EVER travel a country road and see a long steep hill ahead? And did you notice, as you got nearer the hill it wasn't as steep as it looked at a distance? Much the same with that big sum you intend to save. The job looks up-hill and difficult. But you start toward it bank book in hand. Walking gets easier as you go up. You arrive at the top. (3) Wasn't so steep after all. Don't let high goals discourage you

LENOIR

LENOIR. Sept. 30.—"Hazel Hill." the beautiful country home of Dr. and Mrs. G. H. Carter in the Happy Valley, was transformed into a still more beautiful scene Wednesday morning, with its attractive decorations of varicolored Autumn leaves, as a setting for the wedding of their only daughter. Miss Virginia Carter, one of the most popular as well as beloved and charming young women of the Valley. The fortunate young man is Mr. Noble P. Coppage, of Chesterton, Md. The marriage took place Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock in the parior, amid the richest colors Autumn could contribute to the happy occasion. Rev. P. W. Tucker, pastor of the Lenoir Methodist Church, performed the ceremony. The bride was gowned in a blue going-away suit with accessories to match and carried a brides bouquet. They left immediately after the ceremony on a bridal tour, and will make their home in Detroit, Mich., where the groom is an accountant with the Ford Motor Company. The visiting guests to witness the marriage were Mrs. Frank McDowell, Misses Eloise, Mary and Midred McDowell, Messrs. Jerome Hicks and Glen Smith, all of Morganton, and Dr. and Mrs. G. K. How Does She Do It?

ME hasn't an unlimited amount to spend on her clothes. In fact, you goubt very much whether she has any more than you have. Yet she is always exquisitely gowned. How does she do st?

You meet her on the street. She wears a striking coat. It's not expensive, yet it wins a glance of approval from passersby. For it has a something about it that's different. And when she goes to a matinee, a card party, a dance—it's the same story over again. People do single her out.

It's her clothes of course! But, having only a moderate amount to spend, how does she manage to dress so well?

We'll tell you. She has learned where to shop.

At one time she probably bought her clothes haphazardly-here, there, anywhere. And then she came here! She bought once, twice, three times. Each time she was more satisfied with her purchase than before. She found apparel new, smart, moderately-priced. She met an unfailing courtesy. And so she has continued to buy here season after season, year after
