

Including "Polly and Her Pals," "Bringing Up Father" and "Mutt and Jeff" add the fun of the day to the day. Enjoy them on the page of The Asheville Citizen.

THE WEATHER

WASHINGTON, Nov. 13.—Forecast for North Carolina: Local showers Tuesday and Wednesday; moderate temperature.

ESTABLISHED 1868

ASHEVILLE, N. C., TUESDAY MORNING, NOVEMBER 14, 1922.

PRICE FIVE CENTS

TRANSFERS UNDER PERMITS FROM NORTH CAROLINA TO OTHER STATES

Believe Kemalists Have Decided to Await the Lausanne Parley. Go to Oteen, Atlanta, Memphis and Lake City, Florida.

REMODELING WORK BEGINS DECEMBER 1

Orders for Staff at Kenilworth Expected in Next Few Days.

Official orders for the removal of all patients from Kenilworth Hospital by December 1, have been received by Colonel T. H. Payne, Medical Officer in Charge, and transferring of patients will begin early next week, it was announced yesterday.

Colonel Payne states that all of the surgical cases, 38 in number, will be moved to Oteen Hospital, early next week, and the other 53 patients of the total of 91 at the hospital will be moved to Atlanta, Memphis, and Lake City, Fla. Colonel Payne has received no orders as to his future station, but it is expected that orders for the entire staff will be received during the next few days.

Colonel James E. Miller, Medical Officer in Charge, at Oteen, said last night that arrangements have already been made to care for the 38 surgical patients, under recent orders, in ward 1-5.

Mr. Chiles states that work of remodeling the building so that it will present an entirely new interior and exterior, will be started on December 1, and $100,000 will be expended for the entire project.

Furnishings will begin arriving at an early date, representing an investment of $25,000 for the formal opening of Kenilworth Inn, under the management of J. H. Marvel, on Washington's Birthday, February 22, 1923.

The grounds of the Inn, comprising 18 and one-half acres, will be placed in first-class condition and in keeping with Kenilworth, which will be one of the finest hotels in the South, it is asserted.

CLAIM EIGHT MEN USED U. S. MAILS TO DEFRAUD

ENHACOLA, Fla., Nov. 13.—Many purported victims from various parts of the country but only four of the defendants are expected to appear in court tomorrow for the case of eight men charged with using the mails to defraud in connection with the promotion of a scheme to build a canal through the town of Vaiparaisa in Okaloosa County near here.

The eight men, named early in the morning, are John B. Herrine, founder of the Vaiparaisa Development Company, his two sons, Leslie and Charles, and the brothers, M. G. Gaskill, of DeBunk Springs, Fla.; A. H. Kastler, William McCollum, M. H. Cartwright and J. F. Gross.

The indictments were returned; McCollum was granted a severance, while the government has not yet been able to identify McCollum and Kastler to this State. Kastler is understood to be in Chicago and McCollum in Pennsylvania.

The men are charged with having held out in literature sent through the mails, promising to give, and to receive, the terms beyond hope of fulfillment.

The development company went into liquidation, and the assets were returned and the company's affairs, which included those of the firm, were taken over by James E. Blevin, of Chicago, at an auction sale.

ENGLISH ACTOR'S CASES GOES TO WASHINGTON

NEW YORK, Nov. 13.—Hearing on the plea of Carrie Carlton, theatrical producer, and Charles E. Kinnear, an undesirable alien of Pat Somerset, English actor, was conditionally closed by a board of inquiry at Ellis Island today when the papers go to Washington for review.

Witnesses today included both Somerset and Kinnear, and also Charles Carlton, known on the stage as Edith Day, Somerset's sister-in-law, who is in England. The hearing was behind closed doors.

Pennsylvania to Top All States in Big House Committee Heads in New Congress if Seniority Rule Stands

WASHINGTON, Nov. 13.—Pennsylvania, with seven, will top all the States in big House committee heads in the new Congress, unless the seniority rule is abrogated.

It is said there are 48 standing committees, but some of them have little to do with important legislation. The seven important chairmanships Pennsylvania is expected to have are: Banking, currency and affairs, judiciary, navy, postoffice and printing, a gain of two.

