Cannot Transport Whiskey Inside or Out of Three Mile Limit.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 6.—(By The Associated Press.)—All vessels American and foreign-owned are prohibited from having liquor on board in American territorial waters under an interpretation of the prohibition amendment and enforcement act handed down by the Department of Justice.

Courts action looking to a final determination of the application of American dry laws to foreign ships entering American ports was foreseen by both Attorney General Clegg and Secretary of the Navy.

Chairman Lasker was of the opinion that the first move of enforcement lines would be to seek an injunction restraining the Government from enforcing the law.

Attorney General said his Department would co-operate in every effort to expedite a ruling by the Supreme Court.

CAMPAIGN ISSUES ARE OUTLINED BY TWO DEMOCRATS

Harrison and Hampton Agree That Tariff Bill's Repeal Comes First.

HEFLIN WILL SPEAK TWICE IN CAROLINA

Mrs. Lindsay Patterson Opens Her Campaign for Congress Tonight.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 6.—(By The Asheville Citizen.)—Senator Pat Harrison, of Mississippi, and Frank Hampton, of North Carolina, have outlined the issues of the campaign for the fall election. They say that "fault finding" or "criticism" is the basis of attack of the Republicans.

Mr. Harrison says the issue boiled down to "the immediate repeal of the Foraker-McCumber tariff bill, and the enactment of such changes in the Underwood-Simmons Democratic tariffs as are to meet changed conditions."

Mr. Hampton says the issue is the repeal of the tariff on sugar, and the enactment of such changes in the Underwood-Simmons Democratic tariffs as are to meet changed conditions.

KIRBY TOUNDED SOUTH AS A NON-PARTISAN SUPPORTER

John H. Kirby, of Arkansas, who is himself the principal part of the so-called association, ran about over the South for two or three years claiming to be non-partisan himself and claiming to represent a great body of men.

Upon one pretext or another, Kirby repeated his claims, and managed to get the signatures of many good men throughout the Southern states as members of this so-called Southern Tariff Association.

Kirby was very careful not to use the word "protective" in the name of his largely imaginary organization.

It will be noted that he named his "association" the Southern Tariff Association.

The exposure of this man Kirby a few months ago, in him practically without support in the matter and was under the impression that the signing of a "tariff for revenue."

It was announced yesterday by W. Warren, President of the Central Labor Union, that communications asking support in the extension program had been sent to officials of the clubs mentioned.

U. S. ARMY AVIATORS BREAK RECORD FOR HEAVIER THAN AIR MACHINE FLIGHT

Lieuts. John A. McCreedy and Oakley F. Kelly, U. S. Army aviators, had prepared a non-stop flight across the continent, but failing to get away, they used their machine and all its supplies to stay in the air as long as possible, achieving a world's record.

NEW SUPPORT FOR CITY LIMITS BETTERING PLANS DEVELOP

Would Have Advisable Extent of Enlarging City Limits Determined.

Resolutions requesting that the City Commissioners and the City Planning Commission investigate and determine to what extent the city limits of Asheville should be extended, provide for the drafting of an amendment to the City Charter so as to receive into the corporate limits the suburban districts and that the State Senator and members of the House of Representatives take such action as necessary at the next session of the General Assembly.

The Labor Union officials plan to pass out a circular in which such an amendment would bring Blittmore, Kenilworth, Norwood Park and Grace inside the corporate limits.

NEW ENDORSEMENT FLIGHT RECORD IS MADE IN WEST

Aviators Circle Over San Diego, Calif., for More Than 35 Hours.

SAN DIEGO, Calif., Oct. 6.—Lieutenants John A. McCreedy and Oakley F. Kelly, who had been flying over San Diego since 5:56 a. m. yesterday in the monoplane T-2, landed at Rockwell Field soon after 3 p. m. today, having broken all known records for sustained flight in the heavier-than-air flying machine. They were in the air 35 hours, 18 minutes, 30 seconds.

The aviators were well tired out but willing, they said to have continued their flight except for their desire to reach the ground before darkness should make landing more difficult.

The landing of the big plane was the signal for a mighty chorus of whistling from the vessels in the harbor. When the aviators circled down to the field a small army of spectators was waiting to greet them.

Captain R. G. Erwin, commandant of Rockwell Field, soon after the flight ended, gave out the time the aviators had been aloft as 35 hours, 18 minutes and 30 seconds. The official time of departure was 5:56 a. m., as unofficially given today and the time of the landing was given officially as 5:11:30 p. m.

The aviators were begrimed with oil and grease when they stepped from the big machine in which they had remained aloft, circling over the city for virtually two days and a night. That did not stop Mrs. Benjamin MacCreedy, mother of the aviator, from rushing to greet her son. She kissed him full on his grimy cheek and when she turned around, smiling gladly her lips were black with grease and oil.

OFFICERS FINISH FRINGING CASE IN MURDER MYSTERY

New Questioning Awaits New Brunswick Survivors on Crucial Points.

NEW BRUNSWICK, N. J., Oct. 6.—By an intensive investigation of several of the earliest clues discovered in the double shooting of the Rev. Edward W. Hall and Mrs. James Mills, wife of the church sexton, state and county authorities announced tonight they had constructed a frame-work in which they expected the entire case to hinge.

