PROHIBITION CASES IN DISTRICT COURT

SENTENCES OF ONE DAY TO FIVE MONTHS

Fines amounting to $875 Are Assessed Against Defendants—Gibson Fined $500.

Sentences totaling 27 months and fines amounting to $475 were assessed against defendants tried for violation of the prohibition laws in United States District Court yesterday by Judge E. Yates Webb with at least 20 cases of the heavy racket disposed of during the day's session.

Among the out-of-town attorneys representing defendants at the session yesterday were D. P. Morrow and Senator Sol Galletti of Rutherfordton; Ralph Fisher of Brevard; and Ex-Congressman Clyde Hoey of Shelby.

Joe Morgan, E. P. Robinson and Floyd Galloway, a trio from Transylvania County, were given sentences of four months each for violation of the prohibition laws. The case of Charles Tolly, of Vance County, was opened, but was not completed.

After John Price, of Madison County, submitted evidence, his case was not passed. John H. Pritchard, Polk County, also submitted the evidence in his case to the court. Charley Anders and Joe Harding were each sentenced to four months and Tom Bagwell was given two months.

The case against Tony Pace and Gladys Rhoades was not passed with leave, after evidence had been submitted to the court. Dick Duke pleaded guilty and was fined a total of $75. Will Pace was found guilty, but his case was not completed.

Ed Aiken, Transylvania County, submitted evidence in his case and was adjudged guilty and fined $100. Winfield Brown is under suspended judgment after it was shown that he had served five months in jail. Reese Rhoades and Leroy Pace were found guilty as to manufacturing and were given sentences of one month each.

Gass Gibson, of Macon, with a fine of $500 and a sentence of two months drew the heaviest penalty of the day.

ARRANGE PROGRAMS FOR NINE BANQUETS

EXCELLENT SPEAKERS BEING SECURED

Friday to Be Principal Day in Observance of "Father and Son Week" by Asheville.

Chairmen of the nine banquets which will be held at the various churches and schools of the city Friday evening in observance of "Father and Son Week" are working on the programs which will be held at the banquets. Excellent speakers are being secured, and other interesting things are being worked up. Each banquet will have an individual program.

While many of the pastors of Asheville churches preached special sermons last Sunday on the week and its significance, the majority will hold their special services this coming Sunday.

Friday afternoon has been set apart by those in charge, as a special occasion of the week, when fathers are asked to take their sons on a picnic in the mountains, or to attend the football game together. Asheville and Salisbury high schools play on Friday for the group title in the State championship race.
