The Edenton Cornet Band returned from Windsor in greatest glee. They speak well of their trip and will ever recur with pleasure to the joyous occasion which brought them in contact with so many of Bertie's most charming sons and daughters.

At Hertford Court last week our agent, Mr. S. P. Wixon was shown a stalk of cotton then on exhibition containing eighty-six well developed bowls. It was grown by Mr. W. L. Boswell, of Perquimans county, who had about ten acres cultivated, all of which being entirely up to the sample exhibited.

The success of some of the agents employed by B. F. Johnson & Co., Richmond, Va., is truly marvellous. It is not an unusual thing for their agents to make as high as $20 and $30 a day, and sometimes their profits run up as high as $40 and $50—even more. But we hesitate to tell you the whole truth, or need of anything in this line write me for you will scarcely believe we are in earnest. Write them and see for yourself what they will do for you.

We congratulate the firm of Messrs. Etheridge Fulgham & Co., and Ham-burger Bros., of Norfolk, Va., upon their securing the services of Mr. J. J. EDENTON N. C., July 28, 1887.

To the Public:-We are glad to an nounce that Mr. F. P. Hall, a graduate of Davidson College, N. C., and a teach er of successful experience, will on the 1st Monday in October next. open a School in Edenton for boys and girls. The terms will be reasonable and will be published later. Mr. Hall brings with him the very nighest endorsements, as a gentleman and a teacher. He is employed by a number of citizens, who feel the need of increased educational advantages in Edenton and whose ONLY purpose is to promote that object. No means will be We have been appointed to make the announcement and to ask the patronage and good will of our people for the-

When first he came among us, eight vears ago, L. Levy considered himself compelled to occupy a store which, from its retired situation, he called country. After, when opportunity offered, he moved to the Rosenthall store when he thought himself in town. Now, controlled by business interests, the firm moves again, and, this time, to the large and spacious building formerly occupied by Messrs. Skinner and Parsons, Main street, which situation he declares to be in the mindst of the city and, of all places, most attractive to ...

His infe experience as a merchant warrants him in saying that to advertise prices amounts to simple nonsense. Call and examine goods, see for yourselves their quality and then let the price control your purchase as he is determaned to close out the remnant of goods on hand in order to make room for a New Fall and Winter Stock which will be selected in the great city of New York with which no market can successfully compete.

Thanking my customers and public generally for past favors and asking a continuation of the same. I respectfully subscribe myself for the firm

Dillon building, formerly occupied by

Skinner & Parsons. Look-out for ad when he returns.
