It promises to be: great in numbers, great in spirit, great in program and great in the final outstretch of its influence. God has blessed our efforts since last year. Scouting has gone marching on. We have well survived the two most critical years in our financial history. We have been through a fire, and even yet many of our councils feel the pinch of financial retrenchment. But stakes are being more firmly set and our lines strengthened. We are being trained and discussed and in the absence of Captain Gidney, who arrives tomorrow, will be continued in detail. House Revolts Against Action On Potash And Dyes, Recommits Bill

WASHINGTON, Sept. 13.—Revolting against the action of the conferees in writing back into the administration tariff bill a dye embargo licensing provision and a duty on potash, the House late today rejected that measure back to conference. The conferees were instructed to accept Senate amendments repealing the existing dye embargo and placing potash on the free-list.

Some Republican House leaders, planning surprised and disappointed, were pessimistic as to what the ultimate result of the House action would be. Representative Mondell, of Wyoming, the floor leader, said he did not know what the outcome would be while Chairman Fordney, of the Ways and Means Committee, said it looked doubtful whether there would be a bill at this session. The vote followed a day of parliamentary wrangling and sharp debate and announcement of the result by Speaker Gillett was greeted by applause on both sides of the chamber and with loud cheers from many of the Democrats.

Balkan Capitals Are Tense With Military Activities, After Lengthy Preparation

Fresh Outbreaks Anticipated, With Many Causes of Irritation. BULGAR AND GREEK FORCES IN CLASH British Battalion Forwarded to Constantinople for Duty.

(Special Correspondence The Asheville Citizen) NEW YORK, Sept. 13.—The tense activity in the Balkan capitals in preparation for fresh outbreaks of military activities, which is considered that the Balkan countries were known to have been preparing for war as far back as March of this year, by people who were then traveling throughout the Balkans, including about 20,000 Russians, many of them the remnants of Wrangel's army, Jugo-Slavia, comprising the kingdom of the Serbs, Croats and Slovenes, was even then able to mobilize a formidable fighting force of 800,000 men. Serbia is in reality the moving spirit that has given the new country the second biggest army in Europe, west of the Rhine, the capital of the Serbs, the dictator of the government policies.

Skirmishes have frequently taken place on Serbia's two active fronts, one against a strip of Bulgaria, one against Greece, and another one against Albania, or Bulgaria. The Serbs, in following the raiders up, cross the frontiers without being aware of it and in the way fought skirmishes. Turkey is setting forth her claims that the Moslems should secure enough European territory to protect Constantinople, endeavored to obtain eastern Thrace as far as the river Helespont, including the mountains. This would give her a common frontier with Bulgaria and is resented for this reason by not only Greece, but also by Jugo-Slavia and Rumania.
