NEGRO YOUTH IS KILLED WEDNESDAY

"I didn't think the gun was loaded." said Henry Humphries, negro boy about 14 years of age, when he was arrested yesterday afternoon for the killing of Willie Moore, his companion, about the same age. The slayer made no de-nial of the shooting and admitted the dispute was an outgrowth of a quarrel over a game of "cracka-loo," only a few cents being in-

An inquest was held by Coroner Morris and the jury found Moore came to his death from a gun-shot wound inflicted by Humphries. The tragedy occurred at 18 Short Pine street, where the boys had been throwing pennies toward certain cracks in the floor.

The weapon used was a shot-gun with a single barrel. Humph-ics said he had no intention to kill the boy and did not think there was a shell in the gun
