WANTED—A good oyster opener by R. B. Hayes.

Miss Irene Davenport is visiting friends in E. City.

Pasquotank Court opened yesterday at E. City for one week.

Something New—"O. K. Pure Rye Whisky," at A. L. Gregory's. Try it.

Miss Kate D. Sharp returned last night from her visit to Hertford county.

Mr. Jno. Wood and Mrs. A. T. Bush came up from Nag's Head Thursday last.

For a good cigar and an excellent smoke try a "Codcil"—at Gregory's.

Miss Sadie Eason, of Hickory, Va., is visiting Miss Cora Mitchell, her schoolmate.

"Dixie's Daisy," 3 for 10c has the lead—for sale by Gregory—Smoke one.

R. W. Winborne, of Murfreesboro and Geo. Cooper, of Winton, are at the Bay View.

Edenton was well represented at the Philadelphia constitutional centennial last week.

We are sorry to add the name of Mr. W. J. Moore to our sick roll this week. Hope he may soon recover.

For a good smoke try "Dixie's Daisy," 3 for 10c, at Gregory's—as good as any "five center" in town.

The residence of Mr. M. F. Bond, Main St., is a handsome structure—a fit ornament to our growing town.

The Str. Chowan came down last night quite improved. She has been thoroughly repaired and neatly painted.

We recommend the "Codcil" cigar at Gregory's as a good smoker with a delightful flavor. It beats any we have tried.

Two families and several young men came up from Nag's Head this week. The old place is now almost entirely deserted.

Miss Fanny Ballard, who has been visiting Miss Cora Mitchell, of this place, returned to her home Churchland, Va., Saturday.

Our Business Manager leaves to day to attend Court at E. City. We trust he will return with quite a number of new subscribers.

Mr. John Wood's family and Miss Annie Wood of Edenton are visiting Mrs. Elizabeth Martin on Church street says the Falcon.

WANTED—A man to do good Black Smith work and Horse Shoeing. Permanent position guaranteed. Apply to I. A. Harris, Edenton, N. C.

Mr. J. Whetstone of Camden, fills the position at the R. R. depot made vacant by Jos. Pugh Esq., who is now doing business in Norfolk.

Yesterday and to-day constitute the Jewish New-Year. Our citizens of that nationality have closed their places of business in honor of the occasion.

WANTED—A man with a small capital to engage in a paying business in Edenton. For information apply to "H," FISHERMAN & FARMER'S Office.

Call at H. A. Bond's and get good Oranges, 25c a dozen, Lemons, 30c a doz., the Best Butter, 30c a pound, Snuff and Fine Tobacco. Nice assortment of Fish Hooks, all cheap.

Our Post Master, Mr. L. L. Brinkley, is in receipt of a large number of Agricultural Reports sent him for distribution by Hon. T. G. Skinner. Farmers can get them upon application.

Mr. J. R. B. Hathaway gives a pleasing account of the display made at the constitutional Centennial, Philadelphia. The crowd is immense and is said to be the largest ever assembled on the Continent.

Mr. J. L. Rogerson, the popular proprietor of the Woodard House returned from a Northern trip on Monday. He is looking well, as free from malaria as an mountain host or a Nag's Head landlord.

Just Received, by H. A. Bond—Fresh Oranges, 25c a dozen, Fresh Lemons, 30c a doz., N. Y. State Gilt Edge Butter, 30c a pound, Onions to suit the change, Concentrated Lye and Condensed Milk.

Mr. L. L. Rolfe, former Foreman of the Enquirer office, is now clerk at the Bay View Hotel. Mr. Rolfe is a polite and polished young man and will doubtless fill the position suitably and with success.

Mr. Julian G. Wood left on Saturday for a prospecting tour through the west. He will be absent for some time and, should he find a suitable place may arrange for permanently locating. We hate to give up so good a citizen although it is naturally expected that with the course of empire, the young will westward wend their way.

J. W. Cox, Esq., formerly a typo in the Enquirer office, left for Philadelphia Saturday last. Mr. Cox is a gentleman of standing and we commend him, as such, to the favor of the craft wherever he may chance to be.

Elizabeth Bateman, daughter of Thomas Long, can get valuable information leading to the possession of certain money, due her, by applying at once to this office or addressing A. J. Bateman, Esq., Edenton, N. C. Apply at once.

The printers on the Albemarle Enquirer struck Thursday evening last. Cause assigned was non-payment. They were all Union men. The editor of that paper is now running the same with two white lads and two boys of color. How they'll manage it remains to be seen.

Dr. Nowitzky is attending all the courts dispensing Indian Tea and other medicines of his own manufacture. He is not afraid to come again and again, for what he says can be relied on. His book, "Norfolk, the Marine Metropolis of Va., and the sound and River Cities of N. C." will soon be out.—Falcon.

The trade on Saturday was unusually large. This is due to the fact that men can sell at home everything they raise for good prices and purchase any class of goods as cheap in our town as in any wholesale market in the country. Buy where you will and your bills can be duplicated right at your own doors.

"I want to thank you," writes a young man to R. F. Johnson & Co., Richmond, Va., "for placing me in a position by which I am enabled to make money faster than I ever did before." This is but a simple extract of the many hundred of similar letters received by the above firm. See their advertisement in another column.

Sheriff Winslow of Perquimons and Robert White, Esq., were in our city Monday. They report the condition of the trial docket, for the coming term of Perquimons Superior Court, as small and comparatively unimportant. People of Perquimons, like those of Chowan, are too busy in matters of business to get in trouble—to get in the courts.

I have on hand a G. H. P. "Eclipse" Engine, on sills, one 50 Saw "Continental" Cotton Gin, Feed and Condenser, and one "Balt" Cotton press, best quality, all in first-class running order and ready for use. Price for whole outfit $550, delivered at Plymouth, N. C. Time given if desired on part of purchase money. Address I. A. PERRY, Plymouth, N. C.

Chapter 199, laws of North Carolina, makes it unlawful to buy seed cotton in quantity less than is usually baled except the purchaser keep a record of the cotton received, the price paid, the name of the person or persons from whom purchased and have the record so kept as to be open at all times for public inspection. Any violation of the law is made a misdemeanor punishable by fine not exceeding $50 or imprisonment not exceeding 30 days.

We are pleased to add the name of Mr. Jos. A. Perry to the list of cotton buyers in Edenton. We are glad to publish the fact that farmers can command for their cotton the highest cash price brought at their own doors and thus save for themselves freights, charges of sale, drayage, storage, brokerage and such like charges which are usually incurred when shipped away and sold from home. Let the farmers encourage these home cotton buyers and thus make for themselves a convenient local market for the sale of all their products. Mr. Perry buys peas as well as cotton.

REMOVAL

When first he came among us, eight years ago, L. Levy considered himself compelled to occupy a store which, from its retired situation, he called "country." After, when opportunity offered, he moved to the Rosenthal store when he thought himself in town. Now, controlled by business interests, the firm moves again, and, this time, to the large and spacious building formerly occupied by Messrs. Skinner and Parsons, Main street, which situation he declares to be in the midst of the city and, of all places, most attractive to purchasers.

His life experience as a merchant warrants him in saying that to advertise prices amounts to simple robbery. Call and examine goods, see for yourselves their quality and then let the price control your purchase as he is determined to close out the remainder of goods on hand in order to make room for a New Fall and Winter Stock which will be selected in the great city of New York with which no market can successfully compete.

Thanking my customers and public generally for past favors and asking a continuation of the same, I respectfully subscribe myself for the firm