Iowa will have four—all big ones. They are: Ways and means, agriculture, education and commerce, and insular affairs, although Chairman Tower, of the latter, could relinquish control there to take education, lost to Ohio through the shift of Representative Pease to the Senate.

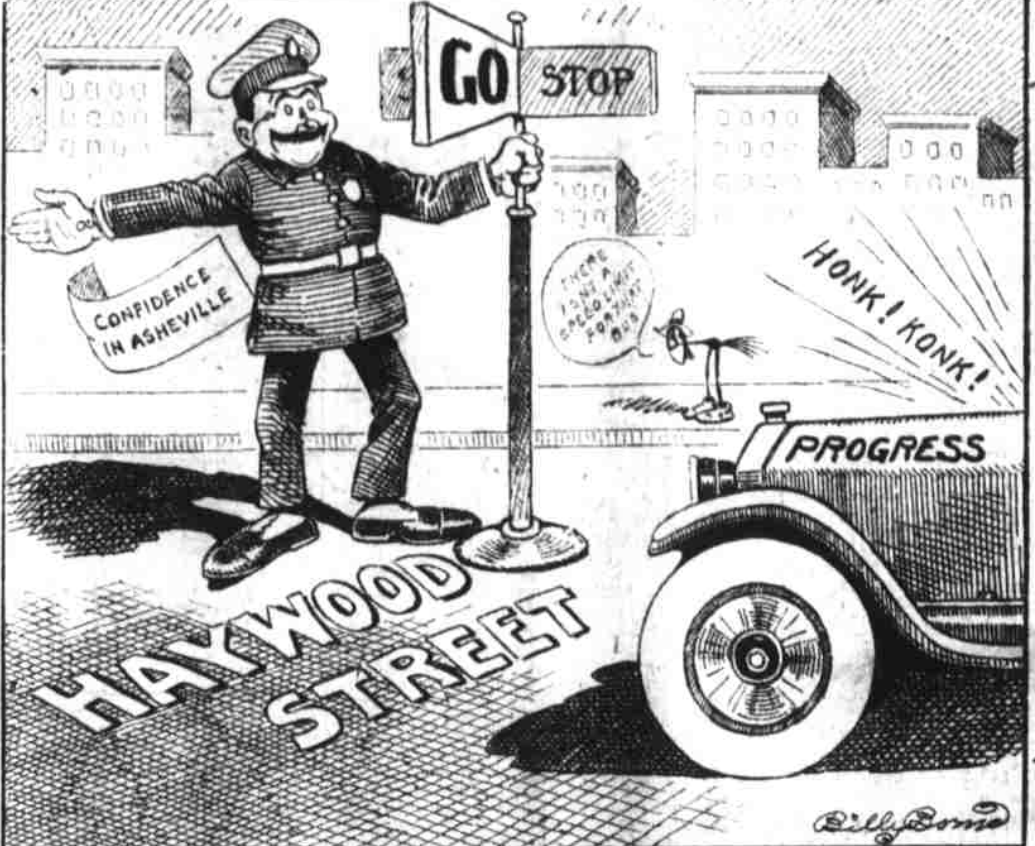

Illinois will hold to appropriations, the biggest committee of the House and rules will pass from Kansas to New York. Rivers and harbors, accounts, and Indian affairs will remain with New York, which has few Indians like those who used to be there.

In the present House with a delegation, Ohio has the chairmanships of only one big committee—education. Members insist on the old seniority system, and insist to keep them out of honors they claim as their due.

The far West will hold on to several important committees, labor, military and territories, and Minnesota had best keep the heads of judiciary and postoffice.

SHOWING SOME SPEED

BY BILLY BORNE

SUMMEY CHOSEN AS NEW PRESIDENT BY LOG ROLLERS

HENDERSONVILLE, Nov. 13.—Two hundred delegates, about one-third of whom were women, representing the 15 W. O. W. Camps and Woodmen Circle Groves in Western North Carolina gathered in Hendersonville Monday for the 21st semi-annual convention of the Western North Carolina Log Rolling Association.

