DOLLAR DAY AT

Store Will Open "Dollar Day" at 8:30 A. M.

The reception and luncheon which will be given Thursday by the Women's Club in honor of Mrs. Edith Vanderbilt at the Southern Manufacturers' Club, is the center of much interest in club circles and in society.

The reception will be held at the club between the hours of 11 and 12:30. At this time Mrs. Vanderbilt will be presented to the women of Charlotte. Receiving with her will be a number of women prominent in club circles.

The luncheon will be given at 12:30 to 2 at the club. A delightful feature of the occasion will be a solo by Miss Helen Mair, one of the artists here for the Made-in-Carolina Exposition. She will be accompanied by another of the artists, Miss Gulledge. Mrs. William T. Shore, president of the Charlotte Woman's Club, will preside.

A special guest at both reception and luncheon will be Mrs. Vanderbilt's guest, Mrs. David Morgan.

The Chamber of Commerce will give a dinner at the Chamber of Commerce Building Thursday evening, 8:30 to 7:30 in honor of Mrs. Edith Vanderbilt, who will be a distinguished feature of the Made-in-Carolina Exposition.

The dinner will be limited to 300 guests. Those wishing tickets may secure them by calling at the Chamber of Commerce.

Colonel T. L. Kirkpatrick will be the toastmaster of the occasion, and will introduce Mrs. Vanderbilt, who will make a short talk; and Mrs. W. T. Shore, president of the Charlotte Woman's Club, who will also make a short talk.

The program will last just an hour, after which Mrs. Vanderbilt will be taken to the Constitution Hall, where Society Night will be observed.
