West Declared After House Organization For The Progressives

DISSATISFACTION BIG EARTHQUAKE BEING FELT WITH HITS CHILE, TIDAL CONGRESS THERE WAVES IN HAWAII

Section Feels It Is Controlled by East in Later's Interest. MAY RESUME OLD INSURGENT FIGHT Probable Change of Leadership Are Uppermost in Conferences.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 11.—Administration leaders are in for a hard time. The "turn over" in the section day was so surprising and shocking to them that they are prepared for almost anything. The West is rising in its might and asking for a Progressive organization in the House.

Governor J. A. O. Pugh, of Minnesota, who pulled through by the skin of his teeth, was here today. He said that Congress caused much of the dissatisfaction in the West.

Probably Leadership Changes Now Apparent WASHINGTON, Nov. 11.—Probably changes in the leadership of both great parties in the next Congress took a predominant place today in post-election decisions here and in conferences among members of the Senate and House.

WOMEN'S PARTY DECLARATION OF RIGHTS SWEEPING

WASHINGTON, Nov. 11.—Officers of the Women's National Party, today unanimously adopted a far-reaching declaration of rights for women in the home, church, industry and government.

Speakers on the labor question argued that the industrial revolution applying to hours and conditions should apply alike to women and men, and that women did not have equal rights in the church, industry and government.

WHEN OUR SHIP COMES IN BY BILLY BORNE

ENGLAND LAUGHS AS WEEKS CUTS BRITAIN'S SPEECH

Fortesque Expresses Regret He Made Objectionable Remarks. NEW YORK, Nov. 11.—John Fortesque, President of the Royal Historical Society of Great Britain, whose invitation to make an Armistice Day address at West Point was revoked yesterday by Secretary Weeks because of remarks derogatory to America made in a book written by Mr. Fortesque, today expressed his regret that he had ever written the passage attacking America.

Two unparliamentary references, Fortesque said, took place in 1818, or thereabouts, in a foot race between an American and another competitor in England, the American had won the race unfairly and had been disqualified.

PROMINENT PLACE TO INCIDENT IN THE PRESS

LONDON, Nov. 11.—(By The Associated Press.)—Some of the London newspapers give prominent place to account of the withdrawal by the American Secretary of War for an invitation for the Hon. John William Fortesque to address the West Point cadets on Armistice Day.

Under the caption "The Comedy of the Ban," The Evening Standard devotes more than a column to an editorially written story in which it points out the withdrawal of the invitation as a "world joke" and "a world joke in development."

Spot Where Germans Signed Armistice Is Marked On Saturday

RETHONDES, France, Nov. 11.—(By The Associated Press.)—The spot where Germany gave up the struggle in the great World War was marked for posterity today. In the little clearing in the forest of Compiègne, near the village of Rethondes, beside the River Aisne where the armistice was signed in 1918, a commemorative monument was unveiled.

President Millerand, assisted by Marshal Foch and Premier Poincaré, sealed the last stone in the great composite slab placed by the League of Nations midway between the two railway lines on which stood, on the one side, the car of Marshal Foch, and on the other, that of the German armistice emissaries, from November 8 until November 11, four years ago.

BOLL WEEVIL'S CONTROL IS SAID TO BE ASSURED

FLORIDA EXPERT SAYS HE HAS CHEAP AND EFFECTIVE EXTERMINATOR. GAINESVILLE, Fla., Nov. 11.—(By The Associated Press.)—Development of a satisfactory method of controlling the boll weevil on short staple or upland cotton was announced here tonight by Dr. Wilmon Newell, plant commissioner for the state plant board and director of the University of Florida experiment station.

Dr. Newell's announcement was made as the result of the successful culmination of research work by George D. Smith, associate entomologist, conducted under the auspices of the state plant board.

Under the caption "The Comedy of the Ban," The Evening Standard devotes more than a column to an editorially written story in which it points out the withdrawal of the invitation as a "world joke" and "a world joke in development."

Prominent Military Leaders In Asheville For Armistice Event; Unknown Soldier Is Given Honor

TWO HIGHWAYS ARE DEDICATED TO SERVE MEN PEACE—WILSON WORDS WILL NOT BRING WORLD'S TRIBUTE GRIPPING SIMPLICITY AND SINCERITY OF TRIBUTE

One Honors Old Hickory, the Other the Wildcat Division. FAISON AND BAILEY AMONG SPEAKERS Men Declared Looking Forward to Another Reunion in Asheville.

Asheville on Armistice Day paid tribute to those who made the supreme sacrifice in the World War, through the dedication to posterity of the two great East and West and North and South highways of North Carolina.

With a big parade in which many organizations participated, a spirited football match at Oates Park, dedicatory services at the Auditorium, and a dance-reception last night at the Battery Park Hotel, the members of the local posts of the American Legion, Old Hickory and Wildcat Divisions observed the fourth anniversary of the coming of peace following the titanic struggle.

Celebration of business for two hours Saturday morning, at the time of the parade, marked the contribution of merchants to the holiday spirit commemorating the signing of the Armistice at Compiègne, in the city of the American Legion, Old Hickory and Wildcat Divisions observed the fourth anniversary of the coming of peace following the titanic struggle.

Mr. Wilson's address was in response to one delivered to him by Henry Morgenthau, former ambassador to Turkey, who declared by Mr. Wilson's principles, announced by Mr. Wilson during the war, would prevail and that on his leadership it had been demonstrated that "the people of America are escaping from materialism and selfishness and are preparing to recognize their solemn and inexorable duty towards their fellow nations in Europe."

OLD HICKORY AND WILDCAT REUNION HERE IS PROPOSED

BAILEY AND FAISON BOTH ENDORSE PLAN FOR 1923 ARMISTICE EVENT. Baring the endorsement of Major General Charles J. Bailey, Commander of the Eighty-First, and Brigadier General J. L. Faison, of the Thirtieth, plans were launched yesterday for a joint reunion of the Wildcat and Old Hickory Divisions, to be held in Asheville, on Armistice Day, November 11, 1923, exactly five years after the signing of the Armistice.

Should final plans be completed for staging the joint reunion in Asheville, and officers are confident that success will crown their efforts, the reunion would probably open at 11 o'clock, a. m., the hour the Germans signed the Armistice.

HUGE PARADE IS STAGED FOR DAY AT WILMINGTON

MORRISON SPEAKS—POST GETS CORDIAL LETTER FROM WAR PRESIDENT. WILMINGTON, Nov. 11.—Addresses by Governor Cameron Morrison and General A. J. Bowley and a huge parade that stretched over three miles in length featured Armistice Day exercises here today.

Greetings from former President Woodrow Wilson, expressing a deep appreciation for the letter received from the local American Legion, and voicing the hope that he might some day be able to address his comrades of the Wilmington Post in person were read by Commander Cartwright of the Wilmington Post of the American Legion and were received with tremendous applause.

WORLD WILL HEAR IT WASHINGTON, Nov. 11.—(By The Associated Press.)—Former President Wilson left the White House today, and will go to every corner of the earth. It rains clear, and will go to every corner of the earth. It rains clear, and will go to every corner of the earth.