GEORGIA WOMAN MAY SERVE EIGHT DAYS IN SEVENTH

ATLANTA, Ga., Nov. 13.—The date fixed today for the presentation of evidence in the Hall-Mills murder mystery to the Somers County grand jury was unfixable again tonight.

NEW SHERIFF IS CAUSE OF DELAY IN MURDER CASE

SOMERVILLE, N. J., Nov. 13.—The date fixed today for the presentation of evidence in the Hall-Mills murder mystery to the Somers County grand jury was unfixable again tonight.

Delay in Final Count of Senator-Elect's Votes, the Cause.

ATLANTA, Ga., Nov. 13.—The date fixed today for the presentation of evidence in the Hall-Mills murder mystery to the Somers County grand jury was unfixable again tonight.

Two Hundred at Hendersonville—Next Convention at Brevard.

HENDERSONVILLE, Nov. 13.—Two hundred delegates, about one-third of whom were women, representing the 15 W. O. W. Camps and Woodmen Circle Groves in Western North Carolina gathered in Hendersonville Monday for the 21st semi-annual convention of the Western North Carolina Log Rolling Association.

ASKS JURY TO ACQUIT MRS. CLARA PHILLIPS

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 13.—A plea for the acquittal of Mrs. Clara Phillips, a woman charged with the murder of her husband, was made today by her attorney, J. H. C. Phillips.

Conservatives to Have the Largest Group in Next House of Commons, Belief of Most English Newspapers

LONDON, Nov. 13.—(By The Associated Press.) While all the newspapers of Great Britain practically concede that the conservatives will have the largest group in the next House of Commons, if not a majority over all the others combined, when the Liberal party, which opposed the coalition, are in no wise satisfied with this prospect.

STEAMER IS FLOATED AND REVENUE VOYAGE

NEW YORK, Nov. 13.—The steamer Oscar II, of the Scandinavian American line, which will carry 98 passengers aboard, was launched today at the entrance to Christiansund, and has been floated and is now being towed to Copenhagen by a tugboat.

FIVE CENTRAL AMERICAN REPUBLICS ACCEPT

WASHINGTON, Nov. 13.—Formal acceptance by all of the five Central American republics invited by Secretary Hughes to participate in a conference here, beginning December 4 on land disarmament and better relations between the nations of the Americas, was announced today.

General Naturalization Act In Force.

The two questions decided by the court were whether the general naturalization act of June 29, 1906, was limited by the provisions of section 2169 of the revised statutes, authorizing the naturalization of "free white persons and their children, born in and descended from free white persons, and whether if so limited, Japanese were eligible to naturalization.

ARGUE ADVALOEN CASE MONDAY

Appeals from decision by a three judge court are now being argued in the United States Supreme Court, and will be argued in Washington next Monday, according to reports in the case.

LATEST SUMMARY GIVES DEMOCRATS 70,000 MAJORITY

North Carolina Figures by Col. Watts Nearest Official Canvass.

APPOINTMENT FOR HERIOT CLARKSON

Morrison Allows Prisoner to Attend Funeral of Father.

Number of Dead In Earthquake In Chile Grows

Copiapo Needing Medical Assistance—Canaval Without Food.

SANTIAGO, Chile, Nov. 13.—(By The Associated Press.)—Consternation grows as the extent of the earthquake of last Friday night is revealed. The number of dead grows hourly as belated reports come in from the stricken provinces of Copiapo and Atacama.

Many towns and villages of populations of around 1000 have not been heard from and their fate being known only when communication is fully restored.

SANTIAGO, Nov. 13.—(By the Associated Press.)—The homeless Copiapo and vicinity number 3,500, according to official dispatches, which do not estimate the number of dead from the earthquake and tidal waves. The suburb of Victoria has been destroyed.

Latest dispatches confirm the quake's destructive work at Copiapo and Canaval, the latter place in dire need of medical assistance. Firemen and Boy Scouts are doing all possible to render aid to the destitute.

The municipal theatre and the principal churches were among the buildings wrecked by the shock, and nearly all the dwelling houses at Copiapo were levelled.

