FIVE CHARRED BODIES

Ben Burchfield, Jailed at Blountsville, Protests Innocence.

BRISTOL. Va.-Tenn., Nov. 27.—
While Ben Burchfield, in Jall at Blountaville, reiterated his denial of responsibility for the death of five persons whose charred bodies were found in the ruins of the Burchfield home here early Sunday, funeral services were conducted this afternoon for the victims of the tragedy. Hundreds of people thronged the little undertaking establishment where the services were conducted by the Rev. G. T. Byrd, pastor of the Methodist Church, assisted by Captain William Piews, of the Salvation Army. The bodies of James W. Smith, his wife and their two-year-old daughter, Ruby, were buried here. Those of Mrs. Burchfield, wife of Ben Burchfield, and their 12-year-old son, Charles, were chaimed by greatives and removed to Elizabethion, Tenn., for interment.
