TRAFFIC AMENDMENT OFFERED THURSDAY

Change in Law With Reference to Parking Taxicabs on Broadway Sought by Fitzpatrick.

An ordinance prohibiting owners or operators of public service automobiles from parking more than two of such automobiles belonging to any one person, firm or corporation at any one time on the East side of Broadway in the City of Asheville, was introduced before the Board of City Commissioners at yesterday's session and passed on its first reading. The measure was proposed by Commissioner R. L. Fitzpatrick and must be passed on its second and third reading before it becomes a statute. The text of the proposed measure is as follows:

"Section 1. That an ordinance amending the ordinance regulating traffic within the City of Asheville, adopted by the Board of Commissioners of said City on the 14th day of August, 1922, be and the same is hereby amended by inserting after clause 5, in section 1 thereof, the following:

"Provided however, that on the East side of Broadway for a space of 100 feet from the intersection of the eastern margin of Broadway and the northern margin of College Street, it shall be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation to park at the same time more than two public service motor vehicles owned or controlled either directly or indirectly by any such person, firm or corporation, or to permit or allow any chauffeur or chauffeurs employed by any such person, firm or corporation or other person in control of such vehicles to violate any of the provisions of this ordinance, but at the space above mentioned, subject to the restrictions herein contained, public service vehicles may be parked.

"Section 2. That this ordinance being for the immediate preservation of the public peace and safety of the citizens of said city, is hereby declared an emergency ordinance to take effect upon its first publication in a newspaper published in said city."

LATTA GETS PERMIT FOR STORE BUILDING

Structure to Be Erected on Hillmore Avenue at a Cost of More Than $27,000.

Building permit for the construction of a business building at Hillmore Avenue and Synamore Street was issued by the Board of City Commissioners yesterday to E. D. Latta. The building will cost approximately $27,425 and will be two stories high and accommodations for stores. It will be constructed of brick.

The board also issued a permit to Julia Forney, 52 Clemmons Avenue, repairs, $40.

J. C. Reed, owner of a tract of land near Horse Shoe Curve, complained to the Board he had no ingress or egress to his property. The City Engineer was ordered to make an investigation.

SPEAKERS TO URGE PASSAGE OF BONDS

In the interest of the $50,000 bond issue to go to a vote October 17 at Hay Creek, Judge Thomas A. Jones will speak Friday evening at the Hay Creek school house. Former Governor Locke Craig will speak on Monday evening. Much interest is being taken in this election by citizens of that community who are eager to see the day when the old building will be replaced with a new and modern fireproof structure.

It is reported that numerous signatures are being placed upon the several petitions which have been circulated in the Sand Hill District in order to hold a bond election for $50,000 in order to build a modern school at that section of Buncombe County.

G. T. M'CLURE FILES SUIT FOR DAMAGES

Claims He Is Totally Disabled to Follow His Usual Avocation as a Carpenter.

As a result of an automobile accident, George T. McClure filed suit for damages for $25,000 in the Superior Court yesterday against Frank Ray of Haywood County.

Due to the accident the plaintiff claims he is totally incapacitated to follow his avocation as a carpenter. It is further alleged that he was entirely blameless for the accident and that the plaintiff was permanently injured.

George T. McClure, 308 So. College Street, Asheville, N. C., is suing at Asheville. Home made at Asheville. Plaintiff, before suit brought, was offered the sum of money derived from the sale of his property, but he refused to accept the same for the purpose of Testaments and other papers.

Serious Defects In Land Titles

Some of the most serious defects in land titles are not to be found in the public record. A mortgagee or purchaser is not fully protected by a simple abstract or certificate of title. Only Title Insurance can give him complete protection. For it goes back of the record.