JAPANESE CANNOT BECOME CITIZENS OF THIS COUNTRY

U. S. Supreme Court Holds in Ascertaining "the Will of Congress."

WASHINGTON, Nov. 13.—Japanese cannot be naturalized in the United States and cannot become citizens of this country, the Supreme Court of the United States decided today, in its first construction of Federal statutes bearing on the subject.

The ruling is expected to attract wide attention, not only in the United States, but throughout the world, because of its diplomatic significance. The case has been long pending in the Supreme Court and last term when reached for argument, the conference on limitation of armament and Far Eastern questions came up and consideration was postponed.

The executive has offered the Charlotte attorney appointments before he has resigned them.

The McLenon Law and Order League, which was organized at the outgrowth of a McLenon revival at Rockingham, was a factor instrumental in procuring four arrests for violation of the law on the county roads.

The four men, David Reynolds, Will C. Whitley and Bob and Rich Meacham, were convicted of violating the law on the county roads.

The executive considered them as a factor instrumental in procuring four arrests for violation of the law on the county roads.

The executive considered them as a factor instrumental in procuring four arrests for violation of the law on the county roads.

The executive considered them as a factor instrumental in procuring four arrests for violation of the law on the county roads.

The executive considered them as a factor instrumental in procuring four arrests for violation of the law on the county roads.

The executive considered them as a factor instrumental in procuring four arrests for violation of the law on the county roads.

The executive considered them as a factor instrumental in procuring four arrests for violation of the law on the county roads.

The executive considered them as a factor instrumental in procuring four arrests for violation of the law on the county roads.

The executive considered them as a factor instrumental in procuring four arrests for violation of the law on the county roads.

The executive considered them as a factor instrumental in procuring four arrests for violation of the law on the county roads.

The executive considered them as a factor instrumental in procuring four arrests for violation of the law on the county roads.

The executive considered them as a factor instrumental in procuring four arrests for violation of the law on the county roads.

The executive considered them as a factor instrumental in procuring four arrests for violation of the law on the county roads.

The executive considered them as a factor instrumental in procuring four arrests for violation of the law on the county roads.

The executive considered them as a factor instrumental in procuring four arrests for violation of the law on the county roads.

The executive considered them as a factor instrumental in procuring four arrests for violation of the law on the county roads.

RAILROADS PLAN TO AGAIN APPEAL INCOME TAX CASE

To Appeal to U. S. Supreme Court From Judge H. G. Connor's Decision.

AD VALOREM CASE UP NEXT MONDAY

Connor's Decision Compels Payment Annually of $145,000.

RALEIGH, N. C., Nov. 13.—Judge H. C. Connor, United States District Court, today filed a decision holding that the four railroads operating in this State must pay the State of North Carolina $145,000 annually in contested income taxes and railroad attorneys immediately set about making preparations to file a petition for an appeal to the United States Supreme Court.

The decision of Judge Connor noting the difference between the assessment of the State and the contention of the railroads shows the Southern assessed at $71,523.06; admitted $13,798.55; Atlantic Coast Line assessed $41,686.96; admitted $9,996.15; Norfolk Southern assessed $19,616.48; admitted nothing; Seaboard Air Line assessed $13,193. admitted nothing.

The opinion of the court is contained in one paragraph, the remainder of the decree being devoted to a presentation of the contentions of the railroads on the subject, after setting forth, Judge Connor says:

"It is adjudged and decreed that the plaintiff is not entitled to have the defendants estimate and re-assess taxes against the railroads, as duties imposed upon them by the statutes of North Carolina relative to administering, assessing, levying and enforcing or collecting income taxes against the railroads, in that the bill is dismissed and the plaintiff be taxed with the costs to be taxed by the clerk."

Eliminate Necessity of Three Judge Court. The necessity of a three judge court was eliminated in the income tax case and the cases were heard by Judge Connor on the first hearing.

The railroads were brought in support of their position that the general rule had not been applied to the railroads but the general rule in the income tax case was that the railroads should be entitled to deductions for sums paid in interest and rents.

The State contended that the only distinction involved was upon appeal in that made necessary by the character of the cases and that for practical purposes, the railroads should be treated as ordinary taxpayers.