This frame-work, the authorities said, consists of four cardinal questions to be put to Mrs. Hall and James, when they are summoned for re-questioning, which probably will be tomorrow.

The first of the questions which the authorities say they wish to clear up is the exact number of times which Mills met Mrs. Hall on the day before the discovery of the bodies of the rector and Mrs. Mills in the Somerset County orchard. Mills had said that he first met her in the morning at the church; twice at his own home and once at her home. Mrs. Hall, detectives said, has told them that she met Mills but once—and that was at the church.

The second question concerns the statement of William Phillips, night watchman of the New Jersey State Capitol, that the woman in the polo coat had entered the Hall home early on the morning after the double shooting, was unaccompanied, Mrs. Hall, who had admitted she and a woman to whom Phillips refers, declares she was accompanied by her brother, William Stevens. The third question is why Mrs. Hall failed to make any statement of the large sum of money found in Hall's home and the fourth is why neither she nor Mills in any questioning by Somerset County authorities made any statement of the close friendship and interest which the rector and Mrs. Mills had shown each other.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Oct. 6.—(By The Associated Press.)—Although no definite news has yet been received from Mudania, the allied representatives have gone again to renew their conference with the envoys of the Turkish Nationalist government, at midnight tonight there was a direct contact of optimism among the Allied diplomats here regarding a possible successful outcome of the negotiations.

This feeling prevailed notwithstanding the fact that the Kemalists today issued an ultimatum to the Allies demanding their consent to Turkish occupation of Thrace and the previous rejection by the Kemalists of the proposal for the sending of Allied troops and the establishment of an Allied control commission in the province.

The ultimatum regarding the evacuation of Thrace at first demanded a reply by 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon. Later the time was extended to 6:30 o'clock this evening and still later to 10 o'clock. Meanwhile the Allied generals had sailed for Mudania.

Dispatches received during the day from London and Paris seemed to indicate that the French and British governments still were seeking ground for an agreement upon which they could again face the Turkish delegates with a united front. The feeling was summarized by a staff officer this evening as follows:

"We showed a willingness to go to any honorable length to avoid a rupture. If our pacific advances are not acceptable or are not reciprocated we are ready for eventualities."

French opinion here was inclined to criticize M. Franklin-Bouillon for injecting himself into the conference at Mudania, on the ground that the conference was no place for a civilian and a politician.

"Military men can get along together," said a French colonel, "but one politician makes a mud-puddle of a whole room full of mere soldiers."

Most of the Italians here expressed regret over orders received from Rome directing General Mombelli, the Italian representative at Mudania, to support the Turkish claims. General Mombelli's sturdy attitude at Thursday's meeting at Mudania won for him admiration and respect from the Greek government's having sprung up of a friendship between the Italians and English in Constantinople.

An announcement received from London that former Premier Venizelos is willing to have the Greek troops evacuate Eastern Thrace, thus permitting the early establishment of a Turkish administration there, was considered as offering a way out of the present crisis, but the belief prevailed that the Kemalists would adhere to their expressed intention not to permit the presence in Thrace of Allied control commission.

PARIS, Oct. 6.—(By The Associated Press.)—The French government has instructed its minister at Athens to protest against the Greek government's having sent reinforcements to the Greek army in Thrace.

The impropriety of sending troops into one of the disputed regions at the moment an armistice is in negotiation will be pointed out as will the view that the Greek government by this action is adding to the embarrassment of the situation and to that of the Allies.

Regarding the situation at Mudania, General Pelle, the French high commissioner, telegraphed the foreign office, stating that the generals were returning to Constantinople to consult with the high commissioners.

Although General Pelle is understood to have indicated some of the difficulties arising in the Mudania conference, his dispatch was regarded as not defining them with sufficient fullness to enable the French government to understand the new situation and send instructions.

The two principal perplexities appear to have consisted of the extent of the withdrawal of the British troops from the Asiatic mainland and political questions relating to the temporary administration of Thrace. It was said that the general and high commissioners were meeting this morning in Constantinople and that it was not expected the generals would return to Mudania today.

TURKS' REFUSAL OF ALLIED PLAN ADDS TO GRAVITY

All Now Seems to Depend on Response From the British Cabinet.

BRITISH ASSEMBLY LAND, SEA FORCE

Venizelos Is Advising Against Military Effort by the Greeks.

LONDON, Oct. 6.—(By The Associated Press.)—Dispatches received here tonight give even a graver view of the Eastern situation than that of earlier in the day. The Kemalists are insisting on the right to the immediate occupation of Eastern Thrace and have given an extension time limit, expiring this evening, for a reply on this question. The Turks have refused to accept the proposal for Allied occupation of Thrace or any Allied proposal or apparently they are supported in this stand by the French and Italian governments.

Everything seems now to depend on the British cabinet reply to the report of Brigadier-General Harrington, which was said to be anxiously awaited in Constantinople. It was expected that General Harrington would ask of the British cabinet a time limit for the occupation of Thrace until tomorrow, when he hoped to be in possession of his government's instructions. In the meantime, the British cabinet is expected to meet tomorrow, when he hoped to be in possession of his government's instructions.
