to the convention. Laison committee from the American Lecommittee from the American Le-gion, Tom Bird, State Command-er. Report of committee on ritual, flag, etc. Report of committee on hospitals and relief work. Report of committee on Americanism. Reof committee on Americanism. Report of memorial committee.

3:30—Recess for automobile ride over Greensboro and to High Point for supper as guests of the Andrew Jackson post and unit.

8—Return to Greensboro for Elm Street Follies and Dance.

Saturday—Morning Session

9:15—Singing of "Carolina."

9:15—Singing of "Carolina." Session called to order by the State President. Invocation by unit Chaplain, Mrs. E. L. Stamey.

of committee on time and place.

10:15—Recess for American Legion parade and public address by

I. Thomas Heffin Senator from

Afternoon Session 2—Session called to order by Mrs. Josephus Daniels. Report of constitution and by-laws commit-tee. Report of unit activities. Report of committee on orphans of World War. Report of legislative committee. Report of committee on resolutions. Unfinished busi-ness and new business. Election

5—Adjournment to Battleground for picnic.

EXPRESSION SCHOOL AT JUNALUSKA ENDS

mark Successful Summer Session at Methodist Grounds.

Lake Junaluska Summer School

Lake Junaluska Summer School of Expression last week closed its Summer term with the presentation of a one act play entitled. "An Interrupted Proposal," by Arlo Bates. The entertainment took place in the young people's club room of the Hotel Terrace. Cast of characters were: Miss Katherine Calhoun, as Mrs. Stone; Miss Effle Mae Winslow, as Samuel Stone, Miss Josephine Coman as Tracy; Miss Ruth Senna, as Helen Mrs. Ramsey; Miss Kitty Stubbs, as Stephen Howard; Miss Rebecca Cousins, as Mr. Stone and Miss Elizabeth Aldridge as Betty, the maid. Preceding the play, readings were given by Misses Clarice Pepper and Louis Winslow, of the Junior Department of the School of Expression. Miss Mary Evans Saunders closed the program with a reading.

This Summer students have been reading.

This Summer students have been registered from Massachusetts Florida, Virginia, Tennessee, Georgia, North and South Carolina and other states. A noteworthy feature has been the enrollment of both beginners and advanced students. The work of Miss Mary Evans Saunders, director of the school, has given universal satisfaction.

WANTS RELEASE FROM ASSESSMEN

At the meeting of the Board of City Commissioners Saturday morning, a petition was submitted for Mrs. W. A. Wamboldt, of West Asheville, asking that property on the corner of Beverly and Brownwood Roada be released from a recent assessment for sewer construction, on grounds that a previous assessment had been paid on this property for the construction of the sewer main to which it is connected.

The petition was referred to the Phone 130

The petition was referred to the Department of Public Works. Commissioner R. L. Fitzpatrick was slightly III and unable to attend the Saturday meeting

HOME FOR GIRLS IN CITY IS DEDICATED

COMPTON RESCUE HOME IN ATTRACTIVE NEW PLANT

House of 40 Rooms Ready for Continuation of Chari-table Work.

With more than 50 people present yesterday afternoon, the Comp-ton Rescue Home for Girls, located a short distance off Spring Street. vas formally dedicated, there ng several members of the Board of Directors on hand from far-cattered points.

Equipped in practically all, of ts 40 attractive rooms, the new home, replacing an ancient struc-lure which long served as a shelter to unfortunate girls, gives promise even greater accomplishments inder competent management.

Miss Janet McGregor, who has een an assistant to the Rev. Lu-ius B. Compton for 15 years, is superintendent.

A dedicatory service in which all who participated were touched by the fervor and devotion to their work of the founder preceded a general inspection to the completed building which is favorably loder. Report of committee on time cated upon an acre and three-and place for other convention committees.

9:45—Form of parade.
10:15—Parade starts.

cated upon an acre and three-quarters of property. In one large arry group the visitors saw a group of infants who were not disposed to show perpetual appreciation of their surroundings.