The State contended that the only distinction involved was upon appeal in that made necessary by the character of the cases and that for practical purposes, the railroads should be treated as ordinary taxpayers.

The State contended that the only distinction involved was upon appeal in that made necessary by the character of the cases and that for practical purposes, the railroads should be treated as ordinary taxpayers.

The State contended that the only distinction involved was upon appeal in that made necessary by the character of the cases and that for practical purposes, the railroads should be treated as ordinary taxpayers.

The State contended that the only distinction involved was upon appeal in that made necessary by the character of the cases and that for practical purposes, the railroads should be treated as ordinary taxpayers.

The State contended that the only distinction involved was upon appeal in that made necessary by the character of the cases and that for practical purposes, the railroads should be treated as ordinary taxpayers.

The State contended that the only distinction involved was upon appeal in that made necessary by the character of the cases and that for practical purposes, the railroads should be treated as ordinary taxpayers.

The State contended that the only distinction involved was upon appeal in that made necessary by the character of the cases and that for practical purposes, the railroads should be treated as ordinary taxpayers.

The State contended that the only distinction involved was upon appeal in that made necessary by the character of the cases and that for practical purposes, the railroads should be treated as ordinary taxpayers.

The State contended that the only distinction involved was upon appeal in that made necessary by the character of the cases and that for practical purposes, the railroads should be treated as ordinary taxpayers.

The State contended that the only distinction involved was upon appeal in that made necessary by the character of the cases and that for practical purposes, the railroads should be treated as ordinary taxpayers.

The State contended that the only distinction involved was upon appeal in that made necessary by the character of the cases and that for practical purposes, the railroads should be treated as ordinary taxpayers.

The State contended that the only distinction involved was upon appeal in that made necessary by the character of the cases and that for practical purposes, the railroads should be treated as ordinary taxpayers.

The State contended that the only distinction involved was upon appeal in that made necessary by the character of the cases and that for practical purposes, the railroads should be treated as ordinary taxpayers.

The State contended that the only distinction involved was upon appeal in that made necessary by the character of the cases and that for practical purposes, the railroads should be treated as ordinary taxpayers.

The State contended that the only distinction involved was upon appeal in that made necessary by the character of the cases and that for practical purposes, the railroads should be treated as ordinary taxpayers.

The State contended that the only distinction involved was upon appeal in that made necessary by the character of the cases and that for practical purposes, the railroads should be treated as ordinary taxpayers.

The State contended that the only distinction involved was upon appeal in that made necessary by the character of the cases and that for practical purposes, the railroads should be treated as ordinary taxpayers.

The State contended that the only distinction involved was upon appeal in that made necessary by the character of the cases and that for practical purposes, the railroads should be treated as ordinary taxpayers.

The State contended that the only distinction involved was upon appeal in that made necessary by the character of the cases and that for practical purposes, the railroads should be treated as ordinary taxpayers.

The State contended that the only distinction involved was upon appeal in that made necessary by the character of the cases and that for practical purposes, the railroads should be treated as ordinary taxpayers.

The State contended that the only distinction involved was upon appeal in that made necessary by the character of the cases and that for practical purposes, the railroads should be treated as ordinary taxpayers.

WE HAVE WITH US TODAY

CLYDE R. HOEY

"Asheville is the garden spot of North Carolina, one of the most progressive cities and one of the most widely known," declared Clyde R. Hoey, of Shelby, a member of Congress and a widely known lawyer, who is attending the November term of United States District Court.

Mr. Hoey in talking with a representative of The Citizen, stated that Cleveland County ranks sixth in North Carolina in the raising of cotton, although in the very foothills of the Blue Ridge.

"This is a view to determining the status of the 10 men in custody are expected to get under way tomorrow."

"Cleveland County will produce cotton valued at over $3,000,000, along with many other valuable crops," he said, "and the industry makes the County rich."

Mr. Hoey, who has represented Shelby and Cleveland County in numerous capacities, is a strong booster of Asheville, and a street that frequent trips to Asheville is the ambition of Shelby residents.