If your hair is falling out or you are troubled with dandruff or itching scalp use Parisian Sage daily for a week. You will be surprised to see how quickly it stops all itching, checks falling hair and removes every sign of dandruff.

"Before going to bed, I rub a little Parisian Sage into my scalp," says a woman whose abundant and curly hair is greatly admired. "This keeps my hair from being dry, faded or scraggly, helps it retain its natural color and beauty, and makes it easy to arrange attractively."

Beautiful, soft, glossy, healthy hair, and lots of it, is a simple matter for those who use Parisian Sage. This harmless, delicately perfumed and non-greasy invigorator is sold by Smith's Drug Store and at all good drug and toilet counters. Be sure you get the genuine Parisian Sage (Glorux) as that has the money-back guarantee printed on every bottle.—Adv.

Clouds and Sunshine Is a Pleasing Old Fashioned Comedy

A good, old-fashioned comedy-drama "Clouds and Sunshine" was presented by the Pack Players last night as the first performance of an engagement of three days duration. "Clouds and Sunshine" presents a story that is interesting throughout, a story which deals with the romance of the rector of a small church and the village school teacher. To shield the teacher from the gossip of scandal mongers, the rector brings the girl into his house and places her in the charge of his housekeeper. He promptly proceeds to fall in love and the rector's marriage is accepted. The girl neglects to tell of a previous marriage, the bonds of which she had thought broken by death, until the first husband appears on the scene at a most untimely moment. Faced by the fact that to keep her secret she must marry a divorcee, a situation which is frowned on by him, the minister has the mental battle of his lifetime. Of course, as all good plays should, it ends with everybody happy.

Earl Mayo, as the minister, was most convincing, while Blanche Wilcox was given many moments of dramatic height. The comedy interest was well placed in the hands of Joe McEwen and Virginia Brown, members of the cast who gave excellent support were Jack Higgins, Jessie McEwen, and Harry S. Carter.