In spite of the immensity of the task, said Rev. Mr. Compton, who is also head of the Eliada Orphanare, there remains today but $9,000 debt upon the Resue Home, and this for the most part is borne entirely by merchants of and are willing to await paymen until funds are available. No mertgage rests upon the home. Its construction was the outcome of a work commenced about 20 years ago in "Faith Cottage," lo cated in that general section and rented from month to month. the need grew, Rev. Mr. Com in answered prayers, he explained in answered prayers, he explained, received funds to carry on the work steadily until a 17-room house was secured upon the site of the present building.

While asserting with emphasis that he had never been forced to beg for funds during evangelistic tours, the founder admitted that there were numerous free-will ofaddress by Mrs. Josephine 10:20—Reading of the convention rules. Report of credentials committee. Reading of minutes of the first annual convention.

10:40—Report of department of and brought out the fact that more social service or so-called uplift work. President, Mrs. E. W. Burt, work could not take the place of such a home which brings to the such a home which brings to the shelters a new life. unfortunate it shelters a new life founded upon Christian example and teachings.

He narrated touching incidents 11:10—Announcement of appointment of committees.

11:20—Recess to hear address by Gov. Cameron Morrison, of North Carolina.

12:30-1:30—Luncheon at Shrine Club in basement of Q. Henry Hology and the state of the s workers. All girls entering the home are required to sign pledges to give up the use of objectionable drug and other habits.

Fully 90 per cent of the 600 or more girls who have been sheltered in the past, he said, were not vicious or of evil character when they came seeking assistance. Hather, it was due to the fact that the young man in the case proved a scoundtel and went against his pledge of marriage.

pledge of marriage.

Rev. E. J. Richard, of Binghamton, N. Y., who has been appearing at the Eliada Camp Meeting, offered the dedicatory prayer, while Charles B Donle, of er, while Charles B Donie, of Providence, R. I., former head of a rescue home in that Northern city, described his experience in this line of work. Both are now directors of the Compton Rescue Home, the list including also Miss Susie Gossard, of the Eliada Orph-

Flag Ceremony—allegiance to the flag.

9:30—Report of national committeewoman. Report of committee on finance and dues. Report the Rescue Home does not serve as a feeder to the Orphonous serve as a feeder to the Eliada Orphonous serve as a feeder to the Eliada Orphonous serve as a feeder to the Eliada Orphonous serve serve serve as a feeder to the Eliada Orphonous serve serve

Thomas Heflin, Senator from care for her swn calld Plans for a day nursery in 12:30-1:30—Luncheon at Shrine which the infants of unfortunate mothers may be cared for while the parent goes out to earn an honest living, were made known by the founder. He explained that the ones sheltered in the home paid only in accordance with their ability of earning capacity, the amount ranging from as little as 50 cents weekly but never exceeding $20 a month for board and Professor Chrisholm, who ac-companies Rev. Mr. Compton upon his evangelistic tours, led in sing-ing of hyms and also gave a solo at the dedicatory service yesterday.

Mars Hill Classes Enjoy Mountain Hike

Mars Hill College Campus seems deserted for about 50 boys of the institution have left with Prof. Hugh Thompson for a hike to M. Mitchell while another crowd of boys and girls have gone with other teachers to Ogle Meadow Moun-tain. The remainder of the stu-

Others $22 To $50

A world of new fabrics and fashions; 12,000 woolens Come in and see these truly remarkable values.

Lyle F. Jackson Tailors to Ladies and Gentle Third Floor Pack Square and Patton Ave

New Frocks

Beautiful Modes Inspired by Those From Far Distant Lands

Frocks are the most versatile of all new things for Fall. Their styles are legion. The old world influence has gone its in frock affairs. Here are Frocks with Russian, Persian, Egyptian, classic Greek or Roman style details. Waistlines vary from the very low one of Russian origination to the prim, tight Casque effects. Draped high effects and the circular skirt, beloved by Jenny, are recent style models.

FROCKS OF SILK AND FINE WOOLENS

Poiret Twill, Piquetion. Tricotine in the season's newest shades and adornments. Priced-

$14.50 ° $59.50

The Leader

10 and 12 Patton Ave.

Prominent People From Four Southern States Gathered At Camp Alice, Mt. Mitchell

(Photo By Plateau Studios.) Reading from left to right: Top Row: Herbert Jones, Montgomery, ophus Daniels, Raleigh; J. Russell Williams, Charleston, S. C.; Louis H. Moore, H.

ton, S. C.; Louis H. Moore, H. Moore, Montgomery, Ala.; H. W. Woodward, Bishopville, S. C. Second row: Mrs. Louis H. Moore, Montgomery, Ala.; W. K. Pelter, Montgomery, Ala.; Mrs. A. J. Foster, Kenilworth; Mrs. J. Russell Williams, Charleston, S. C.; Mrs. P. D. Willingham, Macon, Ga.; Mrs. McClure, Ft. Leavenworth, Kans.; Herbert Jones, Montgomery, Ala. and Master Herbert

dorsed the sentiment expressed by are on hely ground

First Baptist Church. First Baptist Church.

Arrangements for the cenference has been placed into the hands of workers of the Buncombe County Baptist Sunday School Association, of which J. H. Grogs is President.

Among the speakers will be Arthur Flake, Nashville, Tenn.; Rev. Dr. I. J. Van Ness, also of Nashville; E. L. Middleton, of Raleigh.

Josephus Daniels, Secretary of the Navy during the World War, in the following paragraphs "It has been my good fortune to stand on top of Pike's Peak a look through a snow storm in July to the grand acenery it presents to the eye; to climb Mauna Kea. to the grand scenery it presents to the eye; to climb Mauna Kea. 13,000 feet and see the lava pour from Mauna Loa and Kilanea in Hawail, scenes so photographed on the eye that they can never fade; to cross the Alps whose beauty is in song and story; and to look enraptured on snow-covered

Mrs. P. D. Willingham, Macon, Faptured on snow-covered Mt. Ga.; Mrs. McClure, Ft. Leavenworth, Kans.; Herbert Jones, Montgomery, Ala. and Master Herbert Jones, Jr., Montgomery, Ala. This party of prominent people from four Southern States, surrounding Mrs. Josephus Daniels, were caught by the Staff Photographer on Mt. Mitchell and tographer on Mt. Mitchell and every member of the party endorsed the sentiment expressed by a con holy ground."

The conference will close the fo:-

The first aerial lighthouse in this country was recently opened at the American Airway's scaplane base, College Point, L. I.

Pisgah Forest Inn Best Mountain outing. Phone 3457.

Red Cross MATTRESS

Packed in Sanitary Cartons-Used by Thousands of Satisfied Customers.

BURTON

FURNITURE. 34-36 College Street.

Ask for your Receipt-

Call A Yellow 'Phone 4000

YELLOW CABS are

The YELLOW CAB COMPANY,

Metered Auto Service

An Informal Dance

The first thing noticed when invited guests come into your home is the appearance of your floors. Give them that bright appearance by using

Biltmore Floor Wax

Bilmore Floor Wax is ideal for brightening floors and furniture. Easily applied.

50с в

1 lb., 2 lb. and 5 lb. Tins

Asheville Paint Company White PAUNI Shops

19 Broadway.

Telephone 1779.

JUST A FRIENDLY TIP!

Buy Your Furniture The Susquehanna Way
Tow Cash Prices Ond three months to pary

A flock of 90 Hens made the world's record with an average of 252 eggs per hen per year on

Ubiko Buttermilk Egg Mash

"Quality in Feed is Economy in Feeding"

Far Sale by Retail Dealers

J. D. Earle Feed Company, Wholesale Distributors.